SoFi NBA PLAY-IN TOURNAMENT 7/8 SEED GAME
WARRIORS 121, GRIZZLIES 116

April 16, 2025 -- Jimmy Butler III scored a game-high 38 points and Stephen Curry added 37 points, including the Warriors' final 10 points in the last two minutes, to give the Warriors their first-ever Play-In Tournament win in four tries and secure the No. 7 seed in the 2025 NBA Playoffs with a 121-116 win over the Grizzlies at Chase Center in the SoFi NBA Play-In Tournament 7/8 Seed Game. Golden State advanced to a first-round matchup against the No. 2 seed Houston Rockets.

The Warriors led by as many as 20 points (55-35, with 6:53 left in the second quarter), but the Grizzlies erased that advantage by the time the game reached the fourth quarter. The Grizzlies closed to within one, 117-116, with 14.3 seconds left in the fourth quarter. Curry was fouled and made two free throws for a 119-116 advantage with 5.4 seconds remaining. The Warriors then forced the Grizzlies into a five-second violation and Curry sank two free throws to seal the win.

Reserves Gary Payton II scored 12 points and Quinten Post added 11 points. Curry made all 13 of his free throw attempts and grabbed a team-high eight rebounds. Butler III was 12-of-18 from the free throw line. Draymond Green dished out 10 assists. For the Grizzlies, Desmond Bane had a team-high 30 points and Ja Morant scored 22 points. Jared Jackson Jr. tallied 18 points and Zach Edey recorded a double-double with 14 points and game-high 17 rebounds. Santi Aldama contributed 14 points off the bench.

WESTERN CONFERENCE FIRST ROUND, GAME #1
WARRIORS 95, ROCKETS 85

April 20, 2025 -- Stephen Curry scored a game-high 31 points and Jimmy Butler III, in his Warriors playoff debut, recorded 25 points, seven rebounds, six assists and five steals in 42 minutes, helped the Warriors take a 1-0 series lead against the Rockets with a 95-85 win at the Toyota Center. The Warriors win gave Head Coach Steve Kerr his 100th coaching playoff win, becoming the seventh ever to reach the milestone and the second-fewest games needed with 141 (Phil Jackson, 135 games).

The Warriors built a 23-point advantage, 64-41, with 6:52 left in the third quarter thanks to a 15-4 run. The Rockets would trim the Golden State lead down to three, 76-73, with 6:49 left in the fourth quarter. Leading by four, 84-80, with 2:38 remaining, the Warriors scored seven unanswered points for a 91-80 advantage with 1:03 left. A Brandin Podziemski layup and a Butler III dunk closed out the Warriors' scoring and held off the Rockets.

Brandin Podziemski had 14 points, a team-high eight rebounds, five assists and two steals in his first career playoff game. Draymond Green played in his 158th career playoff game, tying Klay Thompson for first on the Warriors all-time franchise career playoff games played list. For the Rockets, Alperen Sengun recorded a team-high 26 points and game-high nine rebounds. Dillon Brooks and Jabari Smith Jr. each scored 11 points and Fred VanVleet had 10 points.

ROCKETS 109, WARRIORS 94

April 23, 2025 -- Jalen Green scored a game-high 38 points and Alperen Sengun recorded a double-double with 17 points and game-high 16 rebounds to lead the Rockets to a 109-94 win at Toyota Center to even the first-round series, 1-1. Jimmy Butler III suffered a pelvic contusion and left the game with 1:51 left in the first quarter and did not return, recording three points and two rebounds in eight minutes.

The Rockets led wire-to-wire, leading by as many as 20 points midway through the second quarter. Golden State closed to within 11, 91-80, with 7:16 left in the fourth quarter, but the Rockets went on an 11-2 run for a 102-82 advantage with 4:50 remaining to keep the Warriors at bay. Houston outrebounded Golden State, 47-33.

Stephen Curry scored a team-high 20 points, recording his 4,000th career playoff point on his first 3-pointer of the night. Draymond Green became the Warriors franchise all-time leader in playoff games played in with 159, breaking a tie with Klay Thompson (158). Moses Moody and Quinten Post each scored 12 points. Post made four 3-pointers, the second-most made by a Warriors rookie in a playoff game, trailing only Harrison Barnes' five triples on 4/30/13 at Denver. Jonathan Kuminga and Pat Spencer each tallied 11 points. Curry and Green each grabbed a team-high five rebounds. For the Rockets, Dillon Brooks had 16 points, Tari Eason scored 14 points off the bench and Amen Thompson tallied 11 points.

WARRIORS 104, ROCKETS 93

April 26, 2025 -- Without Jimmy Butler III (left pelvic contusion), Stephen Curry scored a game-high 36 points to lead the Warriors to a 104-93 win over the Rockets at Chase Center to take a 2-1 lead in the first-round series.

Houston led, 84-83, with 5:47 left in the fourth quarter, but the Warriors went on a 12-2 run to take a 92-86 advantage with 3:05 remaining as Gary Payton II accounted for nine of the Warriors' points during that span and Curry capped it off with a 3-pointer. The Warriors maintained at least a six-point edge the rest of the way, closing out the game on a 5-0 spurt.

With 4,053 career playoff points, Curry moved into 10th place on the NBA all-time playoff scoring list, passing Tony Parker (4,045). Buddy Hield had 17 points off the bench, Payton II finished with a playoff career-high 16 points and Brandin Podziemski scored 10 points. Rookie Quinten Post made his first career playoff start and grabbed a game-high 12 rebounds, the most in any game in his career (had nine in a regular season game). For the Rockets, Fred VanVleet scored a team-high 17 points. Alperen Sengun recorded a double-double with 15 points and a team-high 11 rebounds. Dillon Brooks had 13 points, Jabari Smith Jr. contributed 12 points off the bench and Amen Thompson tallied 11 points.

WARRIORS 109, ROCKETS 106

April 28, 2025 -- After missing the last game with a left pelvic contusion, Jimmy Butler III returned, scoring a team-high 27 points and Brandin Podziemski added 26 points to lead the Warriors to a 3-1 series lead with a 109-106 win at Chase Center. The Warriors improved their home playoff record against the Rockets to 13-1, having won the last six meetings in the Bay Area.

Buddy Hield, making his first career playoff start, buried a 3-pointer with 3:32 left in the fourth quarter to give the Warriors a 102-101 advantage. Butler III made a layup but Fred VanVleet answered with a three to tie the score at 104-all with 1:20 remaining. Butler III was fouled on a 3-point attempt and made all three of his free throw attempts for a 107-104 lead with 58.7 seconds left. Alperen Sengun made a turnaround hook shot to bring Houston within one, 107-106, with 40.8 seconds left. With four seconds left, Butler III made two free throws to complete the scoring, 109-106.

Stephen Curry tallied 17 points, Hield finished with 15 points and Quinten Post led all reserves with 13 points. Draymond Green grabbed a team-high eight rebounds. For the Rockets, Sengun recorded a double-double with game-highs of 31 points and 10 rebounds. VanVleet had 25 points, Amen Thompson tallied 17 points and Dillon Brooks scored 11 points.

ROCKETS 131, WARRIORS 116

April 30, 2025 -- Three Rockets scored at least 20 points - Fred VanVleet (game-high 26 points), Amen Thompson (25), Dillon Brooks (24) - to keep the Rockets alive in the series with a 131-116 rout over the Warriors at the Toyota Center. The Warriors still hold a 3-2 series lead.

The Rockets jumped out to a 40-24 lead after the first quarter, increased their advantage to as many as 31 points, but needed to but back their starters as the Warriors made a frantic comeback in the second half with their reserves. Houston's 18-0 run in a 6:35 span from 1:37 left in the first quarter to the 7:02 mark of the second quarter gave them a 54-24 lead. With 5:50 left in the third quarter and trailing by 29, 93-64, the Warriors took their starters out. The Warriors' bench brought Golden State within 13, 112-99, with 5:38 left in the fourth quarter. However, 13 was the closest the Warriors would get the rest of the way. The Warriors reserves accounted for 76 points, the most points ever scored by the Warriors bench in a playoff game since 1970-71, when starters were first officially tracked, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

Moses Moody led the Warriors with playoff career highs of 25 points and a game-high-tying nine rebounds off the bench. Kevin Knox II had a playoff career-high 14 points, Stephen Curry scored 13 points and Pat Spencer contributed 11 points off the bench. All five Rockets starters scored in double figures, including Alperen Sengun (15 points) and Jalen Green (11). Sengun also had a game-high-tying nine rebounds.

ROCKETS 115, WARRIORS 107

May 2, 2025 -- Fred VanVleet scored a game-high-tying 29 points and Alperen Sengun recorded his fourth double-double of the series with 21 points and game-high 14 rebounds to help the Rockets force a Game 7 with a 115-107 win over the Warriors at Chase Center.

The Rockets used a 14-1 run to turn a four-point lead, 92-88, into a 17-point advantage, 106-89, with 4:40 left in the fourth quarter from which the Warriors could not recover from. The Rockets were 33-of-46 from the free throw line, and Steven Adams was intentionally fouled several times, going 9-of-16 from the line.

Stephen Curry tallied a game-high-tying 29 points and Jimmy Butler III had 27 points and team-highs of nine rebounds and eight assists. Butler III went 12-of-14 from the free throw line. Reserves Moses Moody (13 points) and Brandin Podziemski (10 points) scored in double figures. For the Rockets, Adams finished with 17 points off the bench, Amen Thompson tallied 14 points and Jalen Green had 12 points.

WARRIORS 103, ROCKETS 89

May 4, 2025 -- Buddy Hield scored a playoff career-high 33 points, Stephen Curry recorded a double-double with 22 points and a team-high 10 rebounds and Jimmy Butler III added 20 points to lead the Warriors to a 103-89 win in Game 7 at the Toyota Center to advance to a Western Conference Semifinals matchup against the No. 6 seed Timberwolves.

The Warriors held a 51-39 halftime lead, but the Rockets closed to within three, 63-60, with 2:43 left in the third quarter. Golden State outscored Houston, 7-2, to end the quarter and lead, 70-62, entering the fourth quarter. Leading by eight, 82-74, the Warriors used 12-0 run for their largest lead of the game, a 20-point margin, 94-74, with 2:34 remaining.

Hield made a playoff career-high nine 3-pointers, tying Donte DiVincenzo (5/19/24 NYK vs. IND) for the most made in a Game 7 in NBA history. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Hield became the first player in NBA Playoffs history to score 33 points after being scoreless in the previous playoff game. Draymond Green recorded 16 points. For the Rockets, Amen Thompson had a team-high 24 points. Alperen Sengun recorded a double-double with 21 points and a game-high 14 rebounds. Fred VanVleet added 17 points.

WESTERN CONFERENCE SEMIFINALS, GAME #1
WARRIORS 99, TIMBERWOLVES 88

May 6, 2025 -- Buddy Hield scored a game-high 24 points and Jimmy Butler III recorded 20 points, a team-high 11 rebounds and eight assists to help the Warriors take a 1-0 lead in their semifinals matchup against the Timberwolves with a 99-88 win at the Target Center. Stephen Curry suffered a left hamstring strain with 8:19 left in the second quarter and did not return.

Trailing, 20-16, the Warriors went on a 17-0 run to take a 33-20 advantage with 7:58 left in the second quarter. The Warriors had a 44-31 halftime lead, and the 31 points were the fewest the Warriors had ever allowed in the first half of a playoff game. Minnesota had missed all 15 of its 3-point attempts in the first half and ended up missing its first 16 attempts before making its first one of the game. Golden State led by as many as 23 points (76-53, with 2:23 left in the third quarter), but the Timberwolves fought back to close within nine, 93-84, with 2:58 left in the fourth quarter, but that would be the closest they would get.

Draymond Green scored 18 points, making four 3-pointers. Curry finished with 13 points. For the Timberwolves, Anthony Edwards tallied a team-high 23 points and game-high 14 rebounds. Naz Reid led all reserves with 19 points, Julius Randle had 18 points, Jaden McDaniels tallied 12 points. Rudy Gobert grabbed 11 rebounds.

TIMBERWOLVES 117, WARRIORS 93

May 8, 2025 -- Julius Randle recorded a game-high 24 points, a playoff career-high 11 assists, Anthony Edwards and Nickeil Alexander-Walker each had 20 points to help the Timberwolves even the semifinals series with a 117-93 win over the Warriors at the Target Center.

The Timberwolves jumped out to a 13-0 lead, the largest run to start a playoff game by a Warriors opponent since play-by-play was first tracked in 1987-88 and tying the largest of this postseason (Milwaukee in Game 5 vs. Indiana). Minnesota lead wire-to-wire, as its largest lead was 25 points and had at least a 15-point advantage throughout the fourth quarter.

Without Stephen Curry (left hamstring strain), the Warriors received a playoff career-high-tying 18 points from Jonathan Kuminga off the bench. Jimmy Butler III had 17 points, Buddy Hield and Trayce Jackson-Davis each contributed 15 points. Brandin Podziemski tallied 11 points. Butler III grabbed a team-high seven rebounds. For the Timberwolves, Jaden McDaniels scored 16 points and Naz Reid added 11 points. Rudy Gobert and Edwards each grabbed a game-high nine rebounds.

WESTERN CONFERENCE SEMIFINALS, GAME #3
TIMBERWOLVES 102, WARRIORS 97

May 10, 2025 -- Anthony Edwards scored a game-high 36 points and Julius Randle recorded a triple-double (24 points, 10 rebounds, 12 assists) to lead the Timberwolves to 2-1 semifinals series lead with a 102-97 win over the Warriors at Chase Center.

Despite not making a 3-pointer (0-5 3P), the Warriors had a 42-40 halftime lead, marking the first time since play-by-play was first officially recorded in 1997-98 the Warriors had a first-half lead in a playoff game despite not making a 3-pointer, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. The Warriors had a 73-69 lead heading into the fourth quarter, but the Timberwolves used a 9-0 run to turn an 82-77 deficit into an 86-82 advantage with 4:20 remaining. Golden State closed to within four, 93-89, with 1:56 left, but Edwards scored five consecutive points to push the lead up to nine, 98-89, with 53.6 seconds left.

In their second game without Stephen Curry (left hamstring strain), Jimmy Butler III led the Warriors with 33 points and Jonathan Kuminga added a playoff career-high 30 points off the bench. Buddy Hield scored 14 points. Brandin Podziemski grabbed a team-high eight rebounds. For the Timberwolves, Jaden McDaniels scored 15 points and Rudy Gobert grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds.

WESTERN CONFERENCE SEMIFINALS, GAME #4
TIMBERWOLVES 117, WARRIORS 110

May 12, 2025 -- Julius Randle scored a game-high 31 points and Anthony Edwards added 30 points to lead the Timberwolves to a 117-110 win at Chase Center in Game 4 of the Western Conference Semifinals to take a 3-1 series lead.

With the score tied at 68-all, the Timberwolves went on a 17-0 run to take a 85-68 lead with 3:46 left in the third quarter. The Timberwolves led by as many 21 points. The Warriors closed out the game outscoring the Timberwolves, 19-5, trimming Minnesota's 21-point advantage down to the final margin. Golden State made just eight 3-pointers and for the second straight game forced Minnesota into 21 turnovers.

Jonathan Kuminga led the Warriors with 23 points off the bench. Jimmy Butler III and Draymond Green each scored 14 points, Buddy Hield added 13 points and Brandin Podziemski had 11 points. Kevon Looney grabbed a team-high eight rebounds. For the Timberwolves, Nickell Alexander-Walker contributed 13 points off the bench and Mike Conley scored 11 points. Jaden McDaniels recorded a double-double with 10 points and a game-high 13 rebounds.

WESTERN CONFERENCE SEMIFINALS, GAME #5
TIMBERWOLVES 121, WARRIORS 110

May 14, 2025 -- Julius Randle scored a game-high 29 points and Anthony Edwards added 22 points and 10 assists to help the Timberwolves advance to the Western Conference Finals for the second time in as many seasons with a series-clinching 121-110 win over the Warriors in Game 5 at the Target Center.

The Timberwolves closed out the first half on a 9-0 run for a 15-point advantage, 62-47. Another 9-0 Timberwolves run late in the third gave them their largest lead of the game, a 25-point lead, 93-68, with 1:01 left in the quarter. The Warriors closed to within nine, 99-90, with 7:11 left in the fourth quarter, but the Timberwolves scored five unanswered points and then maintained a double-digit lead the rest of the way. Minnesota outshot Golden State, 62.8 to 43.3 percent from the field.

Without Stephen Curry (left hamstring strain), the Warriors received a team-high and playoff career-high 28 points from Brandin Podziemski. Jonathan Kuminga contributed 26 points off the bench. Jimmy Butler III added 17 points, making nine-of-11 from the free throw line. Moses Moody had 12 points off the bench. Butler III, Draymond Green and Podziemski each had a team-high six rebounds. For Minnesota, Rudy Gobert scored 17 points, Mike Conley had 16 points, Jaden McDaniels tallied 14 points and Donte DiVincenzo added 13 points off the bench. Randle and Gobert each grabbed a game-high eight rebounds.

WARRIORS-ROCKETS NOTES

The Warriors and Rockets met five times during the regular season (due to the matchup during the Emirates NBA Cup). Prior to this season, the last time the Warriors played a team five times in the regular season was 1994-95 when they played the Clippers, Lakers, Suns, Blazers, Kings, and SuperSonics five times that season (all five), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

THE

2024-25 SUPERLATIVES

7: The Warriors became the seventh No. 7 seed to advance to the conference semifinals, upsetting the No. 2 Houston Rockets in the 2025 NBA Playoffs Western Conference First Round, 4-3. It was the third time in franchise history the Warriors advanced to the semifinals as the No. 7 seed (1989 and 1991).

.659: Golden State had a 29-15 record (.659) since forward Jimmy Butler III made his Warriors debut on February 8 at Chicago (23-8 regular season, 1-0 play-in tournament, 5-7 playoffs). With Butler III in the lineup, the Warriors were 28-14 in 2024-25 (23-7 regular season, 1-0 play-in tournament, 4-7 playoffs), as Butler missed one regular season game (March 1 at Philadelphia) and one playoff game (Game 3 vs. Houston). Prior to Butler III's debut, Golden State possessed a 25-26 record, tied with the Kings for 10th in the conference.

.771: The Warriors were 27-8 in 2024-25 when both Stephen Curry and Jimmy Butler III were in the lineup (22-5 regular season, 1-0 play-in tournament, 4-3 playoffs).

.857: Since 2015, the Warriors have a 24-4 series record. Of the four losses, two have come in the NBA Finals (2016, 2019) and two in the semifinals (2023, 2025).

30: The Warriors have won at least one road game in 30 of their last 31 playoff series, after winning road games in each series in the 2025 NBA Playoffs (at Houston and at Minnesota). Golden State had an NBA-record of winning at least one road game in 28 consecutive playoff series (2013 NBA Playoffs Western Conference First Round vs. Denver to 2023 NBA Playoffs First Round vs. Sacramento). The streak ended in the semifinals in 2023 against the Lakers.

100: Warriors Head Coach Steve Kerr earned his 100th career playoff coaching victory on April 20, 2025, after Golden State defeated Houston, 95-85, in Game 1 of the First Round. The win broke a tie with Red Auerbach (99). With his 100th coaching playoff win in his 141st career game, Kerr reached the milestone in the second-fewest games in NBA history, trailing only Phil Jackson, who needed 135 games. Kerr now has 104 playoff coaching wins.

4,000: Stephen Curry became the first player in NBA history to make 4,000 career 3-pointers when he made his second 3-pointer of the night, with 8:19 left in the third quarter on March 13 vs. Sacramento. Curry has made an NBA-record 4,058 career 3-pointers in the regular season.

.933: For the fifth time in his career, with the second-highest single-season percentage in his career, Stephen Curry led the NBA in free throw percentage, making 93.3 percent of his attempts. Curry, the NBA's all-time leader in free throw percentage (91.1 FT%), tied Reggie Miller for the third-most times leading the league, trailing only Bill Sharman (seven times) and Rick Barry (six).

25,386: Stephen Curry scored his 25,000th career point in the third quarter on March 8 vs. Detroit, becoming the 10th player in NBA history to achieve the feat with a single franchise and the 26th player overall to surpass 25,000 career points. Currently in 24th place on the NBA all-time scoring list, Curry passed Hall of Famers Reggie Miller (25,279), Jerry West (25,192), Patrick Ewing (24,815), Ray Allen (24,505), Allen Iverson (24,368) and Charles Barkley (23,757) this season.

567: Steve Kerr became the Warriors franchise leader in coaching victories with his 558th coaching win on March 18 after a 97-94 win over the New York Knicks at Chase Center, passing Alvin Attles. Kerr owns a record of 567-308 (.648).

2024-25 HONORS & AWARDS

Stephen Curry

Named the 2024-25 Twyman-Stokes Teammate of the Year, the first Warriors player to win the award, which the NBA established in 2012-13.

Was awarded the 2025 Kobe Bryant All-Star MVP trophy after leading Shaq's OGs to the tournament title at the 74th NBA All-Star Game at Chase Center. It was Curry's second career All-Star MVP award (2022). Curry earned his 11th All-Star nod (10th start), passing Paul Arizin for the most All-Star selections in Warriors franchise history.

Draymond Green

Was named the winner of the 2024-25 NBA Hustle Award, becoming the first player to rank in the top 40 of all nine statistical categories used to determine the winner and the first Warriors player to ever win the award.

50: The Warriors played in 50 clutch games in 2024-25 (regular season, play-in and playoffs), compiling a 29-21 record (25-20 regular season, 1-0 play-in, 3-1 playoffs). Prior to Jimmy Butler III's debut on February 8 at Chicago, the Warriors had a 16-16 record in clutch games; thereafter, they were 13-5 (9-4 regular season, 1-0 play-in, 3-1 in playoffs). With Butler III in the lineup, the Warriors had a 12-4 record in all clutch games in the 2024-25 season.

311: Stephen Curry made 311 3-pointers this season, third-most in the league, behind Anthony Edwards (320) and Malik Beasley (319). This is Curry's NBA-record sixth season with at least 300 triples. Beasley, Edwards, Klay Thompson, James Harden each have one season with 300-or-more 3-pointers. This is the first time in NBA history three players have made at least 300 3-pointers in a single season.

.933: Stephen Curry led the NBA in free throw percentage, making 93.3 percent, the second-highest season percentage in his career behind 93.4 in 2010-11. This was the fifth time Curry led the league in free throw percentage, tying Reggie Miller for the third-most times in league history behind Bill Sharman (7x) and Rick Barry (6x).

109.0: The Warriors had the best defensive rating (109.0) in the NBA since Jimmy Butler III made his debut at Chicago in February 8. Golden State is ranked first in steals per game (10.7), points off turnovers (22.8) and forcing turnovers (17.6).

.408: Center Quinten Post finished first among rookies with a 40.8 3-point shooting percentage. Post's 73 3-pointers are the most by any Warriors player in their first 42 games of their career (second is Stephen Curry with 68).

.822: Since Jimmy Butler III played in his first game for the Warriors on February 8 at Chicago, the Warriors made 82.2 percent of their free throw attempts, ranked third in the league in that span. Prior to Butler III joining the team, the Warriors ranked last in free throw percentage, shooting 72.0 percent. Additionally, the Warriors went from 27th in the NBA in free throw attempts per game (20.4) to third (24.9). Butler III averaged 7.7 free throw attempts with the Warriors and went to the free throw line 231 times, third-most on the Warriors.

PLAYOFF NOTES

WARRIORS' 2024-25 SEASON ENDS IN SEMIFINALS

The Warriors' 2024-25 season ended on May 14 at Minnesota as the Timberwolves earned a 121-110 Game 5 series-clinching win to advance to the Western Conference Finals. After becoming the seventh No. 7 seed to defeat a No. 2 seed, outlasting Houston in seven games in the first round, the Warriors won Game 1 at Minnesota in the semifinals. However, Stephen Curry suffered a left hamstring injury and the Timberwolves won the next four games. This was the first time since 1972 the Warriors lost four consecutive games in a single playoff series (semifinals vs. Milwaukee, lost, 4-1).

POSTSEASON DUBS

Golden State made its 10th postseason appearance in the last 13 years and 38th in franchise history. Since 2015, the Warriors own a playoff record of 104-48 (.684) and have made six NBA Finals appearances and won four NBA titles (2015, 2017, 2018, 2022).

WITHOUT STEPH

Stephen Curry missed the Warriors' final four playoff games after suffering a Grade 1 left hamstring strain in the May 6 semifinal Game 1 at Minnesota. Curry exited the game with 8:19 left in the second quarter and did not return. He scored 13 points in 13 minutes before leaving. In the 2025 NBA Playoffs, Curry is averaging a team-high 22.6 points (47.7 FG%, 40.0 3P%, 89.3 FT%), 5.3 rebounds, 5.1 assists, 1.0 steals in 35.1 minutes per game in eight appearances (all starts).

Including Game 5 at Minnesota, Curry has missed 16 playoff games in his career. He missed six games in 2016 due to a right ankle injury and MCL sprain, right knee, another six games in 2018 due to a left MCL sprain and currently three games in 2025 due to a left hamstring strain. The Warriors have gone a combined 9-7 in his absence (4-2 in 2016, 5-1 in 2018, 0-4 in 2025).

SINCE JIMMY ARRIVED...

Including the regular season (last 31 games), play-in tournament game vs. Memphis and the NBA Playoffs (11 games), the Warriors are 29-15 since Jimmy Butler III played his first game for the Warriors on February 8 at Chicago, 28-14 with Butler III in the lineup (he missed one regular season game and Game 3 of the first-round series vs. Houston) and 27-8 when both Stephen Curry and Butler III were in the lineup.

During the 2024-25 regular season, Golden State's 23-8 record and .742 winning percentage was the third-highest in the league since February 8, when Butler III made his Warriors debut at Chicago, trailing only Oklahoma City (.844, 27-5) and Boston (.833, 25-5). The Warriors were 25-26, tied for 10 with Sacramento in the Western Conference on Feb. 7. The Warriors finished in seventh place with a 48-34 record. The Warriors were 22-5 with both Curry and Butler III in the lineup and 23-7 with Butler III in the lineup (he missed 3/1 at PHI game).

THE 7TH SEED

With the Game 7 win at Houston, the Warriors became the seventh No. 7 seed to advance to the semifinals. This marked the third time the Warriors have accomplished this, previously done in 1989 and 1991.

FIRST PLAYOFF MEETING WITH THE TIMBERWOLVES

This was the first time the Warriors and Timberwolves faced each other in the playoffs. Prior to this playoff meeting, Minnesota was the last remaining Western Conference team the Warriors had not faced in the postseason in franchise history.

The No. 7 seed Warriors faced the No. 6 seed Timberwolves, marking the third time a No. 6 seed and No. 7 seed played each other, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. The Warriors were involved in the previous time, as the No. 6 seed, when they took on the No. 7 seed Lakers in the 2023 Western Conference Semifinals. The Lakers defeated the Warriors, 4-2, to advance to the conference finals. The other instance was in 1987 when the No. 7 seed Seattle SuperSonics defeated the No. 6 seed Houston Rockets, 4-2, in a semifinal matchup.

CLUTCH GAMES

Including the regular season, play-in and playoffs, the Warriors played in 50 clutch games in 2024-25 (45 during the regular season, one play-in and four in the playoffs). Clutch games are games in which the score is within five in the final five minutes of the game. Golden State was 25-20 in clutch games during the 2024-25 regular season, 1-0 in the play-in tournament and 3-1 in the playoffs.

Since Jimmy Butler III's Warriors debut on February 8 at Chicago, the Warriors had a 13-5 record in clutch games this season, including the regular season, play-in and playoffs (9-4 regular season, 1-0 in play-in, 3-1 in playoffs). With Butler III in the lineup, the Warriors had a 12-4 record in clutch games (9-3 regular season, 1-0 play-in, 2-1 playoffs). The two games Butler III missed were March 1 at Philadelphia and April 26 vs. Houston (First Round, Game #3).

PAIR OF 30S

On May 10 in Game 3 of the Semifinals vs. Minnesota, Jimmy Butler III recorded a team-high and 2025 playoff high 33 points and Jonathan Kuminga scored 30 points, becoming the first Warriors teammates to each score 30 points in a playoff game since Stephen Curry tallied 33 points and Klay Thompson had 32 points on April 24, 2022 at Denver, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

For Butler III, the 33 points were the most points he's scored since he made his Warriors debut on February 8 at Chicago, unless you count the game-high 38 points he scored in the SoFi NBA Play-In Tournament 7/8 Seed Game on April 16 in the 121-116 win vs. Memphis.

Kuminga came off the bench to tally a playoff career-high 30 points (his previous high was 18, twice, most recently in Game 2 at Minnesota on May 8). Prior to Kuminga, the last player to score at least 30 points off the bench in a playoff game was Sacramento's Malik Monk with 32 points on April 15, 2023 vs. Golden State. The last Warriors reserve to account for at least 30 points off the bench was Jordan Poole with 31 points on May 1, 2022 at Memphis.

0 3-POINTERS IN THE FIRST HALF

On May 10 in Game 3 of the Semifinals vs. Minnesota, in the first half, the Warriors were 0-of-5 from 3-point range, marking the first time the Warriors did not make a 3-pointer in a first half since Jan. 6, 2020 when they went 0-for-13 at Sacramento, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. It was the fewest 3-pointers made by the Warriors in the first half of a playoff game since 1997-98, the first season play-by-play was officially tracked. Their previous low for a playoff game in the first half was one, 4/19/18 at San Antonio (1-for-11) and 4/24/14 vs. LAC (1-for-12).

At the half, the Warriors led, 42-40. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, this was the first time the Warriors did not make a 3-pointer (0-for-5) and led at the half in a playoff game since 1997-98, the first season play-by-play was officially tracked. The last time this happened in the regular season was on 11/6/13 at MIN (50-47, 0-for-8 3P).

BUDDY'S BREAKOUT

In a span of two games (Game 7 at Houston and Game 1 at Minnesota), Buddy Hield scored a total of 57 points (33 at Houston and 24 at Minnesota) and made a total of 14 3-pointers (nine at Houston and five at Minnesota). Hield became just the fifth player in NBA history to make 14 3-pointers in a two-game span in the playoffs, joining Stephen Curry, Klay Thompson, Damian Lillard and Desmond Bane (ESPN SportsCenter).

The last time Hield had consecutive 20-point games was during the regular season when he had four straight 20-point games (October 29 - November 4). Hield began the 2024-25 regular season scoring at least 20 points in six of the first seven games, but had just five 20-point games the rest of the way. A nine-year NBA veteran, this is just Hield's second postseason, having been with the 76ers in the 2024 NBA Playoffs.

GREEN REACHES 1,000 CAREER PLAYOFF ASSISTS

On May 6 at Minnesota (Game 1, Semifinals), Draymond Green became the 15th player in NBA history to record 1,000 career playoff assists. Green entered the game needing three assists and handed out six in the Warriors' 99-88 Game 1 win. On May 2 vs. Houston (Game 6, First Round), Green moved into 15th place on the NBA all-time playoff assists list, passing Isiah Thomas (987). On May 8 at Minnesota (Game 2, Semifinals), Green moved past Dennis Johnson (1,006) into 14th place on the NBA all-time playoff assists list.

PLAYOFF ROAD WARRIORS

The Warriors have won at least one road game in 30 of their last 31 playoff series. Golden State was unable to win a road game in three tries against the Lakers in the 2023 NBA Playoffs Western Conference Semifinals, ending the Warriors' NBA-record streak of winning at least one road game in 28 consecutive playoff series. The record streak began with a road victory in Denver in the First Round of the 2013 NBA Playoffs (131-117 on April 23, 2013). The streak coincided with the tenures of Stephen Curry, Draymond Green and Klay Thompson. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Green (28), Thompson (28) and Curry (27) were the only players to win at least one road game in every playoff series they played in (minimum 20). Curry missed the 2018 First Round series vs. San Antonio.

GAME 7 BUDDY

On May 4 at Houston, in Game 7, Buddy Hield scored a game-high and playoff career-high 33 points to help the Warriors win the first-round series against the Rockets. Hield made a playoff career-high nine 3-pointers, tying Donte DiVincenzo (5/19/24 NYK vs. IND) for the most 3-pointers made in a Game 7 in NBA history. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Hield became the first player in NBA history to score 33 points following a scoreless game in a single postseason, as the previous mark was 31 points by Tim Perry in 1992 and Eddie Johnson in 1997. Hield, who made 81.8 percent of his 3-point attempts, joined Jason Terry (9-10 3P on 5/8/11) as the only players to make nine-or-more 3-pointers while shooting at least 80 percent from long distance in a playoff game in NBA history (NBA.com). Hield became the 13th player to make nine 3-pointers in a playoff game, tied for the fourth-most in NBA Playoffs history.

STEPH LED THE WAY IN FIRST ROUND

In the First Round vs. Houston, the 37-year-old Stephen Curry led the Warriors in total points (168), total rebounds (41) and total assists (40), becoming the oldest player to lead a team in those categories in a playoff series since 1950-51, when individual rebounds were first tracked, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Additionally, Curry led the team in field goals made (57) and attempted (121), 3-pointers made (29) and attempted (74), free throw percentage (89.3 FT%). Curry is the first Warriors player since 1950-51 to lead the team in points, rebounds and assists in a playoff series.

GAME 7!

The Warriors have a 4-1 record in Game 7 of a playoff series since 2015 and an all-time mark of 7-5. This was the third time in Warriors franchise history Golden State played in a Game 7 in the first round with the last time coming in 2023 when the Warriors defeated the Kings. The Warriors became the first defending champion to overcome a 2-0 deficit to win a series.

Prior to the Warriors' win at Houston, the last time a team won a Game 7 on the road was in 2024 with Minnesota (at Denver) and Indiana (at New York), both in the semifinals. The Warriors, having won Game 7 on the road four times in franchise history, joined only the Celtics (five) with four-or-more Game 7 road wins.

OTHER GAME 7 NOTES

Draymond Green's defense was on full display in Game 7 at Houston as the contesting defender, Green held opposing players to 3-of-17 shooting from the field, according to ESPN Tracking. Alperen Sengun was 2-of-8 from the field against Green.

Warriors Head Coach Steve Kerr improved to 3-0 in Game 7s on the road, the most wins and highest winning percentage in NBA history (minimum two games), according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Jason Kidd and Bill Russell are behind, each with 2-0 records.

According to Josh Dubow (Associated Press), the Warriors had three points from their bench in Game 7 at Houston for their fewest in any playoff game as far as records go back to 1983. Their previous low was four in a Game 5 loss to the Rockets in 2018. Stephen Curry and Green became the 20th and 21st players in NBA history to defeat the same opponent five times in a best-of-seven playoff series per (@sportradar), minimum one game played in series. Curry, Green, Jimmy Butler III and Kevon Looney all played in their third career Game 7 road win. Only others to do that are John Havlicek, Don Nelson and Robert Horry.

WINNING AGAINST THE WEST IN THE PLAYOFFS

With the series win over the Rockets, the Warriors have won 20 their last 21 playoff series against Western Conference teams, including 19 straight at one point (2015-2023). Their streak of 19 consecutive playoff series wins stands as the longest such streak since the NBA instituted conferences in 1970-71. The Warriors last lost a playoff series in the West in 2023, when they lost their semifinal matchup against the Lakers in six games. Golden State's streak eclipsed the previous record of 14 consecutive conference series wins by the Celtics in the Eastern Conference from 1984-88.

WARRIORS & ROCKETS FOR THE 12TH TIME

Game 7 marked the 12th time these two teams faced each other this season (five in the regular season and seven in the playoffs). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, this is the most combined regular season and playoff games played between two teams in a single season since the 1994-95 season, 30 years ago, when the San Antonio Spurs and the Houston Rockets played 12 games against each other (six in the regular season, six in the playoffs). Since the merger (1976-77), there have been now 26 times in which two teams played each other 12-or-more times in a season (seven times, 13 meetings; 19 times, 12 meetings).

CLOSING OUT A SERIES

The Warriors closed out the first-round series against the Rockets with a 103-89 win in Game 7 at Houston. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Warriors have a 48-29 (.623) all-time record in close out games, including 24-13 (.649) since 2015.

76 POINTS FROM THE WARRIORS RESERVES

On April 30 at Houston, in Game 5 of a first-round series, the Warriors' reserves accounted for 76 points, the most in a playoff game in Warriors franchise history since 1970-71, when starters were first officially tracked, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. It surpassed the 71 bench points the Warriors received on May 9, 2016 at Portland in the semifinals. The last time a team received at least 76 points from its bench in a playoff game was on August 23, 2020 (bubble) by Toronto, when their reserves accounted for 100 points in their 150-122 series-clinching win against Brooklyn. The 100 is the most bench points scored in a playoff game since 1970-71, when officially starters were first tracked. During the 2024-25 regular season, the Warriors scored 83 bench points on January 23, 2025 vs. Chicago, the third-most points scored by Warriors reserves in a regular season game since 1970-71.

PLAYOFF JIMMY

On April 20 at Houston in Game 1 of the First Round, Jimmy Butler III recorded 25 points, seven rebounds, six assists and five steals in 42 minutes, becoming the first Warrior to ever post those numbers in their Warriors playoff debut, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. He is the fourth Warriors player to record at least 25 points, five rebounds, five assists and five steals in a playoff game since 1973-74, joining Rick Barry (twice), Stephen Curry (twice) and Tim Hardaway (once), according to NBA.com. It was Butler III's third playoff games with at least 25 points, five rebounds, five assists and five steals, tying Allen Iverson for the third-most since steals were officially tracked in 1973-74. Only Michael Jordan (eight) and Russell Westbrook (four) have more, according to ESPN Stats & Info.

His 25 points are tied for the seventh-most points in a Warriors playoff debut. The last Warriors player to score that many in his playoff debut was Jordan Poole with 30 points on April 16, 2022 in Game 1 of a first-round series vs. Denver. The last Warriors player with at least 25 points, five rebounds and five assists in their first playoff game with the franchise was Baron Davis on April 22, 2007 at Dallas with 33 points, 14 rebounds and eight assists. Butler III logged 42 minutes in his Warriors playoff debut. The last Warrior to play that many minutes in their first playoff game with the franchise was Curry with 43 minutes on April 20, 2013 at Denver.

In the SoFi NBA Play-In Tournament 7/8 Seed Game on April 15, Butler III tallied a game-high 38 points, the most points he has scored since joining the Warriors (he had a 30-point game on April 9 vs. San Antonio). He also had seven rebounds, six assists, three steals and was 12-of-18 from the free throw line in the 121-116 win over the Grizzlies that secured the seventh seed in the playoffs for the Warriors.

KERR EARNS 100TH PLAYOFF COACHING WIN

On April 20, 2025, at Houston in Game 1 of the Western Conference First Round, the Warriors won, 95-85, giving Warriors Head Coach Steve Kerr his 100th playoff coaching victory. Kerr moved into a tie with Larry Brown for sixth place on the NBA all-time playoff coaching wins list after breaking a tie with Red Auerbach (99). With his 100th coaching playoff win in his 141st career game, Kerr reached the century mark in the second-fewest games in NBA history, trailing only Phil Jackson, who needed 135 games.

BUTLER III'S EFFECT

The Warriors had the highest defensive rating (109.0) in the NBA since Feb. 8, when Jimmy Butler III made his debut. Additionally, during this span, Golden State was ranked first in steals per game (10.7), points off turnovers (22.8) and forcing turnovers (17.6). Since Butler III played in his first game for the Warriors on February 8 at Chicago, the Warriors made 82.2 percent of their free throw attempts, ranked third in the league in that span. Prior to Butler III joining the team, the Warriors ranked last in free throw percentage, shooting 72.0 percent. Additionally, the Warriors went from 27th in the NBA in free throw attempts per game (20.4) to third (24.9) in that span. Butler III averaged 7.7 free throw attempts with the Warriors and got to the free throw line 231 times, third-most on the Warriors.

CURRY NAMED TWYMAN-STOKES TEAMMATE OF THE YEAR

On April 28, Warriors guard Stephen Curry was named the 2024-25 Twyman-Stokes Teammate of the Year. He is the first Warriors player to win the award, which the NBA established in 2012-13.

A four-time NBA champion and two-time NBA MVP, Curry averaged a team-high 24.5 points, 4.4 rebounds, a team-high 6.0 assists, 1.1 steals, and 32.2 minutes over 70 games (all starts) during the 2024-25 NBA regular season. He made a franchise-record 11th All-Star appearance at Chase Center and was named the 2025 Kobe Bryant NBA All-Star Game MVP.

The Twyman-Stokes Teammate of the Year Award recognizes the player deemed the best teammate based on selfless play, on- and off-court leadership as a mentor and role model to other NBA players, and commitment and dedication to team. Curry previously won the NBA Sportsmanship Award (2010-11), which honors a player who best represents the ideals of sportsmanship on the court.

A panel of league executives selected 12 finalists (six from each conference) for the Twyman-Stokes Teammate of the Year Award. Current NBA players selected the winner from the list of finalists.

GREEN NAMED NBA HUSTLE AWARD WINNER

On April 25, Draymond Green was named the winner of the 2024-25 NBA Hustle Award. This season, Green was a finalist for the NBA Defensive Player of the Year Award after averaging 9.0 points, 6.1 rebounds, 5.6 assists, 1.5 steals, and 1.0 blocks in 29.2 minutes over 68 games (66 starts). He ranked in the top 40 league-wide in all nine hustle categories and was named Western Conference Defensive Player of the Month for March. A four-time NBA All-Star and eight-time NBA All-Defensive Team selection, Green previously earned Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2016-17.

Presented annually since the 2016-17 season, the NBA Hustle Award honors a player who makes the effort plays that do not often appear in the traditional box score but help determine team success. Hustle statistics include deflections, loose balls recovered, charges drawn, screen assists, contested shots and box-outs. Green is the first player to rank in the top 40 in all nine statistical categories used to determine the award.

As a four-time NBA All-Star, two-time All-NBA selection and eight-time All-Defensive Team selection, Green becomes the most decorated player to earn the Hustle Award. At 35, the four-time NBA champion also becomes the oldest player to win the honor. Green also becomes only the second player in NBA history to be named Defensive Player of the Year and Hustle Player of the Year, joining Marcus Smart.

Prior to winning the Hustle Award this season, Green had three top-five finishes over the past eight years, including being the runner-up for the inaugural award in 2016-17 and again in 2022-23, and finishing fourth in 2020-21.

IRONMAN BUDDY

Buddy Hield became the 13th player in NBA history to play in 166 regular season games in a two-season span and the first since Shareef Abdur-Rahim in 2002-03 - 2003-04, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Hield played in every game during the 2024-25 regular season (82) and played in 84 in 2023-24 (52 with Indiana and 32 with Philadelphia). In his nine NBA seasons, Hield has played in at least 80 games in seven seasons, including each of the last four. Since 1967-68 when the NBA went to an 82-game schedule, and including strike shortened seasons, there have been 78 instances of a Warriors player appearing in every team game during the regular season. Fifteen players have done it multiple times.

DUNKING TJD

Trayce Jackson-Davis became the first Warriors player to have two straight seasons with at least 100 dunks, since 1997-98 when play-by-play was first officially tracked, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Jackson-Davis finished with a team-high 101 dunks in 2024-25 and had 113 last season as a rookie.

WARRIORS STARTING FIVE

The Warriors had a 16-3 record when deploying the starting lineup of Stephen Curry, Draymond Green, Jimmy Butler III, Moses Moody, Brandin Podziemski. It was the most used starting lineup by the Warriors this season. A loss on April 6 vs. Houston ended a 14-game winning streak when using this starting lineup, the longest winning streak this season (second is Oklahoma City's 11-game winning streak from 12/3 - 1/5/24 with Shai Gilgeous-Alexander, Luguentz Dort, Jalen Williams, Isaiah Hartenstein, and Carson Wallace starting), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

Since 1970-71 when starters were officially tracked, the Warriors' 14-game winning streak with this starting five was the second-longest in franchise history trailing only a 20-game winning streak in 2014-15. The Warriors starting five of Andrew Bogut, Stephen Curry, Klay Thompson, Draymond Green and Harrison Barnes holds the franchise record of 20 consecutive wins (11/13/14 - 1/25/15), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

POST FROM THREE

Among rookies, Warriors rookie center Quinten Post, selected by the Warriors in the second round (52nd overall) of the 2024 NBA Draft, ranked first in 3-point field goal percentage (40.8 3P%). Post was also ranked 16th in scoring (8.1 ppg) and tied 16th in rebounding (3.5 rpg).

His 73 3-pointers in his first 42 NBA games is a Warriors franchise record, surpassing the 68 triples by Stephen Curry (2009-10) in his first 42 games. Post made three-or-more 3-pointers in 12 games this season (Warriors 10-2 in those games).

On 3/20 vs. Toronto, Post, who celebrated his 25th birthday on March 21, scored 18 points off the bench, making a career-high six 3-pointers, tied with Moses Moody (2/1/22 at San Antonio) and Stephen Curry (1/5/10 at Denver) for the second-most by a Warriors rookie, trailing only the franchise-record seven made by Curry (2/10/10 vs. LA Clippers).

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, when going by listed height, Post was the third rookie (fourth instance) of 7'0 or taller to hit six or more threes in a game, joining Chicago's Lauri Markkanen (7'0, eight 3-pointers) and Oklahoma City's Aleksej Pokusevski (7'0, seven 3-pointers in one game and six threes in another).

CURRY - NOW 24TH ON NBA ALL-TIME SCORING LIST

On April 6 vs. Houston, Curry scored three points, passing Reggie Miller (25,279) to move into 24th on the NBA all-time scoring list. Curry now trails Alex English (25,613) by 227 points for the 23rd spot.

On April 1 at Memphis, Curry scored a game-high 52 points, moving into the Top 25 of the NBA all-time scoring list, passing Jerry West (25,192 career points). On February 27 at Orlando, Curry scored a game-high and season-high 56 points to move into 26th place on the NBA all-time scoring list, passing Hall of Famer Patrick Ewing (24,815). This season Curry has passed several Hall of Famers, Charles Barkley, Allen Iverson and Ray Allen, and currently resides in the 26th spot on the league's all-time points scored list. On January 21 vs. Oklahoma City, Curry scored 21 points, giving him 24,515 career points to move into 27th place on the NBA all-time scoring list, passing Allen (24,505). With 26 points on January 13 at Toronto, Curry passed Iverson (24,368) to move into 28th place on the NBA all-time scoring list. On November 6 at Boston, Curry passed Barkley (23,757) to move into 30th place on the league's all-time scoring list.

30+ CHARITY STRIPE ATTEMPTS

The Warriors were 10-0 during the 2024-25 regular season when making at least 30 trips to the free throw line. Since Jimmy Butler III made his Warriors debut on February 8 at Chicago, the Warriors went to the free throw line at least 30 times in five games. Golden State's season-high free throw attempts was 50, set on Nov. 2 in a 127-121 overtime win at Houston.

STEPH-ORTLESS

On April 1 at Memphis, Stephen Curry recorded a game-high 52 points (NBA-season-high-tying 12 3-pointers), a team-high-tying 10 rebounds, eight assists, a season-high five steals and one block in the Warriors' 134-125 win over the Grizzlies.

12 3-pointers

- Second time this season with that many 3-pointers in a game, NBA season high.
- Fourth-career game with at least 12 3-pointers, an NBA record (Klay Thompson is second with three such games).
- It was his 27th game with 10-or-more 3-pointers. There have been 105 such games in NBA history, giving Curry 25.7 percent of all 10-or-more 3-point games in league history. @NBA
- Eight of the 12 3-pointers came in the first half, tying a career high for a half for the sixth time.

52 points

- Second 50-point game of the season, 15th of his career.
- Moved into sole possession of second place on Warriors franchise 50-point games, trailing only Wilt Chamberlain (105) after passing Rick Barry (14).
- Ties Damian Lillard for sixth-most 50-point games in NBA history.
- 10th 50-point game after turning age 30, most in NBA history.
- Third time this season scoring 40-or-more points, 71st time in career - moved into sole possession of 10th place for most 40-point games in NBA history, breaking a tie with Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Rick Barry.
- Has the third-most 40-point games after age 35 with 10, trailing only LeBron James (15) and Michael Jordan (12).
- Of the 52 points, 32 came in the first half. It was his second 30-point half of the season (35 in the second half on Feb. 27 at Orlando) and 22nd of his career.
- Eighth career game with at least 50 points while shooting at least 50 percent from the field (51.6 FG%) and 60 percent from 3-point range (60.0 3P%), passing Michael Jordan for the most such games in NBA history. @NBA
- First date (April 1) in NBA history multiple former MVP winners scored 50-or-more points as Curry had 52 points and Nikola Jokic tallied 61 points. @NBA on TNT
- For only the second time in NBA history two players had at least 50 points, 10 rebounds and five assists on the same day. Curry recorded 52 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists while Nikola Jokic had 61 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists. The previous time this happened was on Feb. 13, 1963 when Wilt Chamberlain and Elgin Baylor did it. @NBA on TNT

50-point, 10-rebound double-double

- First 50-point, 10-rebound double-double in career - becomes the seventh Warriors player to record one and the first to do so since Kevin Durant recorded 51 points and 11 rebounds on Nov. 29, 2018 at Toronto.

MORE NOTES

- Joined Rick Barry as the only players in NBA history to record at least 50 points, 10 rebounds, eight assists and five steals in a game. Barry had 64 points, 10 rebounds, nine assists and five steals on March 26, 1974 vs. Portland.

BENCH POWER

The Warriors' bench averaged 43.6 points per game, third-highest in the NBA in the 2024-25 regular season, trailing only the Spurs (44.1) and Grizzlies (43.9). The highest team bench scoring in a single season, since 1970-71 when starters were first officially tracked is 53.2 points per game by the 2018-19 Los Angeles Clippers. In the 2024-25 regular season, the Warriors' reserves outscored their counterparts, 3,576 to 2,703 (+873, 43.6 ppg - 33.0 ppg).

Golden State's bench accounted for at least 40 points in 45 games this season (Warriors 29-16 in those games). To start the 2024-25 season, the Warriors reserves scored at least 40 points in 11 of the first 12 games this season, a first since starters were officially tracked in 1970-71, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. It also marked the first time in franchise history the Warriors' bench scored at least 40 points 11 times in an 12-game span during a single season. The Warriors reserves scored at least 50 points in eight of the first 12 games this season (7-1 record in those games). Five times this season the Warriors bench scored at least 70 points, most recently on January 23 vs. Chicago (83 points).

The Warriors recorded at least 50 bench points six times in the first seven games (October 23 - November 4), a franchise first since starters were first tracked in 1970-71, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. The last team leaguewide to do it was the Pacers from Jan. 1-12, 2024 (in six of seven). There has been only one prior instance wherein any team had 50-or-more points from bench players in six-or-more of their first seven games of a season, since starters were first tracked in 1970-71: the 1999-00 Orlando Magic who did so in each of their first seven games that year.

Golden State's reserves scored 71 points in the season opener at Portland and 80 points at Utah in the second game. Since 1970-71 when starters were first recorded, this was the first time the Warriors' bench scored at least 70 points in consecutive games, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. The last NBA team to accomplish it was the Utah Jazz, Aug. 10-13, 2020. The Warriors' combined 151 bench points in the first two games are the most for the franchise since 1970-71 and the most by an NBA team since the Miami Heat tallied 170 bench points from April 7-9, 2023.

COMEBACK DUBS

This season, the Warriors overcame a double-digit deficit to win 16 times. Opponents had eight such comebacks (11/23 at SAS, 17; 11/25 vs. BKN, 18; 12/3 at DEN, 12; 1/22 at SAC, 18; 2/5 at UTA, 11; 4/6 vs. HOU; 4/9 vs. SAS, 4/13 vs. LAC).

Three times this season Golden State rallied to win after falling behind by more than 20 points (10/29 vs. NOP, 2/8 at CHI and 3/6 at BKN). The Warriors overcame a 24-point deficit to defeat the Bulls, 132-111, on February 8. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, this marked the first time in the play-by-play era (1997-98) a team won by as many as 21 points after trailing by as many as 24 points in the same game. This was the Warriors' largest deficit to rally from to win a game this season. Since 2014-15, the Warriors have rallied to win after trailing by at least 20 points 13 times.

STARTING LINEUPS

The Warriors used 38 different starting lineups this season (eight unique since Jimmy Butler III's arrival). Last season Golden State used 27 different starting lineups. No Warriors player has started every game this season; Buddy Hield was the only Warrior to have played in every Golden State game this season. The starting lineup of Stephen Curry, Brandin Podziemski, Draymond Green, Jimmy Butler III and Moses Moody, deployed the most times this season, was 16-3.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the most starting lineups, since 1970-71, in a single season for the Warriors is 49 in 2009-10, which ranks second-most, trailing only the 2023-24 Memphis Grizzlies with 51. The Warriors also have the third-most ever, 47 in 2008-09.

Only nine times this season the Warriors had at least 14 players available to play - 10/23 at POR, 10/25 at UTA, 10/27 vs. NOP, 11/8 at CLE, 11/10 at OKC, 12/25 vs. LAL, 4/4 vs. DEN, 4/6 vs. HOU, 4/13 vs. LAC. Four times the Warriors had 15 players available - 12/25 vs. the Lakers, 4/4 vs. Denver, 4/6 vs. Houston and 4/13 vs. LA Clippers.

4-POINT PLAYS

In 2024-25, Andrew Wiggins led the Warriors with six four-point plays, a single season career-best. Wiggins has 10 career 4-point plays, the last coming on Jan. 22 at Sacramento. Stephen Curry had five 4-point plays this season and 64 in his career, the last coming on Feb. 8 at Chicago.

Both Curry and Wiggins recorded a two 4-point play game this season. On Jan. 5 vs. Sacramento, Curry had two 4-point plays, the second time in his career he recorded two in the same game (Feb. 28, 2021 vs. L.A. Lakers), according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Both came in the second quarter. Wiggins converted two 4-point plays in the second quarter of Golden State's 99-93 win vs. the Rockets at Chase Center on Dec. 5. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time Wiggins had multiple 4-point plays in a game in his career and the first time it's happened this season. In the last 10 seasons (since 2015-16), a player has had multiple 4-point plays in a single game 29 times, and just eight times it's been accomplished in the same quarter. Prior to Wiggins on Dec. 5, the last Warriors player to have at least two 4-point plays in a single game was Kevin Durant on Feb. 14, 2018 at Portland (twice in the third quarter).

GREEN NAMED KIA DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE MONTH

On April 1, the NBA announced Warriors forward/center Draymond Green was named the Western Conference Kia Defensive Player of the Month for games played in March.

Green helped lead the Warriors to an 11-4 record in the month of March while averaging 1.9 steals and 0.9 blocks per game. The Warriors led the league with 9.9 steals per game during the month while forcing an NBA-best 16.7 turnovers per game. Golden State's defensive rating of 109.7 ranked second in the conference behind only Oklahoma City (108.4).

Green, who has been named to the All-Defensive Team eight times and earned Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2016-17, owns averages of 9.1 points, 6.1 rebounds, 5.6 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.1 blocks in 29.0 minutes over 60 games (58 starts) this season. When Green is on the court this season, the Warriors' defense ranks as the fourth best in the NBA.

The four-time NBA All-Star's defensive prowess was on display throughout the month, including the closing moments of a 97-94 win over the New York Knicks on March 15, a dominant performance in a 104-93 win over the Milwaukee Bucks on March 18 (Giannis Antetokounmpo was held to 0-of-7 from the field when defended by Green), and a four-steal outing in a 117-114 win over the Toronto Raptors on March 20.

Green is the first Warriors player to earn the monthly accolade, which the NBA began awarding this season. Atlanta's Dyson Daniels was named Defensive Player of the Month in the Eastern Conference.

KEY NAMED G LEAGUE DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

On April 2, two-way forward Braxton Key was named the 2024-25 Kia NBA G League Defensive Player of the Year. Key was signed by Golden State to a two-way contract on March 4.

Key appeared in 33 regular season games (30 starts) this year for the San Diego Clippers and Santa Cruz Warriors. Key averaged 22.5 points, 9.8 rebounds, 4.0 assists, and 3.4 steals in 31.5 minutes over 11 appearances for the Warriors (10 starts). The 6'8" forward led the G League with 96 steals in the regular season, the second-most steals in a single season by any NBA G League player since 2020-21. Key is the second player in Santa Cruz history to appear in at least five regular season games and average more than 3.0 steals per game after Kent Bazemore, who averaged 4.4 steals across five appearances in 2012-13.

This award marks the third time in franchise history that a Santa Cruz Warriors player has been named Defensive Player of the Year since the NBA G League (formerly the NBA Development League, or NBAD-League) began play in 2001-02. Guard Steffon Hannah previously won the award with the Warriors during their inaugural season in Santa Cruz in 2012-13, and guard Aaron Craft was the last to win the honor for Santa Cruz in the 2014-15 season.

WARRIORS' 6-GAME ROAD TRIP

The Warriors finished their six-game, 13-day road trip, with a 4-2 record. Golden State lost at Atlanta and Miami before earning wins at New Orleans, San Antonio, Memphis and Los Angeles (Lakers). The Warriors can match their longest road winning streak of the season with a win at Phoenix on April 8. This last road trip ran from March 22 to April 3. It is tied for the longest road trip this season, as the Warriors went 3-3 on their previous six-game trip that ran from February 5-13.

The Warriors played one road game (Tuesday at Miami) in a five-day span - the last time Golden State played one road game in a five-day span after All-Star Weekend was in 2018-19 when their lone road game (March 13 at Houston) was during March 11-15, 2019, per the Elias Sports Bureau.

Following the sixth road game on this trip, the Warriors host the Nuggets at Chase Center on April 4. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Warriors have twice before had a six-game road trip or longer and then played the next day after the final day of that streak. In 1985-86, Golden State played six consecutive road games (February 21 - March 3, 1986) and then hosted the Spurs on March 4, 1986. In 1966-67, San Francisco's six-game road trip ran from October 28 - November 5, 1966, before a home game vs. the Baltimore Bullets on November 6, 1966. There was another occurrence in December 1968 in which the Warriors were "away from home" for six straight games, and then played at home the day after the trip ended. However, the first game of that stretch was a game against the Bucks in Madison that was deemed a neutral-site game.

KEVIN KNOX II SIGNED TO A CONTRACT

On March 23, the Warriors signed forward Kevin Knox II to a contract. Knox II previously signed a 10-day contract with the Warriors on February 19 and a second 10-day contract on March 1.

Knox II, 25, has appeared in seven games with Golden State this season, tallying averages of 4.0 points and 1.6 rebounds in 7.3 minutes. The 6'7" forward has appeared in 28 games (all starts) this season for Golden State's G League affiliate, the Santa Cruz Warriors, averaging 21.8 points, 8.0 rebounds, and 2.4 assists in 32.6 minutes per game. He was named NBA G League Player of the Week for the opening week of the regular season (Dec. 27-Jan. 5).

Selected ninth overall by the New York Knicks in the 2018 NBA Draft, Knox II owns career averages of 7.4 points, 2.8 rebounds and 17.8 minutes in 313 career games (77 starts) over seven seasons with the Knicks, Atlanta Hawks, Detroit Pistons, Portland Trail Blazers and Warriors.

WARRIORS' 7-GAME HOMESTAND

The Warriors completed their season-high seven-game homestand (March 8-20) with a 6-1 record, the fifth time they have done that in a seven-game homestand in franchise history, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. They have never won seven games in a seven-game homestand.

Stephen Curry averaged a team-high 22.0 points per game in six games. Jimmy Butler III averaged 17.3 points, 8.1 rebounds, 8.1 assists and 7.4 trips to the free throw line per game.

KERR WINNINGEST COACH IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

On March 15, 2025 vs. New York, the Warriors defeated the Knicks, 97-94, earning Warriors Head Coach Steve Kerr his 558th career regular season coaching victory, becoming the franchise's winningest coach, passing Alvin Attles (557). Attles, who passed away on August 20, 2024, at the age of 87, had a regular season coaching record of 557-518 and was affiliated with the Warriors franchise for over 60 years, representing the longest stint with a single franchise for any one person in NBA history. After being selected by the Warriors in 1960, Attles played 11 seasons and then coached for 13 more, including leading the Warriors to the 1975 NBA championship. He served as the team's general manager for three years and later as the team's ambassador. Attles earned his 557th coaching victory on April 16, 1983, in a 133-122 overtime win vs. Seattle. The coaching record stood for over 41 years until Kerr's milestone win.

GREEN REACHES 6,000 CAREER REBOUNDS

On March 17 vs. Denver, Draymond Green grabbed his 6,000th career rebound, becoming the sixth player in Warriors franchise history to reach the milestone, joining Nate Thurmond, Wilt Chamberlain, Larry Smith, Clyde Lee, Paul Arizin. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, including Green, 67 players have recorded at least 6,000 rebounds with one franchise and of those, 22 have only played for that franchise.

CURRY JOINS 25K-POINT CLUB

On March 8 vs. Detroit, Stephen Curry scored his 25,000th career point on a 3-pointer with 8:32 left in the third quarter to become the 26th player in NBA history to reach the milestone. He is the 10th player in NBA history to achieve the feat with a single franchise.

Curry scored his first career point in his NBA debut on October 28, 2009 vs. Houston on a 19-foot jumper. His 20,000th career point also came on a 3-pointer.

WARRIORS CONVERT SPENCER TO STANDARD NBA CONTRACT, SIGN KEY TO TWO-WAY CONTRACT

On March 4, the Warriors converted guard Pat Spencer to a standard NBA contract and signed forward Braxton Key to a two-way contract.

Spencer, 28, is averaging 2.8 points, 1.4 rebounds and 1.3 assists in 7.0 minutes over 28 games with Golden State this season. Spencer was originally signed by the Warriors to a two-way contract on February 22, 2024, appearing in six games as a rookie last season.

Key, 28, has appeared in 38 games with the San Diego Clippers in the NBA G League this season, tallying averages of 14.8 points, 8.7 rebounds, 4.3 assists, 2.4 steals and 1.2 blocks in 31.8 minutes. A three-year NBA veteran, Key owns career averages of 3.1 points and 2.0 rebounds in 7.8 minutes over 34 games with the Philadelphia 76ers, Detroit Pistons and Denver Nuggets. A 6'8" forward out of the University of Virginia, Key went unselected in the 2021 NBA Draft.

CURRY FOR 56!

On February 27 at Orlando, Stephen Curry scored a game-high and season-high 56 points, 35 coming in the second half and 22 in the third quarter. The 56 points were the fourth-most points scored in a regular season for Curry. It was the 14th time in a regular season game Curry reached the 50-point plateau, matching Rick Barry (for the second-most in franchise history behind Wilt Chamberlain) and LeBron James for the seventh-most in NBA history. Curry has the most 50-point games after age 35 with three (James is second with two such games).

On 3/13 vs. Sacramento with 8:19 left in the third quarter, Stephen Curry became the first player in NBA history to make 4,000 regular season 3-pointers in a career. The player with the second-most 3-pointers in NBA history is James Harden with 3,127 - 873 3-pointers behind Curry.

GREEN NOW 2ND ON WARRIORS ALL-TIME ASSISTS LIST

With seven assists on March 8 vs. Detroit, Draymond Green brought his career regular season total to 4,858 career assists, moving into sole possession of second place on the Warriors franchise all-time assists list, passing Guy Rodgers (4,855).

WARRIORS SIGN TARAN ARMSTRONG TO TWO-WAY CONTRACT

On February 25, the Warriors signed guard Taran Armstrong to a two-way contract.

Armstrong saw action in 42 career games over two seasons with the Cairns Taipans of the National Basketball League (Australia), averaging 12.0 points, 4.3 rebounds and 3.6 assists in 25.4 minutes. He averaged 17.1 points, 4.6 rebounds and 4.7 assists in 29.8 minutes, while shooting 46.1% from the field and 35.1% from three-point range during the 2024-25 season (19 games).

The 23-year-old native of Australia was unselected in the 2024 NBA Draft out of California Baptist, where he appeared in 59 games with the Lancers over the span of two seasons, averaging 10.9 points, 4.8 rebounds and 5.6 assists in 30.7 minutes. He was named the Western Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year following the 2021-22 season, becoming the first player in California Baptist history to earn the honor.

Armstrong will wear #1 for the Warriors.

30 FOR 30

On February 10 at Milwaukee, Stephen Curry scored a game-high-tying 38 points, his fourth consecutive 30-point game. Curry became the fourth player 36 years or older to score at least 30 points in four consecutive games, joining LeBron James (4x), Michael Jordan (1x) and Karl Malone (1x). His 30-point streak ended on February 12 at Dallas when he scored 25 points.

On February 6 at the Lakers, with a team-high 37 points, Stephen Curry recorded his 300th career 30-point game, becoming the 16th player in NBA history to reach the milestone and just the second Warriors player to have that many 30-point games with the franchise, joining Wilt Chamberlain (368).

WARRIORS WITH 3,000 REGULAR SEASON WINS

With the 128-92 win over the Charlotte Hornets on February 25, the Warriors became the fifth NBA franchise to win 3,000 regular season games, joining the Boston Celtics, Los Angeles Lakers, New York Knicks and Philadelphia 76ers.

Golden State has qualified for the postseason in nine of the last 12 campaigns, including six NBA Finals appearances and four NBA titles. From 2013-14 to 2018-19, the Warriors posted six consecutive 50-win seasons, including a pair of 67-win seasons and an NBA-record 73-win regular season in 2015-16. Over a three-year stretch from 2014-15 to 2016-17, the Warriors compiled a record of 207-39 (.841), the best win percentage over three seasons in NBA history.

Currently in their 79th season, the Warriors are a charter member of the National Basketball Association with a storied history includes seven NBA championships (third most in NBA history), 12 NBA Finals appearances, eight members of the NBA's 75th Anniversary Team and 35 members of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Founded in 1946 as the Philadelphia Warriors, the team moved to the West Coast in 1962 and spent nine seasons as the San Francisco Warriors before moving across the Bay to Oakland in 1971 and becoming the Golden State Warriors. In 2019, the Warriors returned to San Francisco to play at Chase Center.

WARRIORS SIGN YURI COLLINS AND KEVIN KNOX II TO 10-DAY CONTRACTS

On February 19, the Warriors signed guard Yuri Collins and forward Kevin Knox II to 10-day contracts.

Collins, a 6'0" guard, has appeared in 33 games (30 starts) for Santa Cruz this season, posting averages of 14.2 points, 9.8 assists, 3.5 rebounds, and 1.1 steals in 32.0 minutes per game. The 23-year-old Missouri native leads the NBA G League with 189 assists through 18 regular-season games. Unselected in the 2023 NBA Draft, Collins played four collegiate seasons at Saint Louis (2019-2023) before joining the Santa Cruz Warriors, where he has spent the past two seasons. Collins will wear #99.

Knox II, a 6'7" forward, has started all 28 games for Santa Cruz this season, averaging 21.8 points, 8.0 rebounds, and 2.4 assists in 32.6 minutes per game. The 25-year-old was named NBA G League Player of the Week for the opening week of the regular season (Dec. 27-Jan. 5). Selected ninth overall by the New York Knicks in the 2018 NBA Draft, Knox II owns career averages of 7.4 points, 2.9 rebounds and 18.0 minutes in 306 career games (77 starts) over six seasons with the Knicks, Atlanta Hawks, Detroit Pistons, and Portland Trail Blazers. Knox II will wear #31.

CURRY - 700 CAREER 20-POINT GAMES

On February 21 at Sacramento, Stephen Curry tallied 20 points, the 700th time in his career he has scored that many points in a game, becoming the 21st player in NBA history and the first in Warriors franchise history to reach the milestone.

WARRIORS RETIRE ANDRE IGUODALA'S #9 JERSEY

Following the February 23rd game versus the Dallas Mavericks at Chase Center, the Golden State Warriors retired Andre Iguodala's #9 jersey, making him just the seventh player in Warriors franchise history to have his jersey number retired by the organization. Iguodala's #9 joined Warriors legends Alvin Attles (#16), Rick Barry (#24), Wilt Chamberlain (#13), Tom Meschery (#14), Chris Mullin (#17) and Nate Thurmond (#42) in the rafters at Chase Center.

A four-time NBA champion (2015, 2017, 2018, 2022) and the 2015 NBA Finals Most Valuable Player with Golden State, Iguodala appeared in 452 career regular season games (84 starts) with the Warriors, averaging 6.9 points, 3.8 rebounds and 3.4 assists in 26.0 minutes per game over eight seasons (2013-19, 2021-23). Iguodala appeared in 111 playoff games (40 starts) with Golden State, averaging 8.8 points, 4.2 rebounds, 3.5 assists, 1.1 steals and 28.5 minutes. Of the 56 players that have played at least 111 playoff games with a single franchise, Iguodala's winning percentage with the Warriors (.78-33, .703) is the highest in NBA history.

Iguodala, who reached the NBA Finals in six of his eight seasons with the Warriors and qualified for the postseason in all eight campaigns, helped the franchise end a 40-year championship drought in 2015. With Golden State trailing the Cleveland Cavaliers in the 2015 NBA Finals, 2-1, Iguodala was inserted into the starting lineup in a move that served as a catalyst for a three-game win streak to secure the Warriors' first NBA championship since 1975. He was named NBA Finals MVP with averages of 16.3 points, 5.8 rebounds and 4.0 assists in the six-game series.

Iguodala is one of only 11 players to win four NBA championships and earn an NBA Finals MVP, along with teammate Stephen Curry and NBA legends Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Kobe Bryant, Tim Duncan, John Havlicek, LeBron James, Magic Johnson, Michael Jordan, Shaquille O'Neal, and Tony Parker. He ranks in the Top 5 on the Warriors' all-time postseason career leaders lists in several categories including: third in assists (383), fourth in steals (122), fifth in three-pointers made (113), fourth in games played (111) and fourth in minutes played (3,160).

Originally selected by the Philadelphia 76ers with the ninth overall pick in the 2004 NBA Draft, Iguodala was originally acquired by the Warriors in a sign-and-trade, three-team deal with the Denver Nuggets and Utah Jazz on July 10, 2013. Over 19 NBA seasons, he played in 1,231 career games (784 starts) with the 76ers, Nuggets, Miami Heat and Warriors, averaging 11.3 points, 4.9 rebounds, 4.2 assists, 1.4 steals and 32.1 minutes per game. He was named to the All-Defensive Team twice (First Team in 2013-14, Second Team 2010-11) and was an NBA All-Star with Philadelphia in 2012.

JIMMY, WILT & KD

Jimmy Butler III is the third player ever to score at least 20 points in each of his first three games for the Warriors, joining Wilt Chamberlain (first 56 games in 1959-60) and Kevin Durant (eight in 2016-17), according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Butler III had 25 points in his Warriors debut at Chicago, 20 points at Milwaukee and 21 points in the last game at Dallas.

In his first two games with the Warriors, Butler III got to the free throw line at least 13 times, joining Chamberlain as the only Warriors to make at least 13 trips to the free throw line in their first two games with the franchise (Chamberlain did so in his first three games), according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Prior to Butler III, the last Warriors player to attempt at least 13 free throws in consecutive games was Durant on Nov. 24 and 26, 2018. Butler III's 15 free throw attempts on February 10 at Milwaukee matched Andrew Wiggins for the most free throws attempted in a game this season by a Warriors player.

JIMMY BUTLER III'S DEBUT

On February 8, 2025 at Chicago, forward Jimmy Butler III made his Warriors debut, recording 25 points (7-12 FG, 0-1 3P, 11-13 FT), two rebounds, four assists, one steal and one block in 29 minutes. Prior to this game the last time Butler III was on the court was for the Heat on January 21, 2025 vs. Portland. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Butler III's 25 points were the most scored by a player in their Warriors debut that came in the 42nd game of a season, surpassing the player he was traded for, Andrew Wiggins (24 points on 2/8/20 vs. the Lakers). Butler III's 11 free throws are the most made in a debut for a Warriors player in franchise history and his 13 attempts were the second-most, behind only Wilt Chamberlain's 15 attempts in his first game as a Warrior on Oct. 24, 1959 at New York.

WARRIORS SIGN JACKSON ROWE TO TWO-WAY CONTRACT

On January 28, 2025 - The Golden State Warriors have signed forward Jackson Rowe to a two-way contract.

In 23 games (all starts) with the Santa Cruz Warriors this season, Rowe is averaging 14.8 points, 7.7 rebounds, 2.8 assists, and 1.1 steals in 33.4 minutes per game. Overall, Rowe owns career averages of 13.2 points, 6.8 rebounds, 2.5 assists, 1.2 steals, and 1.1 blocks in 29.9 minutes in 72 games (42 starts) over two G League seasons with Santa Cruz. He played for the Golden State Warriors during the 2024 preseason, appearing in two games (both as a reserve), totalling eight points (3-6 FG, 0-3 3P, 2-2 FT), six rebounds, two assists and one block in 13 minutes. Rowe played internationally in France, Sweden, Canada, and Germany from 2020-2023 and has represented his home country of Canada on the Senior Men's National Basketball Team in 2023 and 2024. A native of Toronto, Ontario, Rowe went unselected in the 2020 NBA Draft out of Cal State Fullerton, where he earned All-Big West Second Team honors during his senior season.

KUMINGA!

Jonathan Kuminga has scored 20-or-more points in three of the last five games he played in, averaging 23.8 points per game (54.9 FG%) in that span. Seven of his 11 20-point games this season have come off the bench.

On December 30 vs. Cleveland, Kuminga attempted a career-high-tying 14 free throws after setting it on December 27 at the Clippers. Kuminga had 12 on December 28 vs. the Suns. He is the first Warriors player to have at least 12 free throw attempts off the bench in three straight games since Corey Maggette had three such games in a row in March 2009.

Kuminga scored a career-high 34 points off the bench in two consecutive games, Dec. 27 at the Clippers and Dec. 28 vs. the Suns. With 10 rebounds at the Clippers and nine against the Suns, Kuminga became the first Warriors player to record at least 34 points and nine rebounds off the bench in two straight games and the second NBA player (Kevin McHale in February 1990) since 1970-71, when starters were first officially tracked, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

This season, Kuminga is averaging 16.7 points per game in his 22 appearances as a reserve. His scoring average is the second highest (minimum 20 games), behind only Atlanta's DeAndre Hunter's 20.0 points per game average. Kuminga is the only player this season to have multiple 30-point games off the bench with two. He is the fifth Warriors player to have multiple 30-point games off the bench in a single season, joining Cazzie Russell (eight 30-point games in 1973-74), Purvis Short (five in 1979-80 and four in 1981-82), Sarūnas Marčiulionis (four in 1991-92), Jordan Poole (two in 2022-23).

WARRIORS ACQUIRE JIMMY BUTLER III

On February 6, 2025, the Golden State Warriors acquired forward Jimmy Butler III from the Miami Heat in a multi-team trade that sends forwards Kyle Anderson and Andrew Wiggins to the Heat, guard Dennis Schröder to the Utah Jazz and guard Lindy Waters III to the Detroit Pistons. Additionally, Golden State will send its 2025 first-round pick (top 10 protected) to Miami, it was announced today.

Prior to the trade, Butler III declined his player option with the Heat and signed a two-year extension, securing his contract through the 2026-27 season.

Butler III, 35, is a 14-year NBA veteran who has played for the Heat, Philadelphia 76ers, Minnesota Timberwolves and Bulls. Originally selected by the Chicago Bulls with the 30th overall pick in the 2011 NBA Draft out of Marquette, Butler is a six-time All-Star, a five-time All-NBA selection and a five-time All-Defensive Team honoree. In 119 postseason games (116 starts), Butler has averaged 21.3 points, 6.2 rebounds, 4.6 assists, and 1.7 steals in 37.9 minutes per game. He was named Eastern Conference Finals MVP after leading the Heat to the 2023 NBA Finals.

Anderson, 31, tallied averages of 5.3 points, 3.1 rebounds and 2.3 assists in 15.0 minutes over 36 games (three starts) with Golden State this season. An 11-year NBA veteran, Anderson, was acquired via sign-and-trade as part of a six-team deal on July 6, 2024.

Schröder, 31, acquired from the Nets on December 15, 2024, appeared in 24 games (18 starts) with Golden State, averaging 10.6 points, 2.3 rebounds, 4.4 assists and 1.0 steal in 26.2 minutes per game. In 47 games (41 starts) with both the Warriors and Nets this season, Schröder is averaging 14.4 points, 2.6 rebounds, 5.5 assists, 1.1 steals in 29.8 minutes per game.

Waters III, 27, played in 38 games (nine starts) with Golden State this season, averaging 5.5 points, 2.5 rebounds and 1.1 assists in 17.2 minutes per game. He was acquired by the Warriors in a trade with the Oklahoma City Thunder on June 27, 2024.

Wiggins, 29, owns averages of 17.6 points, 4.6 rebounds and 2.4 assists in 30.1 minutes over 43 games (all starts) this season. Acquired by the Warriors via trade with Minnesota on February 6, 2020, Wiggins averaged 16.7 points, 4.7 rebounds and 2.2 assists over 307 games (295 starts) in six seasons with Golden State, earning his first career NBA All-Star appearance and helping Golden State capture the 2022 NBA championship.

WITHOUT THE TRIO

On January 10 at Indiana, the Warriors were without Stephen Curry (bilateral knee injury management), Draymond Green (left L5-s1 disc) and Andrew Wiggins (personal reasons). This marked the first time this season all three Warriors missed the same game and the last time since Feb. 26, 2023 vs. Minnesota. Golden State has an all-time 5-7 record in games in which Curry, Green and Wiggins did not play in, per Elias.

QUINTEN POST'S CAREER NIGHT

On January 23 vs. Chicago, seven-foot rookie center Quinten Post recorded a career-high 20 points (7-12 FG, 5-10 3P, 1-1 FT), five rebounds and three assists in a career-high 20 minutes off the bench. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, with the qualifier that listed heights are an unofficial stat, Post became the first 7-footer (or taller) Warriors player with four-or more 3-pointers made in a game (Post made five against the Bulls).

With Santa Cruz, Post appeared in a total of 17 games (Tip-Off Tournament + regular season), averaging 19.1 points (51.5 FG%, 34.0 3P%, 78.4 FT%), 9.5 rebounds, 2.0 assists, 0.9 steals, 1.0 blocks in 27.6 minutes per game.

83 BENCH POINTS!

The Warriors scored 83 bench points on January 23 vs. Chicago. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, since 1970-71 season (when starters were first officially tracked), this was the third-most points scored by the Warriors bench, behind 94 points on 3/19/77 vs. Indiana and 88 on 4/9/23 at Portland. The 83 bench points are the most scored by a team since the Thunder scored 85 points on 4/14/24 vs. Dallas.

SETBACK AT HOME

On January 20, Martin Luther King Jr. Day and Inauguration Day, the visiting Celtics (entering game at 29-13) handed the Warriors (21-20) their fourth-largest margin of defeat at home in Warriors franchise history and their worst home loss since Jan. 15, 1985, when the Mavericks won by 45 points, 149-104. The Celtics are also responsible for the Warriors' all-time worst home loss, a 48-point defeat on Jan. 5, 1969 (134-86) at the Cow Palace.

3-POINT RECORDS!

On December 15, 2024, Golden State (a franchise-record-tying 27 3-pointers) and Dallas (21 3-pointers) combined for an NBA-record 48 3-pointers made, surpassing the previous record of 44, done multiple times. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the combined 30 3-pointers made by the Warriors (tying an NBA record for a half with 18) and Mavericks (12) set a new NBA record for most combined 3-pointers in a half. Each team made at least 20 3-pointers and shot 50 percent from 3-point range with Golden State making 27 3-pointers (50 percent) and Dallas with 21 3-pointers (51.2 percent) – it's only the second time this has happened – Feb. 5, 2024 Atlanta (20 3-pointers, 51.3 percent) vs. LA Clippers (21 3-pointers, 60 percent).

The Warriors matched their franchise record of 27 3-pointers made in a game (April 9, 2023 at Portland and May 8, 2021 vs. Oklahoma City), just two shy of the NBA record of 29 (shared by the Celtics and Bucks). The Warriors made 18 3-pointers in the first half, tying an NBA record with five other teams (Brooklyn, Indiana, Milwaukee, Phoenix and Utah) and setting a new franchise record for most 3-pointers made in a half (prev. 17, H1, 10/29/18 at CHI).

WARRIORS ACQUIRE DENNIS SCHRÖDER

On December 15, the Golden State Warriors acquired guard Dennis Schröder (SHROO-der) and a second round draft pick (2025 via Miami, protected 31-37) from the Brooklyn Nets in exchange for guards De'Anthony Melton and Reece Beekman and three second round draft picks (2026 and 2028 via Atlanta and Golden State's own 2029 selection).

Schröder, 31, averaged 18.4 points, 6.6 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 1.1 steals in 33.6 minutes per game over 23 games (all starts) with the Nets this season. The 12-year NBA veteran owns career averages of 14.2 points, 4.9 assists, 2.9 rebounds and 27.5 minutes over 790 games (398 starts) with the Nets, Atlanta Hawks, Oklahoma City Thunder, Los Angeles Lakers, Boston Celtics, Houston Rockets and Toronto Raptors.

Melton, 26, appeared in six games with the Warriors this season, averaging 10.3 points, 3.3 rebounds and 2.8 assists. He underwent surgery for a partially torn left ACL on December 4.

Beekman, 23, appeared in two games for Golden State this season, scoring two points in four minutes. Unselected in the 2024 NBA Draft out of the University of Virginia, Beekman appeared in an additional nine games with Golden State's G League affiliate, the Santa Cruz Warriors, posting averages of 18.7 points, 7.3 assists, 5.2 rebounds and 2.8 steals in 31.5 minutes per game.

PERFECTION FROM THREE

On January 2 vs. Philadelphia Stephen Curry made all eight of 3-point field goal attempts, setting a new career record (prev. six, twice). Curry handed out 10 assists, becoming the first player to make at least eight 3-pointers without a miss and record at least 10 assists in a game. The NBA record for the most 3-pointers made without a miss is nine, four times - Jalen Brunson, Ben Gordon (twice) and Latrell Sprewell.

BUDDY 2ND FASTEST TO 2,000 CAREER 3-POINTERS

On Dec. 11 at Houston, Buddy Hield became the 17th player in NBA history to make 2,000 career 3-pointers. Hield has the second-fewest games (656 career games) to reach the milestone, trailing only Stephen Curry (597); Klay Thompson is third with 670.

On Feb. 28, 2021, while with the Kings, Hield made his 1,000th career 3-pointer vs. Charlotte in his 350th career game. At the time, it was the fewest games needed to reach the milestone, surpassing the previous record held by Curry (369); it has since been broken by Miami's Duncan Robinson who needed 343 career games (March 17, 2024).

On November 30 at Phoenix, Hield captured sole possession of 17th place on the NBA all-time 3-pointers made list, passing Jason Kidd (1,988). Earlier this season, Hield passed Joe Johnson (1,978) and Dirk Nowitzki (1,982).

GOLDEN SUMMER FOR CURRY, KERR

Participating in his first-ever Olympic Games, four-time NBA champion and two-time MVP Stephen Curry won an Olympic gold medal with Team USA's 98-87 victory over France in the Men's Basketball Final at the 2024 Paris Olympic Games. Warriors Head Coach Steve Kerr, who helped Team USA to a 1986 FIBA World Championship as a player, served as head coach of the gold-medal winning squad.

Curry appeared in six games for Team USA during the Olympic games, averaging 14.8 points, 3.2 rebounds and 2.5 assists in 23.3 minutes per game. Curry scored 36 points during Team USA's 95-91 semifinal victory over Serbia on August 8. The 36 points were the second-most scored by an American in an Olympic game, trailing just Carmelo Anthony's 37-point performance against Nigeria on August 2, 2012.

Curry is only the fifth player in NBA history to win at least four NBA Championships, two Most Valuable Player Awards and an Olympic gold medal, joining LeBron James, Magic Johnson, Michael Jordan, and Bill Russell. Additionally, he is the fifth Golden State player to win a gold medal as part of Team USA, along with current teammate Draymond Green and former Warriors Kevin Durant, Chris Mullin and Klay Thompson. Golden State is one of three NBA franchises, along with the Miami Heat and Los Angeles Lakers, to have five different players win Olympic gold with Team USA while on the team's roster.

SELLOUT STREAK

The Warriors' franchise-record home sellout streak, the sixth-longest in NBA history, is at 565 consecutive games, regular season, play-in and playoffs. The Warriors' current sellout streak ranks third among active streaks behind Dallas and Miami. The 2024-25 season was the 10th consecutive 82-game NBA season in which the Warriors sold out all of the team's 41 regular season home games. The current sellout streak only includes games which allowed a full-capacity crowd (18,064 at Chase Center). Following the 2024-25 regular season, the Warriors have sold out one play-in tournament game and four playoff games.

On January 24 vs. Atlanta, the Warriors recorded their 500th consecutive home sellout (includes regular season and playoffs). Entering the 2024-25 season, Dallas had 957; Miami, 596; Golden State, 518.

On October 10, 2024, the Golden State Valkyries named Natalie Nakase as head coach. Nakase takes the helm of the Valkyries following over 16 years of coaching professional basketball, including 10 seasons in the NBA with the Los Angeles Clippers, and three seasons as first assistant coach with the Las Vegas Aces (back-to-back WNBA championship in 2022 and 2023). Nakase will report to Valkyries General Manager Ohemaa Nyanin, and begins her tenure with the team on October 21.

On October 5, 2023, the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) announced that the Golden State Warriors were awarded a WNBA expansion franchise, which will begin play in the 2025 WNBA season. The team will play home games at Chase Center in San Francisco and marks the WNBA's first expansion franchise since 2008.

The Valkyries, the 13th WNBA franchise, became the first team in women's sports history to reach 17,000 season ticket deposits when they reached the milestone in September 2024.

The Warriors' Oakland Facility, which served as the Golden State Warriors' practice facility and front office from 1997-2019, will be the WNBA team's headquarters, housing a world-class practice facility and the team's front office staff.

HEAD COACH STEVE KERR

NBA 2015-16 COACH OF THE YEAR, 2015 & 2017 ALL-STAR COACH, NAMED TO 15 GREATEST COACHES IN NBA HISTORY LIST

MILESTONE ACHIEVED: On March 15 vs. New York Kerr became the winningest head coach in Warriors franchise history with 558 career regular season coaching victories, breaking a tie with Alvin Attles.

- This is his 11th season with Golden State.
- Earned his 500th career coaching victory, fifth-fewest games in NBA history, with the 140-137 win at Utah on February 15, 2024. Joined Alvin Attles (557) as the only Warriors head coaches to reach the milestone.
- Has won nine NBA championships - four as a coach (all with Golden State) and five as a player (three with Chicago and two with San Antonio).
- Named to the 15 Greatest Coaches in NBA History list.
- On March 14, 2022, earned his 423rd coaching victory with a 126-112 win vs. Washington, passing Don Nelson (422) for the second-most coaching wins in Warriors franchise history.
- Guided the Warriors to four NBA titles (2015, 2017, 2018, 2022), six Western Conference Championships, including five straight (2015-19, 2022) and the NBA's single-season wins record (73, 2015-16).
- Became the first coach in Warriors franchise history to win more than two championships (2015, 2017, 2018, 2022).
- Named the 2022-24 USA Basketball Men's National Team head coach, Kerr led the USA National Team in 2022-24, which will include all USA Men's National Team training camps, the 2023 FIBA World Cup in the Philippines, Japan, and Indonesia from Aug. 25-Sept. 10, 2023, and the 2024 Summer Olympic Games that took place July 26-Aug. 11 in Paris, France.
- Served as an assistant coach for the 2017-21 USA Basketball Men's National Team and was part of Gregg Popovich's gold medalist coaching staff for the 2020 Summer Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan, and the 2019 USA National Team that competed in the FIBA World Cup in China. By helping the USA claim gold at the Tokyo Olympics, Kerr became the first USA Basketball National Team coach to also have earned a gold medal as a player in a FIBA senior level competition, having won gold at the 1986 World Cup.
- Fewest games to earn 200th (238 games) and 300th (377 games) coaching victories in NBA history, on March 28, 2017 and January 26, 2019, respectively. Needed fifth-fewest games to reach 400 career coaching wins (576 games) on Dec. 17, 2021.
- Named with his staff (Ron Adams, Mike Brown, Jarron Collins, Chris DeMarco, Bruce Fraser and Willie Green) to coach the Western Conference in the 2017 NBA All-Star Game on Sunday, Feb. 19, in New Orleans... Became the second coach in franchise history to earn the honor multiple times, joining Alvin Attles (1975, 1976)... Is also the first coach to earn the All-Star nod in two of his first three NBA seasons since Phoenix's Paul Westphal in 1993 and 1995.
- Has been named Western Conference Coach of the Month eight times (January 2015, March 2015, March 2016, Oct./Nov. 2016, January 2017, December 2017, January 2019, February 2024).
- Named 2015-16 NBA Coach of the Year after the Warriors set numerous league records - single-season wins record (73), single-season road wins (34), consecutive wins to begin a season (24) and consecutive regular-season home wins (54) - and joined the Chicago Bulls (1995-96 & 1996-97) as the only teams to win at least 65 games in back-to-back campaigns.
- Became the third coach in Warriors franchise history to earn NBA Coach of the Year Award, joining Alex Hannum (1963-64) and Don Nelson (1991-92).
- In 2014-15, led the Warriors to a then-franchise-record 67 victories, establishing NBA records for most wins and highest winning percentage (67-15, .817) by a rookie head coach.
- Named Warriors head coach on May 19, 2014, becoming the 25th head coach in franchise history and the 20th since the team moved to the West Coast in 1962.
- Is the NBA's all-time three-point percentage leader, having converted on 45.4 percent (726-of-1599) of his attempts from long range.
- Amassed career averages of 6.0 points, 1.8 assists and 1.2 rebounds per game in 910 regular-season games in 15 seasons with six teams: Phoenix (1988-89), Cleveland (1989-90 - 1992-93), Orlando (1992-93), Chicago (1993-94 - 1997-98), San Antonio (1998-99 - 2000-01, 2002-03) and Portland (2001-01).
- Owns 28 years of NBA experience as a player, coach, television analyst (two different four-year stints as a game analyst on TNT) and front office executive, including a three-year stint (2007-10) as president of basketball operations and general manager for the Phoenix Suns... During his time as Suns GM, the club posted a 155-91 (.630) record and earned a pair of playoff berths, including a trip to the 2010 Western Conference Finals.
- As a player, made playoffs 11 times and is one of only 26 players in NBA history to win five championships, earning three rings with Chicago and two with San Antonio.
- Born on September 27, 1965, Steve and his wife, Margot, have two sons, Nicholas and Matthew, and one daughter, Madeleine.

- On 11/30 at Phoenix, became the 29th player in NBA history to reach 24,000 career points, tallying a team-high 23.
- On 12/19 at Memphis, held to two points (0-7 FG, 0-6 3P, 2-2 FT) in 24 minutes, marking the first time in his career he did not make a field goal while playing more than 11 minutes in a game. Curry recorded one steal, the 1,500th of his career to become the 53rd player in NBA history to reach the milestone. Curry became just the fifth player in NBA history with at least 24,000 points, 6,000 assists and 1,500 steals, joining Kobe Bryant, LeBron James, Russell Westbrook and James Harden.
- On Christmas Day, Curry scored 38 points, the most he has ever scored in a game on December 25. Curry made eight 3-pointers, tying him for NBA Christmas Day record with Luka Doncic (2023), Grayson Allen (2023) and Patty Mills (2021).
- On 1/2 vs. Philadelphia, made all eight of his 3-point attempts, setting a new career mark for most 3-pointers attempted without a miss (prev. six, twice), en route to 30 points to go along with 10 assists. Became the first player to make at least eight 3-pointers without a miss and record at least 10 assists in a game.
- On 1/5 vs. Sacramento, scored 26, making two 4-point plays, his second and third 4-point plays of the season (other instance was on 11/25 vs. BKN), and the 67th and 68th of his career. It was the second time in his career he had two 4-point plays in the same game (other game was on 2/28/21 vs. L.A. Lakers).
- On 1/25 vs. Lakers, missed third free throw attempt of the game, ending his consecutive free throw streak at 37. The streak began on 12/21 at MIN, made last four attempts in that game after missing his first.
- On 1/29 vs. Oklahoma City, scored 21 points (24,515 career) to move into sole possession of 27th place on the NBA all-time scoring list, passing Hall of Famer Ray Allen (24,505).
- On 2/5 at Utah, scored a game-high 32 points - it was the 151st time he has scored at least 30 points since turning 30 years old, passing Kobe Bryant (150) for the fifth-most all-time.
- On 2/6 at Lakers, scored a team-high 37 points, his 300th 30-point game of his career. Curry became the 16th player in NBA history to have 300-or-more 30-point career games and the second Warriors player to do so (Wilt Chamberlain with 369).
- On 2/8 at Chicago, tallied a game-high 34 points, 24 coming in the third quarter. It was Curry's 41st career 20-point quarter, most in the NBA since 1996-97. He missed his first free throw attempt, ending his free throw streak at 23 consecutive makes (1/25 vs. LAL to 2/6 at LAL).
- On 2/10 at Milwaukee, played in his 1,000th career regular season game, becoming the 151st player in NBA history to reach the milestone and the 18th to play in that many games for one franchise. Curry matched his season high with 38 points.
- On 2/12 at Dallas, tallied team-high 25 points, ending his 30-point streak. Had scored at 30 points in each of the previous four games (35.3 ppg in that span), joining LeBron James (4x), Michael Jordan and Karl Malone as the only players 36 years or older to score at least 30 points in four straight games. The last time he had a four-game 30-point streak was from 12/17/21 to 12/25/21.
- On 2/21 at Sacramento, scored 20 points, the 700th time in his career he's tallied that many points, becoming the 21st player in NBA history and the first in Warriors franchise history to reach the milestone.
- Was awarded 2025 Kobe Bryant All-Star MVP trophy after leading Shaq's OGs to the tournament title at the 74th NBA All-Star Game at Chase Center.
- On 3/1 at Philadelphia and 3/3 at Charlotte, recorded double-doubles in two straight games for the first time since 2022-23 when he had three consecutive (Jan. 27 - Feb. 1, 2023).
- On 2/27 at Orlando, scored a game-high and season-high 56 points (16-25 FG, 12-19 3P, 12-12 FT), his 14th career 50-point game, tying him with Rick Barry (for second-most in franchise history behind Wilt Chamberlain, 105) and LeBron James for the seventh-most in NBA history. Curry scored 35 points in the second half (22 in the 3rd quarter). Made a 51-foot 3-pointer before the half.
- On the five-game road trip, Curry averaged 34.8 points (55.1 FG%, 51.6 3P%, 94.4 FT%, 54-98 FG, 32-62 3P, 34-36 FT), 4.6 rebounds, 7.8 assists, 1.2 steals in 33.9 minutes per game in five appearances.
- On 3/8 vs. Detroit, with a game-high 32 points, became the 26th player in NBA history to score 25,000 career points.
- On 3/13 vs. Sacramento with his second 3-pointer of the night at 8:19 left in the third quarter, became the first player in NBA history with 4,000.
- Missed 3/18 vs. Milwaukee game due to rest. On 3/15 vs. New York his free throw miss with 6.1 seconds left in the fourth quarter snapped his season-high consecutive free throws made streak at 41. (streak spanned seven games and began with last two FTAs made on 3/3 at CHA).
- On 3/20 vs. Toronto, scored 17 points but left the game and did not return after suffering a pelvic contusion with 3:24 left in the third quarter.
- On 3/28 at New Orleans, returned after a two-game absence (left pelvic contusion), and recorded a game-high 23 points.
- On 4/1 at Memphis, recorded a game-high 52 points, team-high-tying 10 rebounds, eight assists, season-high five steals in 37 minutes. He made 12 3-pointers, matching his season high and NBA season high. Curry moved into the Top 25 of the NBA all-time scoring list, passing Jerry West (25,192 career points). It was Curry's second 50-point game of the season and 15th of his career - second most on Warriors franchise list and tied for sixth on the all-time NBA list.
- On 4/6 vs. Houston, Curry made a 3-pointer to pass Reggie Miller (25,279 career points) to move into 24th on the NBA all-time scoring list, his only points of the night - fewest in 811 career games in which he played at least 30 minutes (had 33 vs. Houston).
- On 4/9 vs. San Antonio, scored a game-high 30 points and made five 3-pointers, giving him 302 this season - an NBA-record sixth season with at least 300 triples (Malik Beasley, Anthony Edwards, Klay Thompson, James Harden each have one season with 300-or-more 3-pointers).

- In the First Round vs. Houston, appeared in seven games (four starts), averaging 10.9 points (47.5 FG%, 42.9 3P%), 2.7 rebounds, 1.4 assists, 1.1 steals in 23.1 minutes per game.
- Scored in double figures in seven games, 20-or-more in two and 30-or-more in one.
- On 4/28 vs. Houston (G4), made first career playoff start and tallied 15 points (6-15 FG, 3-9 3P), a then-playoff career-high-tying four rebounds, a playoff career-high three assists, two steals in 30 minutes.
- On 5/4 at Houston (G7), scored a game-high and playoff career-high 33 points becoming the first player in NBA history to score that many points in a playoff game after going scoreless in the previous game. With a playoff career-high nine 3-pointers, tied Donte DiVincenzo (5/19/24 NYK vs. IND) for the most 3-pointers made in a Game 7 in NBA history.
- His 14 3-pointers made in a two-game span (nine in Game 7 at Houston and five in Game 1 at Minnesota), joining only Stephen Curry, Klay Thompson, Damian Lillard and Desmond Bane as the only players to accomplish this in the playoffs in NBA history, according to ESPN SportsCenter (Hield is shooting 73.7 percent from 3-point range in that span, 14-19 3P).

CAREER-HIGH POINTS

- Quarter: 21, 3rd QTR, 11/25/19 SAC at BOS
- Twice scored at least 20 points in a quarter (other: 20, 4th QTR, 1/27/20 SAC at MIN)
- Half: 30, 2nd half, 11/25/19 SAC at BOS
- 22 times has scored 20-or-more points in a half; once tallied 30 points in a half

2024-25 SEASON (GOLDEN STATE)

- Appeared in all 82 games (22 starts), averaging 11.1 points (41.7 FG%, 37.0 3P%, 82.8 FT%), 3.2 rebounds, 1.6 assists in 22.7 minutes per game.
- Played in 166 games in two seasons (84 last season and 82 this season), becoming the 13th player in NBA history to accomplish the two-season feat.

- Averaged at least 10 points per game in every season (nine, including this season), the eighth player to do this since 2000-01, according to the Elias Sports Bureau (LeBron James - 15; Carmelo Anthony and Chris Bosh - 11; Nikola Jokic - 10; Jordan Clarkson, Damian Lillard, Kemba Walker, Hield - 9).
- Was only Warrior to play in every regular season game this season.
- Warriors were 14-2 in the 2024-25 regular season when Hield scored at least 18 points (loss came on 2/4 at UTA); 12-1 when scored at least 19 points.
- Scored in double figures in 42 games, 20-or-more points in 11 games (nine off the bench).
- Led the Warriors in scoring in 12 games and assists in two.
- Made 203 3-pointers in the 2024-25 regular season, second behind Stephen Curry for most on the team.
- On 10/23 at Portland, Hield finished with a game-high-tying 22 points off the bench, the second-most by a player in their Warriors debut in a season opener since starters were first recorded in 1970, trailing only Nick Young's 23 points on Oct. 17, 2017 vs. Houston, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Scored his 22 points in 15 minutes, becoming only the second Warrior to score at least that many points in 15 minutes or less since 1960, joining forward Peter Thibeaux (pronounced TEE-boh), who tallied 22 points in 14 minutes on Dec. 12, 1984 vs. the Lakers, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Since the merger in 1976-77, Hield is the only player with 22-or-more points in less than 15 minutes played in a season opener. Made five 3-pointers, tied for the second-most made by a player in their Warriors debut with Stephen Jackson and Ricky Pierce. Young also made six 3-pointers in that season opener vs. the Rockets, the most 3-pointers made in a Warriors season opener.
- On 10/29 vs. New Orleans, scored a team-high 28 points, 19 coming in the fourth quarter - two points shy of his career high in any quarter. For the second time this season he made seven 3-pointers.
- On 11/2 at Houston, with six 3-pointers (now with 1,954 career), passed JJ Redick (1,950) to move into 20th place on NBA all-time 3-point field goals made list
- On 11/23 at San Antonio, made three 3-pointers to move past Joe Johnson (1,978) into 19th all-time.
- On 11/27 vs. Oklahoma City, made five 3-pointers to pass Dirk Nowitzki (1,982) to move into 18th all-time.
- On 12/11 at Houston, Hield became the 17th player in NBA history to make 2,000 career 3-pointers. Hield needed 656 NBA career games to reach the milestone, second fewest, trailing only Stephen Curry (597 games). Klay Thompson is third with 670.
- On Saturday, February 15, participated in the Starry 3-Point Contest, finishing second (23 points) to Miami's Tyler Herro (24 points). Hield tallied 31 points in the first round, tying his teammate Stephen Curry for the highest-scoring round ever
- On 4/11 at Portland, made four 3-pointers to give him 201 for the season, the seventh time in his career he has made at least 200 3-pointers. Hield became the fifth player in NBA history to have at least seven seasons with at least 200 3-pointers (Stephen Curry, 12; Klay Thompson, 10; Damian Lillard, nine; James Harden, seven).

- Appeared in eight playoff games (one start), averaging 15.3 points (48.4 FG%, 40.0 3P%, 71.0 FT%), 2.5 rebounds, 1.3 assists in 23.4 minutes per game.
- In Semifinals vs. Minnesota, appeared in five games (all as a reserve), averaging 20.8 points (54.3 FG%, 42.1 3P%, 74.1 FT%), 3.0 rebounds, 1.2 assists in 27.4 minutes per game.
- In the First Round vs. Houston, appeared in three games (one start), averaging 6.0 points (30.4 FG%, 33.3 3P%, 2-4 FT), 1.7 rebounds, 1.3 assists in 16.7 minutes per game.
- Scored in double figures in five games, 20-or-more in two, 30-or-more in one.
- Led team in scoring in two games.
- Missed one game (4/30 at Houston, G5) due to illness.
- On 5/8 at Minnesota (G2), recorded a team-high and then playoff career-high-tying 18 points, five rebounds, one assist off the bench. Made a career-high-tying eight field goals in a row before missing an attempt.
- On 5/10 vs. Minnesota (G3), tallied a playoff career-high 30 points (11-18 FG, 3-4 3P, 5-6 FT), six rebounds, three assists, two blocks in 36 minutes off the bench. It is the most points by a reserve in a playoff game since Sacramento's Malik Monk had 32 points on 4/15/23 vs. Golden State. The last Warriors reserve to score at least 30 points was Jordan Poole with 31 points on 5/1/22 at Memphis.

CAREER-HIGH POINTS

- Quarter: 19, 4th QTR, 3/9/24 GSW vs. SAS
- Half: 22, 2nd H, 3/9/24 GSW vs. SAS

2024-25 SEASON (GOLDEN STATE)

- Appeared in 47 games (10 starts), averaging 15.3 points (45.4 FG%, 30.5 3P%, 66.8 FT%), 4.6 rebounds, 2.2 assists, 0.8 steals in 24.3 minutes per game.
- Has scored in double figures in 41 games, 20-or-more in 11 (seven off the bench), 30-or-more in three (two off the bench).
- Grabbed 10-or-more rebounds in two games.
- Recorded two double-doubles (12/28 vs. PHX and 12/30 vs. CLE).
- Led the Warriors in scoring in eight games, rebounding in three and assists in one.
- Missed 34 games - two due to illness (11/23 at SAS, 11/25 vs. BKN), 31 due to right ankle sprain (1/5, 1/7, 1/9, 1/10, 1/13, 1/15, 1/17, 1/20, 1/22, 1/23, 1/25, 1/28, 1/29, 1/31, 2/3, 2/5, 2/6, 2/8, 2/10, 2/12, 2/13, 2/21, 2/23, 2/25, 2/27, 3/1, 3/3, 3/4, 3/6, 3/8, 3/10), and one due to right pelvic contusion (4/1).
- With two 30-point games off the bench, joins only four Warriors to have multiple 30-point games as a reserve in a single season - Cazzie Russell - 8; Purvis Short - twice, 5 and 4; Šarūnas Marčiulionis - 4; and Jordan Poole - 2).
- On 12/27 at LA Clippers, recorded first double-double of the season with a game-high and career-high 34 points (11-19 FG, 1-3 3P, 11-14 FT) and team-high 10 rebounds, to go along with five assists, two steals and one block in a season-high 37 minutes. He set new career highs in free throws made (11) and attempted (14).
- On 12/28 vs. Phoenix, recorded a game-high and career-high 34 points for the second straight game (had 34 on 12/27 at LAC) and nine rebounds, becoming the first ever Warriors player to record at least 34 points and nine rebounds in two straight games off the bench and the second NBA player (Kevin McHale in 1990) since starters were first officially tracked in 1970-71.
- On 12/30 vs. Cleveland, recorded a career-high-tying 14 trips to the free throw line off the bench, becoming first Warrior reserve since Corey Maggette to have three straight such games off the bench in March 2009.
- On January 5, underwent MRI which revealed a significant lateral ankle sprain. Kuminga was re-evaluated three weeks later on Jan. 26 and was re-evaluated again on Feb. 10.
- On February 19, returned to team practice after missing the last 21 games (1/5-2/13) due to a right ankle sprain suffered on January 4 vs. Memphis with 2:27 left in the second quarter.
- On 3/13 vs. Sacramento returned to the lineup after missing the previous 31 games due to a right ankle sprain and tallied 18 points (7-10 FG, 4-6 FT) in 20 minutes off the bench.
- On 3/30 at San Antonio, left the game with right ankle soreness (6:59 left in the second quarter) and did not return after recording four points and one rebound in seven minutes off the bench. His streak of scoring in double figures ended at 25 games, second-longest streak of his career, trailing only a 34-game streak set 12/6/23 - 2/22/24.
- On 4/3 at Lakers, recorded 18 points (outscoring Lakers reserves, 18-7), nine rebounds, four assists and one block off the bench after missing the previous game (4/1 at Memphis) due to a right pelvic contusion suffered on 3/30 at San Antonio.

- Half: 22, 1st half, 4/3/25 GSW at LAL

2024-25 SEASON (GOLDEN STATE)

- Appeared in 64 games (33 starts), averaging 11.7 points (44.5 FG%, 37.2 3P%, 75.8 FT%), 5.1 rebounds, 3.4 assists, 1.1 steals in 26.8 minutes per game.
- Among sophomores, this season, ranked fourth in rebounds (325), fifth in assists (220), sixth in 3-pointers made (115), tied sixth in assists per game, seventh in steals (69) tied eighth in rebounds per game, ninth in points per game.
- Scored in double figures in 38 games, 20-or-more in eight.
- Grabbed 10-or-more rebounds in three games.
- Recorded two double-doubles (17 pts/career-high 13 reb on 2/23 vs. Dallas and 19 pts/11 reb on 3/3 at CHA).
- Led Warriors in scoring in two games, rebounding in 10 games and assists in 11.
- Missed 18 games - one game (11/6) due to illness; 12 games (12/30, 1/2, 1/4, 1/5, 1/7, 1/9, 1/10, 1/13, 1/15, 1/18, 1/20, 1/22) due to a right abdominal injury; five games (3/8, 3/10, 3/13, 3/15, 3/17) due to bilateral low back strain.
- On 10/23 at Portland, was scoreless (0-5 FG, 0-4 3P) in the season opener, but had a game-high plus-minus of plus-35. Podziemski recorded seven rebounds, four assists and one steal in 25 minutes off the bench. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Podziemski's plus-35 is the second-highest for a Warriors player that went scoreless in a game since 1996-97, when play-by-play was first officially tracked. Andrew Bogut had a plus-42 on Dec. 16, 2015 vs. Phoenix, the highest plus-minus by any player who was scoreless in a game since 1996-97.
- On 12/19 at Memphis, recorded a game-high-tying and season-high 21 points off the bench, 16 coming in the fourth quarter, setting a new career mark for most points in a quarter; his 18 second-half points matched a career high for most points in any half.
- On 12/28 vs. Phoenix, played 11 minutes off the bench in the first half, but suffered a lower abdominal strain and did not return in the second half. Would miss next 12 games (12/30-1/22) with a right abdominal injury.
- On 2/5 at Utah, recorded career highs in points (29), free throws made (10) and attempted (13) and minutes (40) along with six rebounds, four assists and one steal. Had 17 points in the first half, most ever in the opening half in his career (18 points, H2, twice).
- On Friday (Feb. 14), participated in 2025 Castrol Rising Stars, playing for Team Tim (Hardaway) and recorded two points (1-4 FG, 0-2 3P), two rebounds and three assists in 12 minutes off the bench in one game.
- On 3/6 at Brooklyn, exited game (lower back soreness) at the 11:16 mark of the first quarter and did not return. Would miss the next five games due to a bilateral low back strain before his return on 3/18 vs. Milwaukee.
- On 3/18 vs. Milwaukee, recorded 17 points (6-10 FG, 4-7 3P, 1-2 FT), seven rebounds, one assist and one steal in 29 minutes after missing the previous five games (3/8 vs. DET, 3/10 vs. POR, 3/13 vs. SAC, 3/15 vs. NYK, 3/17 vs. DEN) due to bilateral low back strain.
- On 3/30 at San Antonio, made a then-career-high seven 3-pointers en route to a game-high 27 points.
- On 4/3 at Lakers, made a career-high eight 3-pointers en route to 28 points, one shy of his career high. Scored 22 points in first half, most he has scored in any half in his career.
