QUICK NOTES

The Warriors have won 10 of their last 14 games, including four of the last five. At home, Golden State has won eight of the last 10 and is 4-1 on its current franchise-record-tying eight-game homestand.

The Warriors host the Hornets Saturday night (January 17) in the sixth game of this homestand. This is the second of two meetings; the Warriors won the first meeting, 132-125, on December 31 at Charlotte. The Warriors are looking for their third consecutive season sweep of the Hornets. Golden State has a six-game winning streak against Charlotte, including the last five at Chase Center. The Hornets' only win against the Warriors at Chase Center came on November 2, 2019, 93-87. Dell Curry, the father of Stephen and Seth, will have his jersey number 30 retired by the Charlotte Hornets on March 19, 2026, in a home game against the Orlando Magic. Dell Curry, the 1993-94 Sixth Man of the Year, played 10 of his 16 NBA seasons with the Hornets, and has been with the franchise for the last 27 years, 17 as the team's TV analyst.

This is the eighth contest in a stretch in which the Warriors play 10 of 11 games at home and never leave the state (the lone road game was on 1/5 at the Clippers) from January 2 to 20. Tonight's game also is the sixth game in the Warriors' eight-game homestand (Warriors currently 4-1), tied for longest in franchise history (fourth time). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it's the fourth time the Warriors have played eight consecutive games at home (1/24/11 – 2/9/11, 10/28/21 – 11/12/21, 12/25/22 – 1/10/23, 1/7/26 – 1/20/26). The last time the Warriors had 10 of 11 games at home was 12/19/23 to 1/10/24, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. The last time the Warriors played 11 consecutive games without leaving the state was 1/7/11 to 2/9/11 when they had 16 consecutive games without leaving California.

In the month of January the Warriors have 11 home games, one shy of the franchise record of 12 home games played in a single month (November 2006 and March 2016). The last time Golden State played 11-or-more home games in a single month was last season when they had 11 games in January 2025. The most home games an NBA team plays in a single month during the 2025-26 regular season is 11, Golden State and Philadelphia, both in the month of January.

In each of the last two games (1/13 vs. Portland and 1/15 vs. New York), the Warriors had 10 players make at least one 3-pointer, the first time in franchise history that has happened, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. It was the second time this season that has been accomplished (Oklahoma City, December 7 and 10). No team has ever had a three-game streak of that kind since the 3-point line was introduced in 1979-80.

THE CURRY BROTHERS

With the Warriors signing Seth Curry on December 1, the Curry brothers are together on a regular season NBA roster for the first time in their careers. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, there have been over 40 brother combinations that have played on the same team all time, but this is the first time in Warriors franchise history that this has happened. This season, the only brothers to have played in at least one game this season on the same team is the Bucks - Giannis and Thanasis Antetokounmpo (Alex is also on the Bucks roster but has yet to play).

SELLOUT STREAK

The Warriors now have the second-longest active home sellout streak, trailing only Miami. This season, Dallas had its sellout streak, the longest in league history, end at 1,005 games when the October 29 game vs. Indiana was not a sellout.

The Warriors' franchise-record home sellout streak, the sixth-longest in NBA history, is at 586 consecutive games (21 sellouts in 2025-26), regular season, play-in and playoffs. Entering the 2025-26 season, the Warriors had sold out 565 consecutive home games. The Warriors' current sellout streak ranks second among active streaks trailing only Miami (entered 2025-26 at 642).

The 2024-25 season was the 10th consecutive 82-game NBA season in which the Warriors sold out all of the team's 41 regular season home games. The current sellout streak only includes games which allowed a full-capacity crowd (18,064 at Chase Center).
