SEASON IN REVIEW: The Utah Jazz finished the 2025-2026 season 22-60, leaving them 5th in the Northwest division and 15th in the Western Conference. Finishing 22-60 was the second worst record in Jazz history, only doing better than the 2024-2025 season in which they ended with a 17-65 record. Riddled with injuries throughout the season, the most significant injury being the loss of Walker Kessler after the fifth game of the regular season due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder, leaving Jusuf Nurkic and second-year forward/center Kyle Filipowski to take the mantle at the fifth position for the Jazz. Filipowski was not the only young player to find himself on the court, as every player on the Jazz roster made their way into the starting rotation at some point during the season. Keyonte Goerge had a significant leap of improvement, becoming a top candidate for Most Improved Player, averaging a career-high in points (23.6), assists (6.1), field goals and attempts (7.4/16.3) shooting percentage (45.6%), three-point percentage (37.1%) and minutes (33.1). Ace Bailey. Brice Sensabaugh, Isaiah Collier and Kyle Filipowski all saw growth and improvement during the season, taking significant strides in their designated roles, making arguable cases for each one to see considerable playing time in the coming seasons. The Jazz's future took a change for good when they traded for Two-Time All-Star and former Defensive Player of the Year, Jaren Jackson Jr., right before the NBA trade deadline. Although JJJ only saw the court for three games before being shut down for the season due to surgery on the removal of a pigmented villonodular synovitis growth in his left knee, Jazz fans saw a glimpse of what having an additional elite player can have on the team and just how competitive they could be when fully healthy. Utah ended the season tied for the fourth spot in the lottery draft with the Sacramento Kings, with ambition that the player chosen in the upcoming draft, will help transcend them into a playoff caliber team.

ALL THAT JAZZ

REDEFINING SYNERGY

• The Utah Jazz beat the Memphis Grizzlies 147-101, on April 10, marking the largest margin of victory of 46 points in the 25-26 season, and tying for the franchise record for the fifth largest margin of victory. While all seven players who saw the court reached double digits (Cody Williams, Blake Hinson, Oscar Tshiebwe, Ace Bailey, Kennedy Chandler, Bez Mbeng, John Konchar), John Konchar and Bez Mbeng recorded triple-doubles, solidifying the Jazz as the 19th team in league history to have multiple players record a triple-double in the same game and being the only team in NBA history to hit such a mark with players coming off the bench, while having five players in the game, record double-doubles, tied for the second most players in a single game to record a double-double in NBA history (6 players, SYR, Barney Cable, Larry Costello, Connie Dierking, Bob Hopkins, Dolphin Schaves, George Yardley). This marked the second stint in franchise history the team has had 5 players record a double-double with the first mark occurring in 1982.

AC-ING THE COMPETITION

• On March 23rd vs. Toronto, Ace Bailey recorded a career-high 37 points, knocking down 7 three-pointers and going a perfect 8-for-8 from the free throw line. Leading and extending the Jazz record for most games as a rookie with 7 made three-pointers (3), Bailey now ties Keyonte George for third place, for most 30-plus point games during a Jazz rookie season (3), while recording his third consecutive game scoring 25+ points, he becomes the 5th-youngest player in NBA history to do so at the age of 19-222 days (LeBron James, Cooper Flagg, Carmelo Anthony, Devin Booker). Totalling 95 points over the span of three games, Bailey becomes the second Jazz rookie ever to score 95+ during a three-game stretch (Darrell Griffith – 97), while it is the fourth most points scored this season by a rookie, during a three-game span (Cooper Flagg – 119, 102, 99).

Scoring 25 points and having 5 blocked shots at the age of 19-220 days, Bailey became the second youngest NBA player ever to record 25+ points with 5+ blocked shots (Kevin Durant, 19-069 days, 35 points/5 blocked shots).

• In Utah's then largest margin of victory this season (128-96) on March 19th vs. Milwaukee, Ace Bailey led the Jazz with a then career-high 33 points without attempting a single free-throw. Bailey joins Steph Curry and Jason Kidd as the only other rookie in NBA history to score 33+ points, 9+ rebounds, 7+ three-pointers and 3 steals, while Bailey is the only rookie in NBA history to do so on zero free-throw attempts.

2025-26 COMMUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

COMMUNITY OBSESSED

We embrace our role as stewards within the community and are committed to providing impactful, world-class experiences that engender loyalty to the Utah Jazz.

MAIN SEASON INITIATIVES

Throughout the season, the Utah Jazz will highlight various community initiatives, such as Military Appreciation, MLK Jr. Day, Black History Month, and Women's History Month. Each initiative will have unique activations in the community and at Delta Center.

In a nod to their shared commitment to community, the Jazz, Clyde Companies, Layton Construction, and LVT reconstructed and updated two basketball courts, located at Windsor Park in Orem and Memorial Park in Springville. These new courts will be year-round resources for youth, families, community members, and visitors, sharing the mountain basketball mentality across the state.

The Utah Jazz are partnering with Gallagher to present the Special Olympics Utah Unified Tournament. The fifth annual tournament will bring in hundreds of athletes in an all-day basketball tournament for kids of all ages.

Utah Jazz Most Valuable Educator, presented by Instructure, invites the Utah community to nominate local educators, in either K-12 or Higher Ed, who are making an impact in their schools and communities by inspiring the lives of their students. Ten winning teachers across the state are recognized at a Jazz game along with a classroom visit from Jazz Bear, a personalized Jazz jersey, and $1,000 grant to go towards their classroom.

Her Time is a Jazz community initiative, in partnership with Toyota, that supports girls and young women in sports. The program includes clinics and workshops to help girls feel confident and empowered to pursue lifelong participation in sports and to champion change for other women and girls.

JAZZ IN THE G LEAGUE

The NBA G League has served as a developmental tool for players and front office personnel alike since its inception in 2001. Several members of the Jazz coaching staff have spent time honing their skills in the G League, as displayed in the accompanying chart.

RICK HIGGINS ENTERS FIRST SEASON AS STARS HEAD COACH

- Former Jazz assistant coach (2023-2025) Rick Higgins enters his first season as the Head Coach of the Salt Lake City stars after serving two years on Coach Will Hardy's staff and spending three seasons as an assistant coach for the Houston Rockets (2020-23).
- The Stars finished the 2024-25 season third in the G League's Western Conference with a 21-13 record, with two-way Oscar Tshiebwe earning All-NBA G League First-Team honors.

WILL HARDY

Will Hardy, Utah Jazz Head Coach

Will Hardy finished his fourth season as head coach of the Utah Jazz. Hardy joined the Jazz after one season as assistant coach with the Boston Celtics where he helped lead the team to their first NBA Finals appearance since 2010. Prior to his time in Boston, Hardy spent a total of 11 seasons with the Spurs, five as an assistant coach. He served as the team's video coordinator from 2013-15 and as the head coach of the Spurs' summer league team in Utah from 2015-18 and in Las Vegas in 2017 and 2018.

The Williams College graduate began his career in San Antonio as a basketball operations intern in 2010 before being promoted to assistant video coordinator in 2011. He was an assistant coach for Team USA's gold medal victory over France at the 2020 Summer Olympics and served on the coaching staff for Team USA at the 2019 FIBA World Cup.

While at Williams College, Hardy was a member of the Ephs basketball squad that finished 30-2 and second nationally in 2010. The Richmond, Virginia, native has two daughters, Elliott and Pierce.

COLLEGIATE TIES

Hardy competed collegiately at Williams College (2006-10)—a small Division III liberal arts school located in Williamstown, Massachusetts. His relationship with the former Williams Athletic Director, Curtis Long, helped him land an internship with Gregg Popovich and the San Antonio Spurs.

During his time at Williams, Hardy's affinity towards coaching and natural ability was easily recognizable. Long saw his potential, and when Popovich—Long's friend and former Pomona-Pitzer College teammate—reached out, Long immediately recommended Hardy to join his staff.
