★ THE HISTORY ★

Founded in 1967 as the New Jersey Americans, an original member of the ABA, the franchise moved to Long Island a year later as the New York Nets. This season's Classic Edition is inspired by the red, white and blue uniforms the Nets wore from 1968 to 1972. Led by Julius "Dr. J" Erving, the Nets later won ABA titles in 1974 and 1976, the last in league history, then joined the NBA in the 1976 merger.

★ THE COURT ★

The Classic Edition court debuted at the Oct. 21 home opener with the 60th-season logo at center court. Past Nets logos also appear on the floor, tying six decades of the franchise together. The names of more than 575 players who have worn a Nets jersey line the court, and the baseline marks 50 years since the ABA-NBA merger.

Brooklyn's top selection in the 2025 NBA Draft, Dëmin became the 11th Russian-born player in NBA history and the fourth to play for the Nets (Timofey Mozgov, Sergey Karasev, Andrei Kirilenko). At 19 years, 233 days old, he became the 9th-youngest Net to appear in a game in franchise history. Dëmin was named a 2026 Castrol Rising Star at NBA All-Star Weekend and won the event on Team Vince Carter. He was the 17th Nets player to participate in the event and first since 2019 (Kurucs, Allen).

- After opening the season with four points against Charlotte (10/21), Dëmin returned to his sharpshooting form with 22 points on 5-10 3PT and 7-7 FT on 10/24 at Cleveland. It was his sixth career game with 20+ PTS and 5+ 3PM, and his six assists were his most in any of these outings. He knocked down four 3-pointers in the fourth quarter alone, which was his most triples in any career quarter.

- In his debut season, Dëmin averaged 10.3 points and set the Nets rookie record with a 38.5% 3-point percentage en route to establishing himself as one of the top rookie shooters in league history. He knocked down 124 triples, which was the second-most by a rookie in Nets history, the fourth-most among rookies last season, and the fifth-most through any player's first 52 career games in NBA history.

- Drafted 48th overall in 2019 out of Florida State, Mann led the Seminoles to the 2018 Elite Eight and 2019 Sweet Sixteen, graduating as the third player in school history with 1,200+ points, 600+ rebounds, 200+ assists and 100+ steals. Born in Brooklyn and raised in Lowell, Massachusetts, he earned First Team All-NEPSAC honors at the Tilton School (N.H.), averaging 23.1 points and 7.8 rebounds as a senior on a 31-5 Class AA State Championship team. Entering his ninth NBA season, Wagner (pronounced VAHG-ner) enters his first year in Brooklyn after being drafted 25th overall by the Lakers in 2018 and spending time in Los Angeles, Washington, Boston and the last five-and-a-half seasons with Orlando. He played with his younger brother, Franz, for the last five seasons on the Magic as well; both brothers attended the University of Michigan and competed on the German Men's National Team, where they won the 2023 FIBA Basketball World Cup. Moe averaged 10.1 points and 4.2 rebounds per game on 52.5% FG with the Magic.

- Wagner scored 13+ points in four straight games off the bench from 10/25-11/1, averaging 14.5 points, 5.3 rebounds, 1.3 assists and 1.0 steals in 20.0 minutes per outing while shooting 66.7% FG (22-33) and 60.0% 3PT (6-10). It was tied for his longest career streak of games with 13+ points (sixth time), most recently accomplished from 11/21-27/21 with Orlando.

- Prior to averaging 6.9 points over 36 games last season for Orlando, Wagner increased his points per game in three consecutive seasons from 2022-23 (10.5), 2023-24 (10.9) and 2024-25 (12.9). The 2024-25 season also saw him post career-highs of 4.9 rebounds and 0.8 steals per game across 30 outings.

- Last season, put together a career-high 23.2% defensive rebound percentage and a career-high-tying 15.0% total rebound percentage, both of which would have ranked second on the Nets last season to only Day'Ron Sharpe. Wagner also tallied a career-low 7.7% turnover percentage, which would have been the lowest on Brooklyn's roster last season.

In addition to his NBA career, Wagner has excelled internationally for the German Men's National Team. Along with his brother and former teammate in Orlando, Franz, Wagner and the Germans won gold at the 2023 FIBA Basketball World Cup. See the table below for his totals across his tournament appearances for the senior national team:

He began his collegiate career with two seasons at Yale (2022-24), where he earned unanimous All-Ivy League First Team honors in 2023-24. Jordi Fernández was named the head coach of the Brooklyn Nets on April 22, 2024, and begins his third season at the helm in Brooklyn.

Fernández joined the Nets after spending the previous two seasons (2022-24) as associate head coach of the Sacramento Kings. In 2022-23, he helped lead the Kings to the 2023 Pacific Division title and the No. 3 seed in the Western Conference in Sacramento's first postseason appearance since the 2005-06 season. The Badalona, Spain, native also served as the head coach of Canada's Senior Men's National Team from June 2023 through February 2025. During his time as head coach, he led Canada to a bronze medal at the 2023 FIBA Basketball World Cup, representing Canada's first-ever medal in the event. Under Fernández's direction, Canada registered an overall record of 6-2, including a win over Team USA for third place.

Prior to joining the Kings, Fernández spent six seasons (2016-22) as an assistant coach with the Denver Nuggets. The Nuggets made four consecutive playoff appearances (2019-22) during Fernández's time in Denver, including a trip to the Western Conference Finals in 2020. He previously served two seasons (2014-16) as head coach of the Canton Charge in the NBA G League after spending four seasons (2009-13) as a player development coach with the Cleveland Cavaliers and one season (2013-14) as Canton's lead assistant coach. While at the helm in Canton, Fernández led the Charge to a 62-38 regular season record and consecutive appearances in the NBA G League Eastern Conference Finals.

Fernández has also held a number of other coaching roles on the global stage, including serving as the lead assistant for the Nigerian National Team at the 2020 Olympics and the Spanish National Team at both EuroBasket 2017 and the 2013 FIBA U19 World Championships in Prague. He has also spent time coaching for Club Basquet L'Hospitalet in Spain and as a player development coach with Impact Basketball in Las Vegas.
