David Adelman is in his second regular season as the Denver Nuggets' head coach and 11th with the team overall. During his first year as head coach, the Nuggets began the season with a 17-6 record, a franchise-best after 23 games. Denver set many new franchise records including longest consecutive road winning streak (11), most road wins in a single season (26), and second-best offensive rating in a single season in NBA history. Denver beat Portland by 54-points on 2/20, setting a new record for biggest margin of victory in a game in franchise history. It also marked the most points scored in a road game in franchise history (157-103). Denver concluded the season on a 12-game winning streak, tying for the second-longest winning streak in franchise hisotry and the longest since the 2012-13 season.

Coach Adelman began his career with Minnesota (2011-16) where he served as a player development coach before being promoted to assistant coach for his final three years. He served as head coach for the Timberwolves summer league team for three seasons. Coach Adelman also served as an assistant coach during the 2016-17 season with the Orlando Magic before starting his tenure in Denver. Prior to joining the NBA, Adelman spent five seasons as head basketball coach at Lincoln High School in Portland, Oregon. Adelman went 83-53 (.610) during his five seasons at Lincoln, leading the Cardinals to three Portland Interscholastic district championships (2006-07, 2009-10, 2010-11). He also guided Lincoln to the Oregon Class 6A state championship final in 2009. Adelman was named PIL Coach of the Year three times. Prior to coaching at Lincoln, Adelman was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Jesuit High School in Portland, from 2001-06, helping the team win the state championship in 2005.
