2024-25 TORONTO RAPTORS (30-52)

END OF SEASON NOTES

- The Toronto Raptors finished the 2024-25 campaign at 30-52 (.366), including 18-23 at home and 12-29 on the road. It was just the second time in the last 14 years where Toronto finished with a home record below .500 and have now done so in back-to-back seasons for the first time since the franchise's first two campaigns.
- Despite the losing record, the 2024-25 season saw the Toronto Raptors celebrate its 30th anniversary in the NBA which included the first-ever jersey retirement ceremony in Raptors history as Vince Carter's number 15 was raised to the rafters at Scotiabank Arena at halftime on Saturday, Nov. 2 against the Sacramento Kings.
- In their 30th season, the Raptors set franchise records including a single-game record for total rebounds with 73 boards on Mar. 10 vs. Washington. The Raptors finished with 3,700 total rebounds on the season which is third-most in franchise history. It is also the third time that the Raptors have recorded 3,700+ rebounds in a season. Toronto finished 10th in the league in total rebounds and in rebounds per game (45.1) this season.
- The Raptors also broke the single-season franchise record in total assists on the last game of the season. Toronto finished with 2,340 assists surpassing the previous franchise record of 2,335 that was set last year. Toronto also set single-season franchise records in most games with 25+ assists with 67 such contests and had 32 games of 30+ assists, the second-most in Raptors history, and just the second time with 30+ contests.
- Another franchise record was set as the Raptors fielded 39 different starting lineups this season passing the 2020-21 record (38). The Raptors were marred by injuries and illnesses this past season as 19 different players collectively missed a total 294 games. The season opening lineup only played three games together while the most games a starting lineup combination saw was eight contests, which happened three times.
- The injuries, however, led to increased playing time for rookies Ja'Kobe Walter, Jonathan Mogbo, Jamal Shaeed, Jamison Battle and Ulrich Chomche who played 256 games combined. Collectively, the Raptors rookies finished top-10 in major categories among all rookies in the NBA including minutes played (2nd), points scored (2nd), field goals and three-point field goals (2nd), steals (2nd) assists (3rd), rebounds (5th) and blocks (9th). The total number of games played, combined minutes and steals are the most-ever by Raptors rookies in franchise history, while total assists are second and total points and rebounds rank third all-time.
- Sophomore Grady Dick, who missed the final 21 games of the season, was selected to participate in the 2025 Castrol Rising Stars showcase in San Francisco, as part of NBA All-Star 2025. Earlier this season, he became the fourth-youngest Raptor to reach 1,000 career points (21 years, 42 days).

DARKO RAJAKOVIĆ

HEAD COACH

The passion Darko Rajaković (rye-AHK-oe-vich) has for the game of basketball has led him around the world. From Madrid, Spain to Tulsa, Oklahoma, each of these experiences have added to Rajaković's beliefs and philosophies, shaping him into the coach, father, and leader he is today.

Raised in Serbia during a civil war, Rajaković fell in love with basketball during a time of unrest in his homeland. The basketball court became his safe haven, a place where he and his friends could gather and play until the wee hours of the morning.

It was fitting Rajaković started his coaching career in his hometown of Cacak, Serbia. At just 16 years of age, he embarked on a life-long journey of teaching others a game that brought him such joy. This started with the local Borac Cacak Youth Team in 1996. After three seasons with the club, he was named the head coach of the U20 and U18 teams of Red Star Belgrade, leading Red Star to two Serbian Youth championships during his eight-year tenure (1999-2007).

Rajaković then ventured to Spain where he coached Espacio Torrelodones for three successful seasons (2009-12). In his first year with the franchise, he led the team to the championship of the Primera Division de Baloncesto in Madrid.

From 2004-11, Rajaković held his first formal job with an NBA team, serving as a European scouting consultant and NBA Summer League assistant coach for the San Antonio Spurs.

His time in Serbia, Spain and San Antonio ultimately led Rajaković to the Oklahoma City Thunder, where he spent seven seasons (2012-19). Rajaković joined the organization in 2012 as the head coach of the Tulsa 66ers – the franchise's then NBA G League affiliate, and became the first head coach born outside of North America in league history. Under his guidance, the team went 51-49 (.510) over two seasons and reached the 2013 G League semifinals. In 2014, Rajaković was honoured as one of Oklahoma City's assistant coaches at the NBA All-Star game in New Orleans.

Rajaković transitioned from the G League to the NBA at the start of the 2014-15 campaign, in what would be his first of five seasons as an assistant coach with the Thunder (2014-19). Oklahoma City averaged 49 wins during his time on the coaching staff and earned four playoff appearances - including a trip to the 2016 Western Conference Finals.

Rajaković also spent time in the NBA as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Suns (2019-20) and Memphis Grizzlies (2020-23), before being named the 10th head coach in Toronto Raptors history in June of 2023.

On the international stage, Rajaković was as an assistant coach for Serbia at the 2019 FIBA

World Cup in China, helping his country to a fifth place finish at the tournament, which included a win over the United States in the classification round.

Rajaković prides himself on being a life-long learner. He earned a basketball coaching degree from the Belgrade Basketball Academy in 2004 and a degree in sports management from Alfa BK University in Belgrade in 2006.

He and his wife, Gaga, reside in Toronto with their son, Luka.
