HAWKS STORYLINES

- The Hawks will face off against the New York Knicks for Game 6 on Thursday, 4/30, inside the award-winning State Farm Arena ... Including the regular season, Atlanta has won 15 of its last 17 games played at home, including securing an 11-game winning streak ... The Hawks won all 11 games by 9+ points, becoming just the second team in NBA history to win at least 11 consecutive contests by nine-or-more points, joining the 1946 Washington Capitols.
- Atlanta enters Thursday's contest against the Knicks owning a 16-16 all-time record in Game 6.
- In Game 5 at New York, Jalen Johnson finished with 18 points on 7-15 shooting from the field, in addition to a team-best 10 rebounds, six assists and two steals in 35 minutes ... He has posted 15+ points, 10+ rebounds and 5+ assists in two games so far this postseason, one of only five players in the league to have multiple such games during the 2026 NBA Playoffs ... He is the first Hawk to have multiple such games during the playoffs since Paul Millsap in 2016-17 (also two) ... Through five games, the 2026 NBA All-Star is averaging 19.2 points, 7.6 rebounds, 5.0 assists and 1.0 steal in 36.2 minutes, one of seven players averaging at least 19.0 points, 7.0 rebounds, 5.0 helpers and 1.0 theft during the postseason.
- Dyson Daniels netted a playoff career-high 17 points on 7-11 shooting from the field, in addition to a 2-4 clip from deep, two rebounds and five assists in 25 minutes at New York on 4/28 ... Through five games, the Great Barrier Thief has totaled 41 points, 37 rebounds, 30 assists and 10 steals, becoming just the third Hawk since at least 1982-83 to secure 40+ points, 35+ rebounds, 30+ assists and 10+ steals over a five-game playoff span ... Daniels' 37 rebounds are the second-most amongst all guards in the 2026 Playoffs.
- Over his last two games, Nickeil Alexander-Walker is averaging 15.5 points on .500% from the field and .474% from three-point territory, in addition to 2.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists ... In Game 5, the 2026 Most Improved Player finished with 16 points on 6-11 shooting from the floor, including a 4-9 mark from deep, three assists and one steal in 33 minutes of action ... Alexander-Walker is shooting .436% from three-point land during the series (17-39 3FGM), the highest clip by any player in the East during the postseason and second-best amongst all players (min. 30 3FGA).
- Onyeka Okongwu has netted 10-or-more points in four of his five games against the Knicks, averaging 14.2 points, 6.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 1.2 steals through the first five games of the series, shooting .619% from the floor, .500% from beyond the arc and .750% from the charity stripe ... He secured 16 points, five rebounds, four assists, one steal and one block against New York in Game 5 ... The USC product's .619% clip from the field is the sixth-best amongst all players in the 2026 NBA Playoffs.
- Jonathan Kuminga is coming off his fourth straight double-digit scoring outing, tied for the longest such streak of his playoffs career ... He tallied 13 points, in addition to four rebounds and one assist in 17 minutes off the bench on 4/28, leading all reserves in scoring ... Over his last four outings, Kuminga is averaging 15.8 points on .500 FG% and .765 FT%, in addition to 3.5 rebounds in 26.5 minutes of play.

HONORING SEKOU:

- On October 21, 2021, the Hawks honored the legacy of former Atlanta Journal-Constitution Hawks beat writer Sekou Smith, who passed away on January 26, 2021, at the age of 48, by naming the redesigned media workroom at State Farm Arena to honor him. The Sekou Smith Press Room was unveiled to a group of Sekou's family and friends prior to the Hawks season opener on October 21, 2021. During the summer of 2021, the team also launched an annual Hawks-NBA Summer League internship in Smith's name. Each summer, a journalism, or multi-media student from a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) school will be selected to serve as the Hawks' beat writer for NBA Summer League. The SWAC is comprised of historically Black colleges and universities (HBCUs) including Jackson State University, Smith's alma matter. Additionally, beginning at the end of the season, the Sekou Smith Award will annually honor the player on the team's roster who best represents themselves and the franchise with professionalism and integrity in their interactions with the media.

HAWKS IN THE COMMUNITY:

- On April 13, the Hawks deepened their commitment to literacy celebrating Heritage Academy Elementary School for once again earning top honors in Atlanta Public Schools' (APS) third annual Race2Read Challenge, held in recognition of National Reading Month. Marking an impressive second consecutive win, Heritage Academy achieved 100% student participation and 100% teacher participation and logged more than a total of over 180,000 minutes of reading throughout the month of March. The APS 'Race2Read' Challenge is a district-wide effort designed to help close the literacy gap by motivating students to read consistently and celebrate academic achievement. Through initiatives such as March Minutes Madness, schools compete to log reading minutes, contributing toward a shared goal of reaching 10 million minutes of leisure reading by the end of the school year.
- On April 6, the Hawks recognized their Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA Coach of the Year nominees, Lorenzo Bailey and Martinez Johnson, for their exceptional leadership, unwavering dedication and transformative impact in shaping the lives of youth across metro Atlanta. Bailey, a teacher and multi-sport coach at Elite Scholars Academy in Jonesboro, was named as the Scholastic Coach of the Year nominee for his sustained excellence in developing elite programs and student-athletes. Johnson, assistant coach of the BlazeSports Jr. Hawks wheelchair basketball team, was named as the Community Coach of the Year nominee for his leadership in adaptive sports and dedication to expanding access for athletes of all abilities. Each year, teams from the NBA, WNBA, and G League nominate candidates for the award which recognizes a coach who takes a holistic approach to the game, serves as a mentor by demonstrating outstanding character and uses sports as a platform to address and educate players on mental health and social justice issues.

- Ahead of the Hawks victory against the Sacramento Kings, the team announced that guard Dyson Daniels has been named the recipient of the Jason Collier Memorial Award for the 2025-26 season. The annual honor is presented to the Hawks player who exemplifies a commitment to community engagement, reflecting the spirit of late Atlanta center, Jason Collier, who passed away in 2005. Throughout the season, he has demonstrated a strong commitment to community service, championing initiatives in youth empowerment, housing insecurity, and health and wellness. Daniels has supported youth experiencing homelessness by providing various essential items for residents at Covenant House Georgia and sponsoring the holiday wish lists for students at the Boyce L. Ansley School, a tuition-free institution serving children who are currently, or have previously been, affected by housing instability. He further expanded his community outreach through time spent with hospitalized and rehabilitating youth at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta – Scottish Rite and the Shepherd Center, offering encouragement and meaningful experiences to help uplift their recovery.
- In celebration of Women's History Month, the Hawks tipped off the first Lady Ballers Youth Basketball Clinic of the year on March 28, powered by Google, at the Martin Luther King Jr. Recreation and Aquatic Center in downtown Atlanta, welcoming 40 young female athletes, for a dynamic morning that blended basketball development with hands-on STEM learning. Throughout the clinic, participants rotated through skill-building stations led by Hawks youth development coaches, focusing on shooting, rebounding, ball handling, footwork, defensive positioning, and passing. Off the court, the girls engaged in hands-on STEM activities, designing and testing "trashketballs" and "moon darts" to explore force, motion and gravity, connecting science to sport while fostering teamwork, creativity and critical thinking.
- Strengthening its commitment to community impact, the Hawks partnered with FanDuel Sports Network on March 26 to deliver $25,000 in direct support to families facing food insecurity across Metro Atlanta. As part of the initiative, two vital community anchors, the Andrew & Walter Young Family YMCA and the APS Student and Family Support Hub were each surprised with $12,500 donations to help provide essential food resources to hundreds of families in some of the city's most underserved communities. These grants reinforce critical lifelines that ensure consistent access to food, stability and long-term success for students and their families. The surprise moments also featured Hawks alum Kevin Willis, Harry the Hawk, the ATL Hawks Dancers and leadership from both partner organizations, creating a memorable and meaningful experience.
- Championing health and wellness across Atlanta, the Hawks hosted the annual Hawks Fast Break 5K presented by Sharecare, in partnership with the Atlanta Track Club, welcoming more than 1,500 runners and walkers for a morning focused on movement, and connection on March 21. Participants experienced a unique course through downtown Atlanta, with a virtual option available, and enjoyed race-day festivities featuring appearances by the ATL Hawks Dancers, Flight Crew and Pete the Peach. As one of three signature events in the Atlanta Track Club's ATL Fit Fan Series, the race continues to engage and energize sports fans across the city. Since 2017, the Hawks and Sharecare have supported initiatives that promote healthier lifestyles and positive behavior change across Atlanta and Georgia.
- On March 19, in partnership with Georgia's Own Credit Union, the Hawks teamed up with Vision To Learn, a nonprofit dedicated to providing free eye exams and glasses to students across metro Atlanta, to host a special celebration at Evoline C. West Elementary School. More than 100 students received new prescription eyeglasses, along with a book of their choice and a bookmark in honor of National Reading Month. The event featured a graduation-style ceremony where each student was recognized on stage to receive their glasses, creating a memorable and uplifting experience for families and educators alike. A key highlight of the day was the Atlanta Hawks Foundation's announcement of a $1.2 million commitment to Vision To Learn over the next two years, reinforcing a shared mission to improve access to vision care and support student success.
- In partnership with Crown Royal, and marking a decade of service and gratitude, the Hawks hosted the tenth annual Crowning Courage event on March 12, as the team secured a victory over Brooklyn. As a tribute to military service, Hawks Season Ticket Members and the team's global partners donated their premium courtside and club seats, creating a memorable game-day experience for more than 130 veterans and active-duty service members at State Farm Arena. As an added gesture of appreciation, Crown Royal surprised attendees with personalized gifts delivered directly to their seats, enhancing an already special evening. Since its inception in 2016, the Hawks and Crown Royal have honored more than 1,200 military personnel through the annual Crowning Courage event, continuing a meaningful tradition of recognizing and celebrating those who serve.
- Continuing their commitment to career development, the Hawks partnered with Georgia Power Company on March 11 to empower U.S. military veterans through the True to You Workforce Empowerment Career Center and S.M.I.L.E. training program. Held at State Farm Arena, the fourth annual event featured a surprise visit from Hawks player Corey Kispert and welcomed veterans from United Military Care and the Wounded Warrior Project for an afternoon of professional growth. The program provided veterans with tools to navigate today's job market, including guidance on crafting effective resumes and cover letters, emphasizing transferable skills, preparing for interviews, strategic networking, professional relationship-building, salary negotiation, and workplace culture. The day began with professional headshots and lunch, followed by in-depth training led by representatives from both organizations, preparing participants to transition from highly structured military roles to careers requiring greater autonomy.
- On February 28, the Hawks partnered with Chase to empower 10 "Rookie Entrepreneurs" through educational workshops focused on financial literacy and business fundamentals. The third annual event, held at the Chase Summerhill Branch, featured a surprise visit from Hawks guard CJ McCollum, who shared insights from his own career and financial journey. Following his visit, McCollum announced that the Hawks and Chase would donate $2,500 to each small business, providing additional support for their growth and development. The entrepreneurs participated in two intensive workshops designed to strengthen financial health and accelerate business progress, covering key pillars of long-term success such as building and maintaining credit, leveraging capital effectively and implementing strategies to manage cash flow.

- On February 25, the Atlanta Hawks Foundation, in partnership with the Ressler Gertz Family Foundation, announced a $150,000 donation to the Prostate Cancer Foundation (PCF), reinforcing a shared commitment to raising awareness of prostate cancer and supporting vital research initiatives. This season, the Hawks Foundation pledged $75,000 to PCF, a leading organization dedicated to advancing prevention, detection, and treatment of prostate cancer, including research at Winship Cancer Institute of Emory University. The Ressler Gertz Family Foundation, led by Hawks Principal Owners Tony Ressler and Jami Gertz, matched the donation dollar-for-dollar, bringing the total to $150,000. Since 2019, this partnership with PCF has contributed over one million dollars to the fight against prostate cancer, emphasizing the importance of early screening.
- Ahead of the Black History Month game fueled by Georgia Natural Gas (GNG), the Atlanta Hawks and GNG teamed up with Patchwork City Farms for a special community service project focused on the vital importance of sourcing organic produce from local growers to build a more resilient and eco-friendly food system. Throughout the event, volunteers worked together on projects to improve the farm and participated in a chef-led cooking demonstration showcasing how to prepare healthy meals using locally grown, fresh produce. Following the event, a private “farm-to-table” dinner was held at Oreatha’s at the Pointe, featuring a menu crafted from ingredients harvested directly from Patchwork City Farms and other local producers. This initiative highlights the tangible impact of supporting local agriculture while empowering the community through fresh food education and sustainable practices.
- Inspiring the next generation of leaders, the Hawks and Georgia Power teamed up to host ‘The Internship Playbook: How to Show Up, Stand Out and Add Value’ on February 23 at Spelman College to inspire more than 50 Spelman and Morehouse College students through a series of career activations. This event featured an educational fireside chat and panel discussion designed to equip the next generation of leaders with the tools to navigate the modern professional landscape. Hawks and Georgia Power leaders discussed the nuances of executive presence, offering strategies for interns to demonstrate engagement in a hybrid world while also adding immediate value.
- In partnership with State Farm, the Hawks hosted the first-ever joint Good Neighbor Day on February 21 at State Farm Arena, bringing together youth and families from Good Neighbor Clubs across Atlanta for a day focused on physical and mental wellness. Students participated in basketball clinics led by Hawks Basketball Academy staff and personal development sessions centered on positive self-talk and affirmations, while parents and guardians attended workshops facilitated by American Red Cross and Dr. Kensa Gunter on creating safe, supportive home environments. The day concluded with a community service project benefiting Meals On Wheels Atlanta, as students wrote uplifting letters and decorated meal boxes for local seniors.
- On February 19, the Hawks hosted their third annual ‘She LEADS’ Women’s Empowerment Summit at the Emory Sports Medicine Complex, the organization’s official practice and training facility. The all-day program welcomed more than 50 early-career women for immersive professional development, leadership growth, and networking sessions focused on nurturing, empowering and honoring women leaders across the Atlanta community. The summit served as the kickoff for the ‘She LEADS’ initiative, a six-month program designed to advance the next generation of leaders in Atlanta through workshops, one-on-one mentoring and a capstone project.

STATE FARM ARENA:

- The Hawks have played over 200 games and hosted more than 600 events at State Farm Arena since its opening seven years ago. Earlier this month, the arena officially ranked fifth in the United States and seventh worldwide among top venues with a capacity of 15,001 or more (excluding stadiums), according to Billboard’s The Year in Touring 2025 report, marking the third consecutive year the venue has placed in the global Top 10.
- With an official capacity of 17,044, the award-winning downtown Atlanta venue has welcomed over six million fans and hosted a wide array of events, from concerts and comedy shows to college sports and conferences, further solidifying its position as a premier destination for live entertainment. In the past two months, notable performances and events have included B2K & Bow Wow, Eric Church, Gabriel Iglesias, HBCU Aware Fest, Maná, New Edition, Ricardo Arjona and We Them One’s Comedy Tour. The coming months will feature a lineup of world-renowned artists and major events at State Farm Arena, including A$AP Rocky, Bruce Springsteen and The E Street Band, Diljit Dosanjh, Don Toliver, Florence + the Machine, Megan Moroney, Summer Walker and more.
- A leader in sustainability, State Farm Arena is the world’s first sports and entertainment venue to receive TRUE Platinum Certification for Zero Waste and LEED Gold Certification.
- Inspiring the next generation of innovators, Honeywell, the Hawks and State Farm Arena hosted the third annual Arena of the Future Innovation Challenge on March 30. Over seven weeks, more than 30 students from Charles R. Drew Charter School explored STEM by developing forward-thinking ideas to make the downtown arena more automated, energy-efficient and guest-friendly. The event began with welcome remarks, followed by student presentations to a panel of industry judges. The winning team proposed using robots to lift and stack floor panels for events, reducing physical labor, while the second-place team suggested AI-enabled cameras to track crowd density and provide guests with real-time updates on less-populated areas. Both teams received a combined $10,000 in funding from Honeywell, which also contributed an additional $4,000 to support ongoing STEM education at the school.

- On March 27, the Hawks and State Farm Arena, in partnership with Smurfit Westrock, hosted an Arena Planting Day event focused on sustainability and community impact. In collaboration with Roots Down, a leading urban regenerative solutions specialist, the organizations planted trees and installed garden-filled planter boxes around the exterior of the award-winning venue, enhancing the beautification of downtown Atlanta while supporting the local ecosystem. Founded in 2018, Roots Down is dedicated to redefining the relationship between communities and the environment, with a focus on building climate resiliency and demonstrating that a greener future is achievable in urban spaces. This initiative builds on the multi-year sustainability partnership announced in 2024 between the Hawks and Smurfit Westrock, which is centered on reducing waste, preserving biodiversity and supporting the well-being of Atlanta communities.
- On February 11, the Hawks and State Farm Arena, in partnership with Novelis, announced the winners of the second annual Novelis Community Recycling Challenge. Over a four-week period, more than 1,000 students from David T. Howard Middle School collected recyclable materials, with the sixth-grade class, comprised of 433 students, earning top honors for the second consecutive year. In total, the school collected nearly 800 pounds of recyclables and more than 3,000 aluminum cans, while the sixth graders secured the victory by contributing 428 pounds of materials and 1,488 cans. The 2025 Recycling Challenge overall yielded 638 pounds of recyclables and 4,568 aluminum cans.
- On October 23, State Farm Arena debuted 13 new menu items that blend elevated Southern flavors with Atlanta's vibrant culinary culture, curated by Chief Culinary Officer Chef G. Garvin and hospitality partner Levy. Fans can now enjoy a variety of upgraded offerings, from signature smashburgers and sandwiches to desserts and vegetarian options, available throughout the arena. Zac Brown's Social Club also introduced its own refreshed lineup of dishes, created in partnership with GRAMMY-winning artist Zac Brown. These additions further enhance the venue's reputation for delivering restaurant-quality dining experiences for every guest.
- On September 9, State Farm Arena was named the No. 1 NBA venue for sustainability for the second year in a row at the 2025 GOAL Invitational & Awards, earning 36 medals across Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) categories. The Atlanta venue was recognized for initiatives like waste reduction, composting, recycling, and setting long-term sustainability goals.
- In July, the Atlanta Hawks and State Farm Arena were honored with two major industry awards, the ALSD Best Sustainability or Social Impact Initiative Award and the Green Sports Alliance's Play to Zero Award, for their leadership in hosting over 600 zero-waste events and advancing sustainability in sports and entertainment. These recognitions highlight the arena's innovative partnerships and impactful programs, such as in-game recycling activations, smart technology, and carbon offset initiatives.

PLAYOFF RECORD WITH HAWKS (3 PLAYOFF APPEARANCES): 4-8 (.333)

Quin Snyder was named the 15th full-time head coach of the Atlanta Hawks on February 26, 2023.

The Hawks secured the No. 6 seed in the 2026 Eastern Conference Playoffs following a 46-36 regular season, the team's most wins in a single season since the 2015-16 campaign (48-34). Snyder, who earned Eastern Conference Coach of the Month honors in the month of March, earned his 500th regular season win on Mar. 28, becoming the sixth active head coach to amass 500 victories.

In 2024-25, under the tutelage of Snyder and his staff, Dyson Daniels earned the Kia NBA Most Improved Player Award and was runner-up for the NBA Defensive Player of the Year. Zacharie Risacher was named to the Kia NBA All-Rookie First Team while finishing as runner-up for NBA Rookie of the Year.

Snyder owns 458 career regular season wins, the fifth-most among all active head coaches. Snyder won his 450th career game on Mar. 12, 2025, as Atlanta topped Charlotte at State Farm Arena, 123-110.

Snyder served as head coach of the Utah Jazz from the 2014-15 to 2021-22 seasons, accumulating a 372-264 record (.585) and leading the Jazz to the playoffs in six of his eight seasons. Over his final six seasons (2016-17 to 2021-22), the Jazz compiled a 294-178 record, the third-highest winning percentage (.623) in the NBA and best in the Western Conference over that span. Utah started the 2020-21 season with a 23-5 record, earning Snyder the honor of being named the head coach of the 2021 Western Conference All-Star team, and finished the regular season with the best record in the NBA (52-20; .722) and the fifth-highest single-season winning percentage in franchise history. His 372 wins are the second-most in Jazz history behind only Jerry Sloan.

Snyder finished Top 10 in NBA Coach of the Year voting in four-of-five seasons between 2017-21, including second in 2018, third in 2021, sixth in 2017 and eighth in 2019. He is a four-time Western Conference Coach of the Month.

The Jazz reached the playoffs in six consecutive seasons, advancing to the Western Conference Semifinals on three occasions (2017, 2018 and 2021).
