NOT MARCH, NOT APRIL BUT ...

On June 23, 2026, Dusty May was hired as the head coach for the Mavericks, joining the organization after leading the University of Michigan to the 2026 NCAA National Championship. Widely regarded as one of the sport's premier program builders and player developers, May has earned a reputation for creating winning cultures, maximizing talent and leading teams to sustained success. May became the 11th Maverick head coach in franchise history.

In just two seasons at Michigan, May guided the Wolverines to national prominence, culminating in the program's first NCAA National Championship since 1989 and posted a 64-13 record. Before Michigan hired May, the basketball program had garnered an 8-24 record. He helped Michigan become the first program to go from 10-or-fewer wins to a national championship in two seasons since the 1978-79 Michigan State Spartans. Prior to his success in Ann Arbor, May transformed Florida Atlantic University into one of college basketball's most respected programs, leading the Owls to the 2023 Final Four, multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, and unprecedented national recognition.

May's path to the NBA reflects a lifelong commitment to the game. He began his basketball career as a student manager under legendary coach Bob Knight at Indiana University before taking on video, operations, and support roles at both Indiana and USC. Those early experiences laid the foundation for a coaching career built on hard work, attention to detail, and a deep understanding of every aspect of a basketball program.

His coaching career includes assistant coaching positions at Eastern Michigan, Murray State, University of Alabama at Birmingham, Louisiana Tech, and the University of Florida before becoming head coach at Florida Atlantic in 2018. Throughout his career, May has developed a reputation as one of basketball's brightest strategic minds and most respected leaders.

50 AND HISTORY

In a record shattering night, Cooper Flagg recorded a career-high 51 points (19-30 FG, 6-9 3FG, 7-7 FT) for the most points scored by a teenager in NBA history, while becoming the youngest player (19-103) to score 50+ points in a game. He finished the night with 51 points, 6 rebounds, 3 assists, 3 steals and a block vs. ORL (4/3/26), the second player in franchise history to record that full stat line.

Flagg became the 10th rookie in NBA history to record 50+ points in a game and just the third to do so since the NBA/ABA merger (Allen Iverson, Brandon Jennings). He is the only rookie in NBA history to record 50+ points while committing one-or-fewer turnovers in the same game.

After setting the franchise rookie scoring record with 49 points vs. CHA (1/29/26), Flagg broke his own record with a 51-point outburst for the most points scored by a rookie in a single game in franchise history. He became one of five players to record 50+ points in a game in franchise history (Luka Dončić, Dirk Nowitzki, Jim Jackson, Jamal Mashburn). He is the only player in franchise history to do so with fewer than 10 free throw attempts (7). He tied Dončić and Nowitzki for the fifth-most points in a game in team history and the third most in a non-overtime game.

Flagg became one of 10 players last season to score 50+ points in a non-overtime game. Additionally, scoring 51 points while going 7-of-7 from the charity stripe, Flagg joined Aaron Gordon and Jamal Murray as the only players last season to record 50+ points on 7-or-fewer free throw attempts. He joined Lauri Markkanen, Luka Dončić and Jamal Murray as the only players last year to record 50+ points with one-or-fewer turnovers. Shooting 19-of-30 (.633) from the field, Flagg recorded the second-most efficient 50-point game by a rookie in NBA history, trailing just Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (51 vs. SEA, 2/21/70), who recorded 51 points on 72.0 FG%.

After 42 points at UTA (12/15/26) and 49 points vs. CHA (1/29/26), Flagg became the first rookie since Allen Iverson (1996-97) to record three-or-more games with 40+ points. The 19-year-old joined Allen Iverson and Michael Jordan as the only rookies to do so since the NBA/ABA merger. He tied LeBron James (3) for the most 40-point games by a teenager in NBA history (3). Flagg, James and Anthony Edwards are the only teenagers who have multiple 40-point games.

HOOPER FLAGG

One game after his historic 51 points (vs. ORL, 4/3/26), Cooper Flagg recorded 45 points (14-27 FG, 2-4 3FG, 15-17 FT), 8 rebounds, 9 assists, 2 steals and a block to tie Wilt Chamberlain for the fifth-most points (96) across a two-game span by a rookie in NBA history. Wilt Chamberlain has the other four spots.

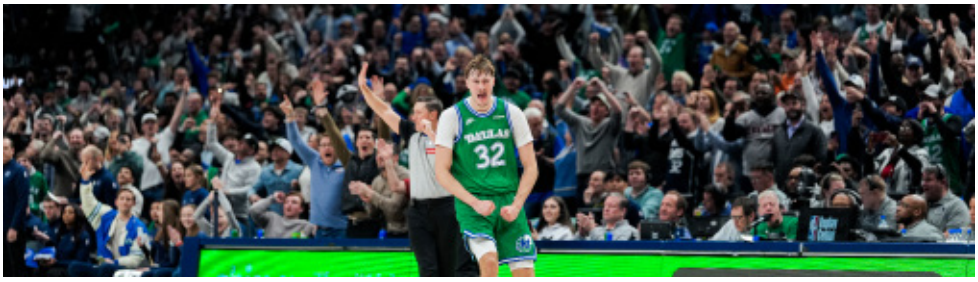

His consecutive showings also marked the second time a rookie has recorded back-to-back 45-point games since the NBA/ABA merger, joining Allen Iverson as the only players to have done so since 1976-77. He is just the third rookie in NBA history to record consecutive games with 45+ points (Walt Bellamy, Wilt Chamberlain).

Flagg's 45-point effort was his fourth career 40-point game, surpassing LeBron James (3) for the most 40-point games by a teengaer in NBA history. The only other rookie with a 40-point game is Jeremiah Fears (4/7/26).

Including his 8 rebounds and 9 assists, Flagg notched his second career 40-5-5 game, becoming the first rookie to have multiple 40-5-5 games since Allen Iverson (1996-97). He joined Iverson and Michael Jordan as the only rookies with multiple such games since the NBA/ABA merger (1976-77).

On his way to reaching 45 points, Flagg also collected his third career 35-5-5 game, breaking a three-way tie between Luka Dončić and Kevin Durant (2 each) for the second-most 35-5-5 games by a teenager in NBA history. He is now just one shy from tying LeBron James (4) for the most such games in NBA history. Additionally, he tied Dončić for the second-most 25-5-5 games by a teenager in NBA history after notching his 11th.

Flagg joined Steph Curry as the only players last season to record consecutive 45-point games. With his full stat line of 45-8-9-2-1, Flagg joined Luka Dončić and Cade Cunningham as the only players last season to record those numbers in a game.

49 points 10 rebounds 3 assists

ON THE OCCASION

On the night of Mark Aguirre's jersey retirement on Jan. 29, Cooper Flagg broke the Mavericks rookie scoring record for most points in a game after he notched a then-career-high 49 points to go with 10 rebounds, 3 assists and a block. Aguirre had previously shared the franchise rookie scoring record (42) in a game with Flagg prior to his 49-point outburst.

Cooper Flagg ended the night with 49 points (20-29 FG, 3-5 3FG, 6-6 FT) to become just the third rookie in NBA history to record 49-points on 65.0% FG% or better. He joined Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Kelly Tripucka.

His 49 points at 19 years and 39 days old made him the youngest player to record 45+ points in NBA history, and he set the record for most points in a game by a teenager in NBA history.

Recording 49 points with 10 rebounds, Flagg notched the highest scoring double-double in his career and became one of six rookies in NBA history to record a 49-point, 10-rebound game (Rick Barry, Elgin Baylor, Wilt Chamberlain, Elvin Hayes, Michael Jordan). He became the first rookie to do so since Michael Jordan who recorded 49 points and 15 rebounds vs. DET (2/12/85).

Flagg joined Trae Young, Michael Jordan, Elvin Hayes, Earl Monroe, Rick Barry, Wilt Chamberlain and Elgin Baylor as the only rookies to record a 49-point double-double. Flagg joined Trae Young and Brandon Jennings as the only rookies to record 49+ points in a game in the 2000s, although he joined Jennings and Allen Iverson as the only rookies to record 40+ points in regulation in the last 40 years.

In franchise history, Flagg tied for the 12th-most points in a game by a Maverick ever. He became the sixth Maverick to record 49+ points in a game, joining Luka Dončić, Dirk Nowitzki, Jim Jackson, Jamal Mashburn and Mark Aguirre. Only Dončić, Nowitzki and Mashburn have done so in a double-double effort, prior to Flagg's 49-10 night.

With 42 points vs. UTA (12/15/25), Flagg joined LeBron James and Anthony Edwards as the only teenagers in NBA history to have multiple 40-point games.

THE MICHIGAN MAN

Morez Johnson Jr. was selected by the Dallas Mavericks with the 9th overall pick in the first round of the 2026 NBA Draft.

Johnson Jr. became the fourth Michigan player to get drafted by the Mavericks with the ninth overall pick, joining Roy Tarpley, Eric Riley and Robert Traylor.

The two-year collegiate forward/center earned Second-Team All-Big Ten and Big Ten All-Defensive Team honors after helping Michigan to a program-best 37-3 rebound and it's first NCAA national title since 1989.

Johnson Jr. (6-9, 255) averaged 13.1 points (.623 FG%, .343 3FG%, .782 FT%), 7.3 rebounds, 1.2 assists, 1.1 blocks and 25.1 minutes per game in 40 games (all starts). On March 19 against Howard University in the first round of the 2026 NCAA tournament, Johnson recorded 21 points and 10 rebounds on a perfect 8-of-8 shooting from the field. He became only the fifth player in tourament history to record a 20-point double-double while shooting 100% from the field.

Upon getting drafted by the Mavericks on June 24, Johnson Jr. reunited with former Michigan head coach Dusty May after the latter joined the Mavericks organization as the head coach just one day prior.

2026 NBA DRAFT

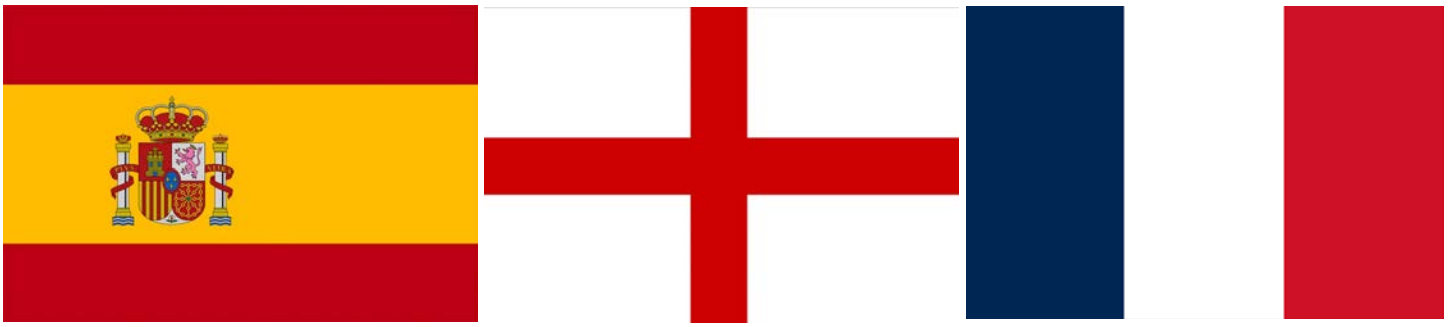

The Dallas Mavericks selected four players in the 2026 NBA Draft, starting with Morez Johnson Jr (9th overall) and traded for the draft rights to Sergio De Larrea (25th overall) in the first round. The organization also drafted Tobi Lawal (48th overall), before trading for the draft rights to Vsevolod Ishchenko (56th overall).

Sergio De Larrea was signed to the team on July 3. The Spaniard averaged 9.4 points (.452 FG%, .429 3FG%, .818 FT%), 2.9 rebounds and 3.5 assists and 17.6 minutes in 23 games for Spain's Valencia Basket last season en route a Liga ACB Championship campaign and Liga ACB Best Young Player award. De Larrea garnered 2025 Spanish Super Cup MVP honors after averaging 18.0 points in the tournament to lead Valencia to their second Spanish Super Cup trophy in team history.

In the 2026 Summer League, De Larrea became just the 4th player in NBA history to record 14+ assists in a Las Vegas Summer League game, after recording a 16-point, 12-assist double-double earlier in the summer league.

Lawal (6-8, 215) averaged 12.3 points (.542 FG%, .763 FT%), 8.5 rebounds and 1.1 blocks per game through 23 games (17 starts) during his senior season with Virginia Tech in 2025-26. He began his college career at VCU where he averaged 5.2 points, 4.0 rebounds and 13.6 minutes per game before transferring to Virginia Tech, where he led the team in total points (372), field goals made (128), rebounds (210) and blocks (20) in 2024-25.

Across two seasons with the Hokies, the London native recorded 20-plus points seven times, including a career-high 23 points which he scored twice – in his debut game for Virginia Tech against Delaware St. (11/4/24) and against Virginia (2/15/25). In his senior season, Lawal recorded a career-best 15 rebounds twice (vs. Charlotte, 11/16/25; at NC State, 2/7/26) and a career-high five blocks vs. Louisville (1/24/26).

TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

Last season, the Dallas Mavericks ended the season with every one of their players being from one of three countries (United States of America, Canada, Guinea). Only three of the team's 18 players (Moussa Cisse, Ryan Nembhard, Dwight Powell) were born and raised in a foreign country.

However, in the 2026-27 season, the Mavericks have added eight new players, including five international players.

The Mavericks have diversified the roster with a league-high-tying seven international players, stemming from six different countries. Biberović is one of three Bosnian born players to appear on an active roster entering this season, joining Jusuf Nurkić and Karlo Matković. The NBA this season features 125 international players from a record-tying 43 different countries and six continents.

Sergio De Larrea and Santi Aldama are two of five Spanish born players to be active in the NBA, joining Hugo Gonzalez, Aday Mara and Baba Miller. Aldama averaged 17.0 points, 8.0 rebounds and 1.7 blocks in the FIBA Olympic Qualifying Tournament in 2024. At the U-18 level, Aldama was the FIBA U-18 European Championship MVP after leading Spain to a gold-medal finish, averaging 18.0 points and 7.6 rebounds.

Tobi Lawal joins OG Anunoby and Amari Williams as the only three English players active in the NBA. Lawal was born in London, England, where he picked up basketball at the age of 16. He committed to playing basketball for VCU before transferring to Virginia Tech.

Zaccharie Risacher is one of 17 French players active in the NBA. Risacher was awarded EuroCup Rising Star, becoming the second-youngest player to win the award after doing so at 18 years and 362 days old. Risacher was drafted with the first overall pick, becoming the sixth international player to be taken with the first overall pick after fellow Frenchman Victor Wembanyama, Andrea Bargnani, Andrew Bogut, Yao Ming, and Hakeem Olajuwon.

Dusty May was named the 11th Maverick Head Coach in franchise history on June 23, 2026.

Prior to the Mavericks, May guided the Wolverines to national prominence through two seasons (2024-26), culminating in the program's first NCAA National Championship since 1989 and posted a 64-13 record. Prior to his success in Ann Arbor, May transformed Florida Atlantic University into one of college basketball's most respected programs, leading the Owls to the 2023 Final Four, multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, and unprecedented national recognition.

May's path to the NBA reflects a lifelong commitment to the game. He began his basketball career as a student manager under legendary coach Bob Knight at Indiana University before taking on video, operations, and support roles at both Indiana and USC. Those early experiences laid the foundation for a coaching career built on hard work, attention to detail, and a deep understanding of every aspect of a basketball program.

His coaching career includes assistant coaching positions at Eastern Michigan, Murray State, University of Alabama at Birmingham, Louisiana Tech, and the University of Florida before becoming head coach at Florida Atlantic in 2018. Throughout his career, May has developed a reputation as one of basketball's brightest strategic minds and most respected leaders.

Daniel Gafford recorded multiple blocks in each of his first six games of the 2026-27 season, marking the second time in his career he has accomplished the feat and the first time in his Mavericks career he has done so.

He has the second-longest streak with 2-or-more blocks to start a season in franchise history since Shawn Bradley did so in 1999-2000, where Bradley notched 16 straight games with 2+ blocks.

After a block vs. SAC, Gafford has recorded a block in each of his first seven games, a career best. There have only been eight other Maverick players to begin a season with a block.

20-SOMETHING

Daniel Gafford recorded a season-high 20 points vs. SAC (11/2/26). The center notched his 16th 20-point game with the Mavericks, more than double the amount of 20-point games he has had with any other team.
