SELLOUT STREAK

Currently the Warriors have the second-longest active home sellout streak, trailing only Miami, and the sixth-longest all-time streak in NBA history. They are just two sellouts away from passing the Bulls for the fifth-longest sellout streak in league history - and the fifth home game of the season is on November 5 vs. Miami. On March 25, 2026 vs. Brooklyn, the Warriors had their 600th consecutive sellout.

The Warriors' franchise-record home sellout streak, the sixth-longest in NBA history, is at 609 consecutive games (3 sellouts in 2026-27), regular season, play-in and playoffs. Entering the 2026-27 season, the Warriors had sold out 606 consecutive home games (Miami, 683).

The 2025-26 season was the 11th consecutive 82-game NBA season in which the Warriors sold out all of the team's 41 regular season home games. The current sellout streak only includes games which allowed a full-capacity crowd (18,064 at Chase Center). Following the 2024-25 regular season, the Warriors have sold out one play-in tournament game and four playoff games.

A DUBS COMEBACK FOR THE AGES

On October 30 vs. the Lakers in the first Emirates NBA Cup Group Play game for both teams, the Warriors overcame a 25-point deficit to win, 112-95. It was the Warriors' largest deficit to overcome since March 1, 2015 at Boston when they won, 106-101, after trailing by as many as 26 points. The 17-point win over the Lakers marks the largest margin of victory after trailing by 25-or-more points since 1997-98 when play-by-play was officially recorded, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. This was the third time since 1997-98 the Warriors have won a game after trailing by 25-or-more points.

The Lakers led by 23 points after the first quarter, 38-15, and led by as many as 25 early in the second. However, the Warriors managed to tie the score at 53-all at halftime. According to the Associated Press, the Warriors are the first team in the shot clock era (playoffs included) to trail by 23-or-more points at the end of the first quarter and be tied or ahead at halftime.

BACK-TO-BACKS

Tonight's game vs. the Suns concludes the Warriors' second set of back-to-backs this season. The Warriors defeated the Clippers last night, 124-112. This season the Warriors are 1-1 in the first game and 0-1 in the second game of back-to-backs. Golden State has been swept once this season.

This season, Golden State is scheduled to play 15 sets of back-to-back games (home/road - 4, home/home - 6, road/road - 5). The Warriors had 16 back-to-backs last season (home/road - 3, home/home - 4, road/road - 8, road/home - 1), posting a 6-10 record in the first game and 7-9 in the second. Of the 16 sets of back-to-backs, four were of the home-home variety, eight were on the road, three home-road sets and one road-home set. STEPH'S IMMACULATE GAME

On October 26 at Denver, Stephen Curry made all eight of his field goal attempts, including all three 3-point attempts, and all five of his free throw attempts. He finished with 24 points after scoring just three points in the first half. This marked the second time in his career Curry made all of his field goal attempts in a game, Feb. 15, 2011 vs. the New Orleans Hornets (5-5 FG, 3-3 3P, 1-1 FT). Only Curry and Chris Mullin have had two games in which they did not miss a field goal attempt (minimum eight) for the Warriors franchise. Mullin holds the Warriors franchise record for most field goals made without a miss with 11 on Dec. 1, 1990 at Miami. The other game in which Mullin made all of his field goal attempts (eight) was on Jan. 18, 1996 at Milwaukee. In Warriors franchise history, a player has made at least eight field goal attempts without a miss 20 times (Basketball Reference).

It marked the first time this season the Warriors had three 20-point scorers in the same game. Stephen Curry (right knee injury management), Draymond Green (bilateral low back soreness), Brandin Podziemski (bilateral low back injury management), Al Horford (bilateral low back injury management) did not play, along with Jimmy Butler III (right ACL repair/surgery), Moses Moody (left patellar tendon repair/surgery) and Kristaps Porzingis (not with team).

WARRIORS ROOKIE STARTERS

For the first time since starters were officilly tracked in 1970-71, the Warriors had two rookies start in their home opener on October 23, 2026 vs. Memphis. Yaxel Lendeborg and Graham Ike started at forward and center, respectively, becoming the first two rookies to start in the same game for Golden State since April 1, 2026 vs. San Antonio when LJ Cryer and Will Richard started. Lendeborg and Ike started for the second straight game the next night at Phoenix.

STEPH'S FIRST QUARTER

On October 21, 2026 at L.A. Lakers, Stephen Curry scored 16 of his team-high 23 points in the first quarter. It was the second-most points Curry has scored in the first quarter of an opening night game in his career, trailing only the 23 first-quarter points he tallied on October 27, 2015 vs. New Orleans.

YAXEL STARTS

Warriors rookie forward Yaxel Lendeborg became the 14th player in franchise history to start on opening night as a rookie since starters were first officially tracked in 1970-71, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. 2026-27 SEASON

The 2026-27 season is the 81st overall season for the Warriors and the 65th season since moving to the West Coast. This is the eighth season the Warriors are playing at Chase Center since its inaugural season in 2019-20. Last season, the Warriors were unable to qualify for the NBA Playoffs, falling to the Suns in the Play-In Tournament for the eighth and final spot.

For the second straight season the Warriors' first game is on the road against the Lakers. This is the fifth time in the last seven seasons the Warriors open a season away from Chase Center, and the third consecutive. The Warriors have won four of their last five season openers, incldluing the last two. The Warriors are scheduled to play four of their first five games on the road, only the second time this has happened in the last 29 seasons (2020-21), according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Of Golden State's first eight games of the season, five are against Pacific Division rivals.

Of the Warriors' 21 players on the roster (including three players under Two-way contracts), only four are newcomers - forward Georges Niang (George KNEE-yang), guard Brandon Williams, rookie forward Yaxel Lendeborg (YAX-uhl LEN-deh-borg) and Two-way rookie forward Graham Ike (E-K).

HONORING NELLIE

The Golden State Warriors will honor Hall of Fame head coach Don Nelson with a 'Nellie' band on their uniforms throughout the 2026-27 season. Nelson, who spent 11 years as head coach of the Warriors, passed away at the age of 86 on August 9th.

Nelson had two head coaching stints with the Warriors, from 1988-95 and 2006-10, compiling 422 regular season victories with the franchise. His first tenure featured the famed "Run TMC" teams led by Tim Hardaway, Mitch Richmond and Chris Mullin. He later returned to Golden State and coached the 2006-07 "We Believe" Warriors, who made NBA history by defeating the 67-win, top-seeded Dallas Mavericks in the opening round of the 2007 NBA Playoffs. The Warriors became the first No. 8 seed to defeat a No. 1 seed in a seven-game series, overcoming a 25-win regular-season difference, the largest ever by a team to win a playoff series.

During a 31-year NBA head coaching career that also included stops with the Milwaukee Bucks, New York Knicks and Mavericks, Nelson amassed 1,335 regular-season victories, the most in league history at the time of his retirement in 2010. He was named NBA Coach of the Year three times, earning the honor with Milwaukee in 1983 and 1985 and Golden State in 1992, and is one of only three coaches in NBA history to win the award three times, joining Gregg Popovich and Pat Riley. Nelson also joined Lenny Wilkens as the only coaches to record at least 300 victories with three different franchises, winning 540 games with Milwaukee, 422 with Golden State and 339 with Dallas. Nelson was named the recipient of the 2025 Chuck Daly Lifetime Achievement Award, joining Al Attles (2023) and Rick Adelman (2017) as the third Warriors head coach to receive the honor.

Originally selected by the Chicago Zephyrs in the third round (19th overall) of the 1962 NBA Draft out of the University of Iowa, Nelson played 14 NBA seasons with the Zephyrs, Los Angeles Lakers and Boston Celtics, appearing in 1,053 regular-season games and averaging 10.3 points, 4.9 rebounds and 1.4 assists. He spent 11 seasons with Boston, helping the Celtics capture five NBA championships in 1966, 1968, 1969, 1974 and 1976. Nelson appeared in 150 career playoff games and led the NBA in field goal percentage (.539) during the 1974-75 season. His No. 19 was retired by the Celtics in 1978.

The jersey band will be located above the IREN badge on the upper left side of the uniform.

WITHOUT BUTLER III & MOODY

Jimmy Butler III suffered a season-ending injury (right knee ACL tear) on January 19 vs. Miami, missing the final 38 games of the regular season and two Play-In Tournament games. Butler III appeared in 38 games (all starts) in 2025-26, averaging 20.0 points, 5.6 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 1.5 steals in 31.1 minutes per game before suffering a season-ending knee injury.

Moses Moody missed the final 10 regular season games and two Play-In Tournament games after suffering a season-ending injury (torn left patellar tendon) in overtime on March 23 at Dallas. Moody, 23, appeared in 60 games (49 starts) for the Warriors in his fifth NBA season in 2025-26, averaging career highs of 12.1 points, 3.3 rebounds, 1.6 assists and 1.0 steals in 25.7 minutes.
