HEAD COACH

Darko Rajakovic

Head Coach • 4th Season with the Raptors • 13th Season with the NBA

REGULAR SEASON RECORD WITH RAPTORS (4TH SEASON): 106-151 (.412) PLAYOFF RECORD WITH RAPTORS (1 PLAYOFF APPEARANCE): 3-4 (.429)

The passion Darko Rajaković (rye-AHK-oe-vich) has for basketball has led him around the world. From Madrid, Spain, to Tulsa, Oklahoma, each experience has added to his beliefs and philosophies, shaping him into the coach, father, and leader he is today.

Raised in Serbia during a civil war, Rajaković fell in love with basketball during a time of unrest in his homeland. The basketball court became his safe haven, a place where he and his friends could gather and play until the wee hours of the morning.

It was fitting that Rajaković started his coaching career in his hometown of Cacak, Serbia. At just 16 years of age, he embarked on a lifelong journey of teaching others a game that brought him such joy. This started with the local Borac Cacak Youth Team in 1996. After three seasons with the club, he was named head coach of the U20 and U18 teams of Red Star Belgrade, leading Red Star to two Serbian Youth championships during his eight-year tenure (1999-2007).

Rajaković then ventured to Spain, where he coached Espacio Torrelodones for three successful seasons (2009-12). In his first year with the franchise, he led the team to the championship of the Primera Division de Baloncesto in Madrid.

From 2004-11, Rajaković held his first formal job with an NBA team, serving as a European scouting consultant and NBA Summer League assistant coach for the San Antonio Spurs.

His time in Serbia, Spain and San Antonio ultimately led Rajaković to the Oklahoma City Thunder, where he spent seven seasons (2012-19). Rajaković joined the organization in 2012 as head coach of the Tulsa 66ers – the franchise's then NBA G League affiliate – and became the first head coach born outside North America in league history. Under his guidance, the team went 51-49 (.510) over two seasons and reached the 2013 G League semifinals. In 2014, Rajaković was honoured as one of Oklahoma City's assistant coaches at the NBA All-Star Game in New Orleans.

Rajaković transitioned from the G League to the NBA at the start of the 2014-15 campaign, beginning five seasons as an assistant coach with the Thunder (2014-19). Oklahoma City averaged 49 wins during his time on the coaching staff and earned four playoff appearances – including a trip to the 2016 Western Conference Finals.

Rajaković also spent time in the NBA as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Suns (2019-20) and Memphis Grizzlies (2020-23), before being named the 10th head coach in Toronto Raptors history in June 2023.

During his three seasons at the helm of the Raptors (2023-26), Rajaković posted a 101-145 (.411) regular-season record. In 2025-26, he guided Toronto to a 46-36 record, a 16-win improvement over the previous season, and the team's first postseason appearance since 2022. He was also selected to coach Team World at the 2026 NBA All-Star Game. With the Raptors' victory over Miami on April 9, 2026, Rajaković earned his 100th regular-season win with Toronto, becoming just the fifth coach in franchise history to reach the milestone. Following the successful 2025-26 campaign, the Raptors agreed to a multi-year contract extension with Rajaković in July 2026.

On the international stage, Rajaković was an assistant coach for Serbia at the 2019 FIBA World Cup in China, helping his country to a fifth-place finish, which included a win over the United States in the classification round.

Rajaković prides himself on being a lifelong learner. He earned a basketball coaching degree from the Belgrade Basketball Academy in 2004 and a degree in sports management from Alfa BK University in Belgrade in 2006. He and his wife, Gaga, reside in Toronto with their son, Luka.
