THE BUZZ: HORNETS PLAYER NOTES

LaMelo Ball

Recent Performances

- Passed Dell Curry for 2nd place on the franchise's all-time leaderboard for 3-pointers made (930) versus Sacramento (March 24).
- Tied with Luka Doncic for most games with 7+ 3PM this season (7) versus Memphis (March 21); Ball has 17 games this season with 5+ 3PM (fourth-most).
- Became the first player in Hornets history and the 11th player in NBA history to record 20 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists in fewer than 20 minutes played, joining Charles Barkley, Tim Duncan, Tom Heinsohn, Nikola Jokic (x2) and others. Ball is one of three players to do so with 3 steals (Danny Ainge, Nate Robinson).

Season Statistics

- 2nd in offensive points per possession (+13.6) in the NBA (min. 300 minutes) behind Nikola Jokic.
- 3rd in the NBA in 3PM (230).
- 10th in the NBA in assists per game (7.1).
- One of four players (Luka Doncic, James Harden, Jamal Murray) averaging at least 15 points, 7 assists and 3 3PM per game this season.

Individual Records/Franchise Records

- Posted his seventh 30-point game this season, the 46th of his career versus Miami (March 17). Ball had 30-5-10 for the ninth time in his career; no other Hornet has more than three such performances (Kemba Walker).
- Notched his sixth 30-point game of the season, the 45th of his career at Sacramento (March 11). It was the 35th time in Ball's career that he posted at least 30 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists in a game, the second-most such performances in Hornets history behind Kemba Walker (37).
- Became the fastest player in NBA history to record 900 career 3PM, doing so in his 287th game at Portland (March 10). Ball is the only player to ever record 900 career 3PM in fewer than 300 games.
- Became the eighth player in NBA history with 100 games of 20 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists before turning 25 years old at Phoenix (March 8). Ball joined Giannis Antetokounmpo, Cade Cunningham, Luka Doncic and LeBron James as active players to accomplish the feat, along with Magic Johnson, Tracy McGrady and Oscar Robertson.
- Posted his second-career game with 15-5-5 and 5 steals, joining Kemba Walker as the only players in Hornets history with multiple such performances versus Dallas (March 3).
- Tied his career-high and set a season-high with 5 steals versus Dallas (March 3).
- Posted his 14th game this season with at least 20 points and 8 assists at Indiana (Feb. 26). Ball is one of 12 players this season with 14-or-more games of at least 20 points and 8 assists.
- Made a franchise-record-tying and career-high 10 3-pointers at Washington (Feb. 22). Ball became the 15th player in NBA history to score 30 points with 10 3PM in fewer than 30 minutes, notching his fifth 30-point game of the season. It was the sixth time in his career he's posted 35-5-5 with 5 3PM.
- Ball became the sixth player this season with 6 3PM in a quarter at Washington (Feb. 22).
- Ball, Kon Knueppel and Brandon Miller combined for 20 3PM at Washington (Feb. 22), the first time this season three players combined to make 20 3PM in a game. It is the first time in Hornets history and the 16th time in NBA history three teammates accomplished the feat, per Elias Sports.
- Passed Terry Rozier III for 3rd place on the franchise's all-time leaderboard for 3PM (865) at Washington (Feb. 22).
- Posted his 11th game this season with at least 5 3PM and 5 assists against Atlanta (Feb. 11).
- Recorded his 2,000th career made field goal versus Atlanta (Feb. 7), becoming the second-fastest player in Hornets history to reach 2,000 FGM (273 games) behind Larry Johnson.
- Passed Glen Rice for 7th place on the franchise's all-time scoring leaderboard (5,652) at Houston (Feb. 5).
- Logged the 45th game of his career with at least 20 points, 5 rebounds and 5 3PM at Houston (Feb. 5).
- Became the 5th player in NBA history to record 5,000 points, 1,500 rebounds and 2,000 assists within his first 300 career games played, joining Luka Doncic, Walt Frazier, Magic Johnson and Oscar Robertson at Dallas (Jan. 29).
- Passed Muggsy Bogues for 8th place on the franchise's all-time scoring leaderboard (5,532) at Orlando (Jan. 22).
- Tallied his fourth 30-point game of the season versus the Lakers (Jan. 15), the 43rd of his career. It was his second 30-point double-double of the season.
- Passed David Wesley for 4th place on the franchise's assists leaderboard (1,912) at Chicago (Jan. 3).

THE BUZZ: HORNETS TEAM NOTES

Charlotte Sharpshooters
- Charlotte has blossomed into one of the best shooting teams in the NBA amid this lengthy stretch.
- The Hornets rank in the top 3 league-wide in both 3-point percentage and free throw percentage this season; since Jan. 1, Charlotte leads the league in both categories.
- Through March 27, Charlotte leads the league in total 3PM as a team this season (1,193).
- Knueppel ranks 5th in 3-point percentage (43.8%) and leads the league in 3PM while Ball has climbed inside the top 3 in 3PM.
- Ball, Knueppel and Miller all average at least 3 3PM per game, making Charlotte the only team in the NBA with three players averaging 3 3PM per game on the season.
- Three of the top 4 in the NBA in 3PM since Jan. 1; Ball (#2, 154), Knueppel (#3, 136) and Miller (#4, 133). Ball (198) and Knueppel (184) rank #1 and #3 going back to Dec. 1, while Miller ranks #5 (164) since then.
- Ball, Miller and Knueppel all rank inside the top 25 in free throw percentage on the season; Ball and Miller are both top-10.

The Hornets Are Buzzing
- Since Jan. 1, Charlotte has a 28-12 record and the #1 net rating in the NBA (11.5); Charlotte's offense ranks #1 in the NBA (121.1 ORTG) and its defense ranks #6 (109.5 DRTG) in that span.
- The Hornets also rank #1 in rebounding percentage (55.2%) and in second-chance points (18.9) per game since Jan. 1. Charlotte's ability to turn extra possessions generated by offensive rebounds into points, along with limiting those opportunities for opponents, has given the Hornets a massive boost on the margins.
- More numbers from the last 39 games; the Hornets rank #1 in 3-point percentage (39.6%), #1 in 3PM per game (17.5), #2 in OREB% (37.0%) and #5 in true shooting percentage (60.0 TS%).
- In a larger 32-16 stretch that started on Dec. 14 with an overtime victory in Cleveland, the Hornets boast the #1 offense (120.7 ORTG), #5 defense (111.1 DRTG) and are #2 in the league in net rating (9.5) behind the Spurs. Only four teams (BOS, DET, OKC, SAS) have totaled more wins than Charlotte since Dec. 14.
- Since beating Cleveland on the road over three months ago, Charlotte leads the league in 3-point percentage (40.0%) and 3-pointers made (17.6). The team's offensive approach and shot distribution have excelled across a large sample size and the players on the floor have capitalized on their opportunities with efficient shotmaking.

Buzz City Chemistry
- Charlotte's lineup of LaMelo Ball, Brandon Miller, Kon Knueppel, Miles Bridges and Moussa Diabate has the highest point differential (+30.4) of any five-man lineup combination in the NBA per Cleaning The Glass (min. 250 poss.). The Hornets are 27-5 when Ball-Miller-Knueppel-Bridges-Diabate comprise the starting lineup this season.
- Charlotte's starting lineup currently has the highest point differential of any five-man lineup (min. 500 poss.) since 2004, the full span of Cleaning The Glass' lineup-tracking data.
- Add Ryan Kalkbrenner into the mix at center; a four-man group of Ball-Miller-Knueppel-Bridges plus either Diabate or Kalkbrenner; and the Hornets are 32-8.
- Josh Green ranks #17 and Grant Williams ranks #26 in the league in on/off point differential, per Cleaning The Glass. LaMelo Ball ranks #24 in on/off point differential league-wide. Moussa Diabate has climbed to #13 in the NBA in on/off point differential.
- The Hornets have four players in the top 30 league-wide in on/off differential. Competitiveness, activity, basketball IQ and floor-spacing provided by Charlotte's veterans has stabilized the lineup.

Control the Controllables
- The Hornets allow a league-low 20.6 FTA per game for opponents, balancing out their opponents' efficiency at the line (80.5 opp. FT%, third-highest in the NBA) and displaying the disciplined yet physical defense Charles Lee expects from his team.
- Charlotte has dominated on the glass this season, ranking at or near the top of nearly every rebounding statistic. The Hornets allow the second-fewest offensive rebounds per game for opponents (10.2) and the fewest total opponent rebounds (39.2) while ranking #3 in offensive rebounding percentage (35.7%) and #2 in total rebounding percentage (53.9%) themselves.
- Taking away chances at extra points (free throws) and extra possessions (offensive rebounds) for the opponent--and creating them for themselves on the offensive end with high activity on the glass and physicality in the paint--stand out as reliable traits for this Charlotte team.

Royal Rumble
- The Hornets beat the Kings by 44 points on March 24, the second win of the season by 40 points or more and the largest margin of victory at home this season. Charlotte had never before won two games by 40+ in the same season.
- Charlotte tied its franchise record and set a new season-high with 26 3PM.
- The Hornets have shot 50% from the field and 40% from 3-point range in four-straight games, the longest such streak in franchise history.

High-Octane Offense
- Charlotte scored 130 points in back-to-back games twice this season; Feb. 24 and 26, and March 17 and 19.
- The Hornets have only scored 130 points in consecutive contests twice in franchise history before this season, with the most recent coming in March 2022.

Taking the Show on the Road
- With the win at Boston (March 4), Charlotte extended its franchise record to 10-straight victories on the road.
- 10-straight road wins gives the Hornets the longest active road winning streak in the NBA. It is one of 19 road winning streaks of at least 10 games in the NBA since 2010.
- In those 10 wins, the Hornets had an average margin of victory of 18.6 points.
- Charlotte's 10-game road winning streak ended at Phoenix (March 8), but the Hornets have still won 14 of their last 17 road contests.
- In January, the Hornets tied an NBA record for highest point differential in road wins in any month in NBA history at +158.

Streaking Towards History
- Charlotte strung together a pair of historical winning streaks in recent weeks.
- The Hornets had won six-straight games before the March 6 loss to Miami, all by 15+ points. That is the second-longest such streak in NBA history, tied with the 2017-18 Golden State Warriors. The 2003-04 Detroit Pistons hold the NBA record for consecutive wins by 15+ points (8).
- Charlotte's franchise-record road winning streak ended at 10 games with the March 8 loss at Phoenix. The NBA record for consecutive wins on the road in a single season is 16.
- The Hornets are the first team in NBA history with a nine-game road losing streak and a nine-game road winning streak in the same season.

Kon's Record-Breaking
- Kon Knueppel has set nearly every rookie 3-pointers made record in the book so far and shows no signs of slowing down.
- Against Donovan Mitchell and the Cavaliers on Feb. 20, Knueppel passed Mitchell for the #1 spot on the league leaderboard for 3PM and has since widened the gap between himself and second place.
- Knueppel became the fastest player in NBA history to record 100 career 3PM, doing so in just his 29th game when the previous record was 41 games (Lauri Markkanen).
- Then, he broke Charlotte's franchise rookie record of 185 3PM in a season, breaking a record set by Brandon Miller in 2023-24.
- Knueppel reached the mountain top for rookie shooters at Indiana (Feb. 26), setting the NBA rookie record for 3-pointers made in a season (207) with 21 games remaining on the schedule.
- Against New York (March 26), Knueppel, age 20, became the only player in NBA history age 22 or younger to record 250 3PM in a season.
- On the season, Knueppel has averaged 20 points per game on 70% true shooting in seven isolated 10-game spans; no other rookie has done this once. Only 11 players total have accomplished this feat this season, including Giannis Antetokounmpo, Nikola Jokic, Shai Gilgeous-Alexander and Karl-Anthony Towns.
- Knueppel is only the second rookie in NBA history to ever average 20 points per game on 70% true shooting in a 10-game span (Chet Holmgren, x2).
- Knueppel is currently the only rookie in NBA history to average 18 points per game on 65% true shooting. Knueppel is one of just 21 players in league history to accomplish the feat, along with Stephen Curry, Magic Johnson, Zion Williamson and others.
- In all of NBA history, Knueppel is just the second rookie (min. 25 games played) standing 6-foot-6 or shorter to average 15 points per game on 60% true shooting along with Basketball Hall of Famer Adrian Dantley.
- Only three rookies in NBA history (min. 25 games played) have averaged 15 points and 5 rebounds per game while shooting 40% from 3-point range; Larry Bird, Paul Pierce, and Kon Knueppel.

THE BUZZ: HORNETS TEAM NOTES

For the First Time Since 1959...
- The Hornets have beaten each of the last three NBA champions (OKC, BOS, DEN) by 20+ points this season.
- The last time an NBA team accomplished such a feat was the 1958-59 season, 67 years ago.
- It had only happened three times in NBA history prior to Charlotte's win at Boston (March 4). They joined the Syracuse Nationals in 1958-59, the Fort Wayne Pistons in 1956-57, and the Rochester Royals in 1949-50.

Combining to Hit the Century Mark
- LaMelo Ball, Miles Bridges, Kon Knueppel and Brandon Miller combined to score 100 points at Sacramento (March 11).
- It was the second time this season that four Hornets players have combined for 100 points (Oct. 26 at Washington).

Fourth-Straight Eastern Konference Rookie of the Month
- Kon Knueppel was named Eastern Conference Rookie of the Month for games played in February, his fourth-straight month earning the award. He has swept all four Eastern Conference Rookie of the Month awards so far this season.
- He is he first Hornet ever to win the award four times. Larry Johnson, Emeka Okafor, Raymond Felton, LaMelo Ball and Brandon Miller all won it three times.
- Knueppel averaged 21.5 points, 5.7 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.0 steals per game on 50.3/48.5/82.1 shooting splits in 11 games during the month of February.
- He led all rookies in total points (237), field goals made (78), 3-pointers made (49) and free throws made (32).

Tremendous Turnaround
- The Hornets got off to a 4-14 start this season as injuries plagued their bench depth.
- Since then, the Hornets have posted a 30-20 record.
- The last time an NBA team went from 10 games below .500 to above .500 in the same season was the Memphis Grizzlies in 2019-20. The LA Clippers have also accomplished the feat this season, but Charlotte did so first.

Another NBA 3PM Record in the Books
- Charlotte tied the NBA team record for 3-pointers made in a seven-game span (147) in the win at Boston (March 4).
- The Hornets broke the Celtics' own record from the 2023-24 season by one make (146).

Raining Threes for Three-Straight Games
- Charlotte tied the NBA team record for 3-pointers made in a three-game span (72) in the win at Indiana (Feb. 26).
- The Hornets totaled 25 3PM at Washington (Feb. 22), 25 3PM at Chicago (Feb. 24), and 22 3PM at Indiana (Feb. 26), coming within one made 3-pointer of the franchise record for 3PM in a game (27) in consecutive games.

LaMelo Catches Fire in D.C.
- LaMelo Ball put up one of the best shooting performances the NBA has seen this season at Washington (Feb. 22).
- Ball finished with 37 points on 12-20 from the field and 10-15 from beyond the arc. He is the 10th player this season to score 30+ points and make 10+ 3-pointers in a game.
- He finished with a franchise-record-tying and career-high 10 3-pointers. Ball became the 15th player in NBA history to score 30 points with 10 3PM in fewer than 30 minutes played, notching his fifth 30-point game of the season. It was the sixth time in his career he's posted 35-5-5 with 5 3PM.
- Ball became the sixth player this season with 6 3PM in a quarter when he went 6-for-7 from deep in Charlotte's 44-point third quarter.
- Ball, Kon Knueppel and Brandon Miller combined for 20 3PM, the first time this season three players combined to make 20 3PM in a game. It is the first time in Hornets history and the 16th time in NBA history three teammates accomplished the feat, per Elias Sports.
- With his second made triple of the game, Ball passed Terry Rozier III for 3rd place on the franchise's all-time leaderboard for 3PM (865) at Washington (Feb. 22). Ball now ranks in the top 10 in Hornets history in eight different categories.

Charlotte's Nine-Game Streak
- Charlotte historic nine-game winning streak came to an end against Detroit on Feb. 9, 2026.
- The Hornets hadn't won nine-straight games since April of the 1998-99 season.
- The longest winning streak in franchise history is 10 games, spanning from Feb. 21 to March 14 of the 1997-98 season.
- That year, Dave Cowens led the Hornets to a 51-31 record as head coach. In the 10th win of that streak, Charlotte started David Wesley, Bobby Phills, Glen Rice, Anthony Mason and Matt Geiger.
- After a 1-10 start on the road this season, the Hornets have since rebounded with a 13-5 record away from Spectrum Center and have won six-straight road games.

The Longest Winning Streaks in Charlotte History...

Wins	Season	From - To
10	1997-98	Feb. 21, 1998 - March 14, 1998
9	2025-26	Jan. 22, 2026 - Feb. 9, 2026
9	1998-99	April 7, 1999 - April 23, 1999
9	1996-97	April 2, 1997 - April 18, 1997

It's B-Miller Time
- Posted 10-straight 20-point games, his longest 20-point game streak this season. Miller's streak ended in the win over New Orleans (Feb. 2).
- Miller's 10-straight 20-point games is the second-longest 20-point game streak of his career.
- His longest 20-point game streak is 12 games, spanning from Nov. 19, 2024, to Dec. 13, 2024.
- In that streak, Miller shot 51.2 FG% / 43.8 3P% / 97.9 FT% splits. He averaged 24.7 PPG, 5.2 RPG and 3.3 APG in those 10 games.
- One of five players this season to average 20 PPG and 5 RPG on 50/40/90 shooting splits over a 10-game span (1/15/26-1/31/26).
- Miller has impacted winning not only by scoring but also with his defensive playmaking.
- On the year, Miller is averaging 1.0 steals and 0.9 blocks per game. He ranks in the top 20 among wings in block percentage (1.4 BLK%) and is one of 11 players this season with multiple games of 5+ 3PM and 2+ blocks.

THE BUZZ: HORNETS TEAM NOTES

Charles Lee, January Coach of the Month

- Hornets Head Coach Charles Lee was named NBA Eastern Conference Coach of the Month for January.
- The Hornets compiled an 11-6 record in January, tied for the most wins in the NBA and the most in the East.
- Charlotte was the only team in the NBA to rank in the top 5 in offensive (121.1, 1st) and defensive rating (109.6, 5th) in January and led the league in net rating (11.5) and rebounding percentage (55.6%).
- The Hornets finished January on a six-game winning streak, the team's longest since the 2015-16 season.
- Charlotte recorded a +151 point differential on the road last month, tied for the best road point differential in a single month in NBA history (Miami Heat, Dec., 2010-11).
- Lee became the fourth coach in franchise history to earn the award (Larry Brown, Steve Clifford, Paul Silas) and the first since Clifford won it in 2015-16.

The January Hornets

- Charlotte was arguably the best team in the NBA during the month of January. Its 11 wins were tied for the most in the NBA and the Hornets led the league in offensive rating (121.1), net rating (11.5), rebounding percentage (55.6%) and second-chance points per game (18.3).
- The Hornets also ranked in the top 5 league-wide in offensive rebounding percentage (36.1%), 3-pointers made per game (15.8), 3-point percentage (38.9%) and defensive rating (109.6).
- Charlotte was the only team in the top 5 in both offensive and defensive rating in January.
- The Hornets held their opponents under 100 points in nine of 17 games played last month after doing so just once from October-December.
- On Jan. 1, the Hornets were 11-22 with a -3.0 net rating, good for 21st in the league. Charlotte ranked 12th in offense and 26th in defense through the end of 2025.
- Just one month and three days later, the Hornets were 23-28 on the season and ranked 12th in net rating, 6th in offense and 18th in defense on the season.
- The month of January saw Charlotte double its season-long win total and rocket up the league leaderboards in numerous categories.
- Charlotte also finished the month with a +158 point differential in road wins, tied for the highest point differential in road wins in any month in NBA history (Miami Heat, Dec. 2010-11).
- After a 4-14 start, the Hornets have since posted a 30-19 record.

Hornets at the Halfway Point

- The Jan. 15 contest at Los Angeles was game #41 of the 2025-26 season, marking the exact halfway point for the Hornets.
- Through half of the season, Charlotte ranked #9 in offense (116.7 ORTG), #22 in defense (166.6 DRTG) and #16 in net rating (0.1) league-wide.
- Charlotte is one of the best rebounding teams in the NBA, ranking #4 in offensive rebounding (34.5 OREB%) and #2 in defensive rebounding (72.1 DREB%) and total rebounding (53.1% REB).
- Offensively, the Hornets hang their hat on efficient, high-volume 3-point shooting. Charlotte ranked 5th in 3-point attempts per game (41.2) and 3-point percentage (37.3%) and made the third-most 3-pointers per game (15.4) in the first half of the 2025-26 season.
- Defensively, the Hornets' strength on the defensive glass limits the number of extra possessions for opponents generated via offensive rebounds. Charlotte allowed the third-fewest offensive rebounds per game for opponents (10.5) and second-fewest total opponent rebounds (40.0) through 41 games.

Hornets Hit All the Right Notes in a 55-point Win Over the Jazz

- Charlotte broke multiple records for margin of victory in a rousing 55-point win over Utah, a wire-to-wire win in which the Hornets led by as many as 57 points--their largest lead in any game this season.
- 55 points is the largest margin of victory in the NBA this season and Charlotte's largest margin of victory on the road in team history (fifth-largest in NBA history), breaking the franchise's previous road victory record by 12 points.
- It was the second-largest margin of victory in franchise history behind a 61-point home win over Memphis (140-79) in March of 2018.
- 150 points, 53 field goals made, 65 rebounds, 100% free throw shooting, 41 second chance points, 21 fast break points and 78 bench points were all season-highs for team totals in a single game. 24 made 3s tied a season-high and nine players scoring in double figures tied a franchise record set on opening night versus Brooklyn (Oct. 22).

Hornets Hold the Cavaliers Scoreless in Overtime

- Charlotte held Cleveland scoreless in overtime on Dec. 14, the 12th instance in the shot clock era (since 1954-55) in which a team was held scoreless in overtime.
- The Hornets holding the Cavaliers to zero points in overtime was just the fourth time a team had been held scoreless in an overtime period in the last 20 years and the first time since Chicago was held scoreless in overtime by Minnesota on Nov. 7, 2015.
- Brandon Miller's game-tying 3-pointer was just the eighth instance since 1996-97 in which the Hornets won the game after trailing with less than five seconds remaining in regulation and the first since Devonte' Graham made a go-ahead 3-pointer at New York on Nov. 16, 2019.

Lockdown Defense in Toronto

- Charlotte held Toronto to 86 points on Dec. 5, a season-low for points allowed.
- The Hornets have held their opponent to 86 points or fewer just three times since the 2020-21 season.
- In 2019-20, the Hornets held their opponent under 86 points twice, including an 83-73 win over Chicago that represented season-lows in scoring for both teams.
- Charlotte has held its opponent to 86 points or fewer 21 times in the last 10 seasons. The most recent example prior to Dec. 5 was Nov. 8, 2024, a 103-83 win over Indiana.

Scintillating Second Half in D.C.

- Charlotte set a franchise record with 88 points in the second half versus Washington. 88 points are the most the Hornets have scored in any half in team history (87 in 2H vs. IND, Jan. 26, 2022).
- The Hornets shot 67.4% from the field (29-43), 75% from distance (12-16) and 85.7% from the line (18-21) and outrebounded the Wizards 24-11 in the final 24 minutes.
- Charlotte posted consecutive 44-point quarters to close out a 26-point victory versus Washington, to which they trailed by 13 points in the first half.

Record-Breaking Opener

- Charlotte set a handful of team and individual records on opening night versus Brooklyn.
- The Hornets won their fifth-straight season-opener, the longest active opening night winning streak in the NBA.
- Nine players scoring in double-figures in a single game is a franchise record and one away from the NBA single-game record of 10 players in double-figures.
- Ryan Kalkbrenner and Kon Knueppel became the 9th and 10th rookies to start on opening night for Charlotte, and the first since P.J. Washington in 2019. The Hornets became the first team since 2019 to start two rookies on opening night and win the game.
- Kalkbrenner is the 81st player in NBA history to debut with a points-rebounds double-double. Kalkbrenner is the second-ever Hornet to double-double in their debut (Emeka Okafor, 2004).

CLEANING THE GLASS STATISTIC DEFINITIONS AND APPLICATIONS:

Effective FG%: A field goal percentage statistic that measures efficiency by giving extra weight to 3-point shots. The statistic adjusts traditional FG% to account for the fact that 3-point field goals count for three points, while all other field goals only count for two points. Can be used to demonstrate efficiency among players with a high concentration of either 2-point shots or 3-point shots.

Halfcourt/Transition points per play: A per-possession statistic that measures the number of points scored per 100 plays in either a halfcourt offensive setting or a transition offensive setting. A "play" is anything that results in a shot, turnover, or free throws. Can be used to highlight the differences in offensive efficiency on fast breaks or in the half court.

On/Off point differential: A statistic that measures the amount of points a team scores per 100 possessions subtracted by the amount of points a team allows per 100 possessions with a specific player on the court. Can be used to demonstrate how many points a team gains or adds when a specific player is in the game.

"Garbage Time": Cleaning The Glass statistics filter out statistics accumulated during the late stages of a blowout NBA game; commonly known as "garbage time." Cleaning The Glass defines "garbage time" in exact terms as follows: the game has to be in the 4th quarter, the score differential has to be greater than or equal to (>=) 25 for minutes 12-9, >= 20 for minutes 9-6, and >= 10 for the remainder of the quarter. Additionally, there have to be two or fewer starters on the floor combined between the two teams.

Importantly, the game can never go back to being non-garbage time, or this clock resets. For example, if it's a 30 point game to start the 4th quarter, but one team comes back and pulls the game within 8, that comeback is not counted as garbage time. If the leading team regains control and expands the lead back out, garbage time would start when the score went back above 10.

HORNETS HEAD COACH CHARLES LEE

Coaching Record in 2024-25: 19-63 Overall NBA Coaching Record: 58-97 (.374) (Second season)

- In his first season as Hornets Head Coach, Lee oversaw the development of multiple contributors and helped establish a team identity rooted in physicality, discipline and intentionality. Most notably, Hornets forward-center Moussa Diabate was converted from a Two-Way contract to a standard NBA deal in Feb. 2025, and has remained a crucial member of the rotation since Lee began occasionally deploying him as the Hornets starting center last season.
- Hired as the 12th head coach in Charlotte Hornets history on May 9, 2024, Charles Lee holds 10 years of NBA assistant coaching experience and enters his second season as Hornets Head Coach.
- Lee most recently served as the Boston Celtics' top assistant in their 2023-24 NBA championship run. Under Lee's guidance, the Celtics finished the year with the NBA's top record (64-18), offensive rating (123.2) and net rating (11.6). Boston's 64 wins represented the fourth-most in franchise history.
- Prior to his time in Boston, Lee served five seasons as an assistant for the Milwaukee Bucks, ascending to associate head coach and helping guide the team to the 2020-21 NBA championship. During this time, the Bucks averaged 54.2 wins despite two COVID-shortened regular seasons. Milwaukee won 60 games in 2018-19, tied for the third-most in a season in franchise history.
- He began his NBA career as an assistant with the Atlanta Hawks from 2014-18, helping engineer a defense that finished in the top six in defensive rating three straight years. In Lee's first year with the team, Atlanta won a franchise-record 60 games and reached the Eastern Conference Finals.
- Throughout Lee's 10 NBA seasons as an assistant, his teams accumulated a 510-291 (.637) regular-season record, reached the playoffs nine times, captured seven division titles, earned five Eastern Conference No. 1 seeds and won two NBA championships. In four of his last six seasons, his teams finished the regular season with the best record in the NBA.
- Lee got his start in coaching at his alma mater, Bucknell University, where he was an assistant for two seasons (2012-14).
- Lee played four seasons with the Bison, leading the team to two Patriot League titles and the only two NCAA Tournament victories in school history, including a win over No. 3 Kansas as a No. 14 seed in 2005. A 2017 inductee into the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame, Lee was the 2005-06 Patriot League Player of the Year, a three-time All-Patriot League selection and the first player in conference history to win back-to-back Patriot League Tournament MVP awards. He logged four professional seasons overseas with stops in Israel, Belgium and Germany.
