Tonight the No. 10 seed Warriors face the No. 7 seed Suns in the SoFi NBA Play-In Tournament Game with the winner securing the No. 8 seed in the 2026 NBA Playoffs and a first-round matchup against the No. 1 seed Oklahoma City.

This is the first time the Warriors and Suns are meeting in the Play-In Tournament. The Warriors have a 2-3 all-time play-in tournament record; the Suns are 0-1 all-time following their 114-110 loss to the No. 9 seed Trail Blazers on Tuesday. During the 2025-26 regular season, the Warriors won the season series against the Suns, 3-1, with the last three games being clutch games (the score within five points or less in the final five minutes of regulation).

This is the fourth time and the third consecutive year that Golden State are participating in the play-in tournament (2021, 2024, 2025, 2026). Last season, the Warriors (48-34 regular season record) defeated the Grizzlies, 121-116, in the No. 7 vs. No. 8 Play-In Tournament game on April 15, 2025, to advance to the NBA Playoffs. The Warriors became the seventh No. 7 seed to advance to the conference semifinals, upsetting the No. 2 Houston Rockets in the first round, 4-3.

On Wednesday night, the Warriors overcame a 13-point deficit in the fourth quarter to earn their first-ever road play-in tournament win, 126-121, over the Clippers at the Intuit Dome. Golden State outscored the Clippers, 41-23, in the final 9:53

Stephen Curry, who scored a game-high 35 points at the Clippers on Wednesday, has scored at least 30 points in four of his five career play-in tournament games. According to ESPN, Curry's 34.0 points per game average in play-in games is the highest of any player (minimum two games).

According to Courtside, Draymond Green guarded Kawhi Leonard for 10:01. During that time, Leonard was 3-of-7 from the field (42.9 FG%) and 0-of-3 from 3-point range. Leonard finished with 21 points (8-17 FG, 1-6 3P, 4-4 FT) and five turnovers in 40 minutes.

LAST MEETING VS. PHOENIX

WARRIORS 101, SUNS 97

MORTGAGE MATCHUP CENTER, PHOENIX, AZ

February 5, 2026 -- Pat Spencer made a career-high six 3-pointers en route to a team-high and career-high 20 points and Gui Santos added a season-high 18 points and a career-high seven assists to lead the Warriors to a 101-97 comeback win at Mortgage Matchup Center. Without Stephen Curry (right patellofemoral pain syndrome), the Warriors rallied from a 14-point deficit to claim their 10th win after trailing by double figures this season.

The Suns opened the fourth quarter scoring eight unanswered points for a 14-point advantage, 90-76, with 10:11 remaining. The Warriors outscored the Suns, 25-7, the rest of the way, including a 10-0 run to close the game. A De'Anthony Melton layup with 55.8 seconds left tied the score at 97-all. Santos followed with a layup to give the Warriors a 99-97 lead with 28.7 seconds left. Golden State made a defensive stop leading to a Melton layup to seal the win. STEPH'S BACK!

Stephen Curry played in four of the last five games of the 2025-26 regular season after missing 27 consecutive games (February 3-April 2) due to a right patellofemoral pain syndrome (Warriors were 9-18 in those games). Curry came off the bench in his first two games back (4/5 vs. Houston and 4/7 vs. Sacramento). Prior to his return to the lineup on April 5 vs. Houston, the last game Curry played in was on January 30 vs. Detroit, exiting the game with 4:08 left in the third quarter.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, since 1970-71 when starters were first officially tracked, Curry scored the most points off the bench (29) in the first game back after missing at least 25 consecutive games in a season. Curry has the second-most points scored in a game directly after not appearing in 25-or-more consecutive team games that season, trailing only three players who had 34 points (Paolo Banchemo, Ja Morant and Paul George).

On April 5 vs. Houston, Curry entered the game at the 8:38 mark of the first quarter. This was the first time Curry came off the bench in a regular season game since March 7, 2012 vs. Memphis. After coming off the bench on 4/7 vs. Sacramento, the Warriors have a 4-4 record in games Curry is a reserve. It was the 14th time in his career (regular season and playoffs) he came off the bench (Warriors 9-5 in those games).

This season, prior to the Currys playing together in the April 5th game vs. Houston, the only brothers to have played in at least one game this season on the same team are the Bucks - Giannis, Thanasis and Alex Antetokounmpo. Before this season, Seth and Steph have been on the court as teammates at the same time for 100 seconds in the 2013 preseason (31 seconds in the fourth quarter on October 7, 2013 vs. Sacramento and 69 seconds in the fourth quarter on October 24, 2013 vs. Portland) and in high school.

On January 20, the team announced that Warriors forward Jimmy Butler III will miss the remainder of the 2025-26 season with a torn right anterior cruciate ligament (ACL). Butler III suffered the injury with 7:41 remaining in the third quarter of the January 19th game vs. the Miami Heat, a 135-112 win. He will undergo surgery at a to-be-determined date.

Butler III appeared in 38 games (all starts) this season, averaging 20.0 points, 5.6 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 1.5 steals in 31.1 minutes per game. A 15-year NBA veteran, Butler III owns career averages of 18.4 points, 5.4 rebounds, 4.4 assists and 1.6 steals in 33.0 minutes per game over 907 appearances (802 starts) with the Chicago Bulls, Minnesota Timberwolves, Philadelphia 76ers, Heat and Warriors. Including this season, the Warriors were 50-29 in regular season and playoff games in which Jimmy Butler III played in. The Warriors, when Stephen Curry, Draymond Green and Jimmy Butler III are in the lineup, have a 40-17 overall in regular season (18-12 in 2025-26; 22-5 in 2024-25) and a 20-10 road record in the regular season (14-1 last season). Without the trio in the lineup, the Warriors are 2-6 all-time (all this season).

BACK-TO-BACKS

This season, Golden State had 16 sets of back-to-back games after having 14 last season. The Warriors were 6-10 in the first game of back-to-backs and 7-9 in the second game of back-to-backs this season. Golden State swept two sets of back-to-backs, split nine and were swept five times in 2025-26. Of the 16 sets of back-to-backs, four were of the home-home variety, eight were on the road, three home-road sets and one road-home set. One of the back-to-back sets was created due to the January 24th game at Minnesota getting postponed. In 2024-25, the Warriors swept four sets of back-to-backs, split nine and were swept once., 9-5 in the first game and 8-6 in the second game.

Because the January 24th game at Minnesota was postponed and rescheduled to January 25, it created the Warriors' 10th set of back-to-backs this season and they are now scheduled for 16 sets this season, tied for the second-most with Charlotte, Denver, Philadelphia, Phoenix and Washington (Miami is first with 17 back-to-backs in 2025-26). The 16 sets would be the most for the Warriors since 2023-24 when they had 17. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, since 2000, the consecutive games at Minnesota on January 25 and 26 was the eighth instance of Golden State playing consecutive regular season games on consecutive days against the same opponent - the previous time was on October 29-30, 2024 vs. New Orleans. The last time it happened on the road was also against the Pelicans, on May 3-4, 2021 at New Orleans.

The March 20 & 21st games at Detroit and Atlanta, respectively, was the third of three sets of back-to-backs the Warriors played in a span of 13 days (3/9 & 3/10, 3/15 & 3/16 and 3/20 & 3/21). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the previous instance the Warriors had three back-to-back sets in 13 days was during the 2021-22 season (3/22 & 3/23, 3/27 & 3/28 and 4/2 & 4/3).
