JJ Redick completed his first regular season as head coach of the Los Angeles Lakers. The 40-year-old was hired on June 20, 2024, as the 29th head coach in Lakers history and the 25th of the Los Angeles era.

This year marked Redick’s first coaching role following an impressive 15-year NBA playing career. From 2006-21, the former guard appeared in 940 career regular season games (488 starts) suiting up for Dallas, New Orleans, Philadelphia, LA Clippers, Milwaukee and Orlando. Overall, Redick averaged 12.8 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists in 25.5 minutes per game. Known for his shooting prowess, Redick was a career 41.5-percent shooter from long distance and his 1,950 made 3-pointers still stand 20th all-time in NBA history.

In his 15 NBA seasons, Redick was part of 14 teams that advanced to the playoffs. In 110 postseason games (70 starts), he averaged 10.9 points, 1.6 rebounds and 1.6 assists with the Magic, Bucks, Clippers and 76ers.

Quickly following his retirement from the league Sept. 21, 2021, Redick was hired by ESPN as a game analyst and was eventually promoted to the network’s lead broadcast team by the end of the 2023-24 season. In June of 2024, Redick called the NBA Finals alongside colleagues Mike Breen and Doris Burke. Redick is a co-founder of ThreeFourTwo Productions where he co-hosted two popular podcasts, including “Mind the Game,” alongside Lakers star LeBron James as well as “The Old Man and the Three.”

Selected No. 11 overall in the 2006 NBA Draft by the Magic, Redick played four collegiate seasons (2002-06) for Duke University, averaging 19.9 points, 2.7 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.1 steals in 34.0 minutes over 139 games for the Blue Devils. Redick was a two-time consensus first-team All-American and was named the 2006 Naismith Men’s College Player of the Year. Redick, who remains the school’s all-time leading scorer, had his No. 4 jersey retired Feb. 4, 2007. The university also announced that Redick will be inducted into the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame in 2024. Redick chose Duke after a standout career at Cave Spring High School in Roanoke, Va., where he was a McDonald’s All-American as a senior.

Redick and his wife, Chelsea, have two sons, Knox and Kai.
