THIS DATE IN MAGIC HISTORY – MARCH 21...

March 21, 2024 – Paolo Banchero recorded his second career triple-double with 20 points, 10 rebounds and a career-high-tying 11 assists, as Orlando beat New Orleans at home, 121-106. Jalen Suggs led the Magic with 22 points, while Franz Wagner added 18 points.

March 21, 2011 – Dwight Howard recorded 28 points, 18 rebounds, four blocks, four assists and four steals in a 97-86 win at Cleveland, becoming the first player since Hakeem Olajuwon, more than 21 years ago, to record those numbers in a game.

March 21, 2003 – Tracy McGrady eclipsed the 2,000-point plateau against Cleveland, scoring 39 points in a 109-85 Magic victory at home. It marked the second time in his career that he scored 2,000-or-more points in a season and the fourth time in Magic history that a player scored at least 2,000 points, with McGrady's 2000-01 season and Shaquille O'Neal's 1993-94 and 1994-95 seasons as the others.

March 21, 1999 – Despite leading by as many as 24 points, the Magic saw their four-game winning streak snapped, 115-104, by the Lakers' dynamic duo of Kobe Bryant and Shaquille O'Neal, who combined for 71 points. Los Angeles shot 60.3 percent from the field, which was the highest mark in the NBA that season. Rookie Michael Doleac came off the bench and recorded a career-high 25 points for Orlando at home.

March 21, 1992 – Orlando recorded its first win at Chicago, 111-108. The contest snapped Chicago's 32-game winning streak when scoring at least 100 points. Terry Catledge led the way for the Magic with 20 points.

MAKE IT MAGIC...

Last season, the Orlando Magic advanced to the NBA Playoffs for the 18th time during their relatively short 36-year history. Orlando made two NBA Finals appearances after capturing Eastern Conference titles in 1995 and 2009. During their first trip in 1995, Orlando became the second-fastest team in NBA history to reach the Finals in just its sixth year of existence.

On Apr. 9, 2025, the Orlando Magic won their eighth division championship (1995, 1996, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2019, 2024, 2025). It also marks the first time since 2008-09 and 2009-10 that Orlando has captured consecutive division titles.

MAGIC TRICKS – WINNING WAYS

Orlando finished the 2024-25 campaign with a .500 record-or-better for the second straight season. It marks the first time since 2010-11 and 2011-12 that the Magic had consecutive .500-plus seasons.

GLOBAL GAMES...

Orlando headed overseas to play Memphis in both Berlin, Germany and London, England. The Magic defeated the Grizzlies in Berlin on Jan. 15, 118-111, then lost in London on Jan. 18, 126-109. G LEAGUE GOSSIP...

The Osceola Magic, Orlando's NBA G League affiliate, improved to 22-9 in the 2025-26 regular season after a 129-109 win on Mar. 17 vs. Long Island. Lester Quinones led the Magic with 28 points. Osceola has clinched a berth in the 2026 NBA G League Playoffs. Osceola's next game is Mar. 20 vs. Delaware. The Magic play their home games at Osceola Heritage Park at Silver Spurs Arena.

Osceola finished the 2025-26 Tip-Off Tournament with a record of 8-6.

The NBA G League schedule will be divided into two parts: the 14-game Tip-Off Tournament, followed by a 36-game regular season. All 31 NBA G League teams will compete in at least 50 games during the 2025-26 season. The Tip-Off Tournament, which marks the start of the 2025-26 season, begins on Friday, Nov. 7 and culminates when a champion is crowned during the 2025 NBA G League Winter Showcase in December. For the Tip-Off Tournament, teams are placed into four regions to play 14 games exclusively against each other. The teams with the best winning percentage in each region, along with the next four teams with the best winning percentages regardless of region, will advance to compete for the championship at the NBA G League Winter Showcase. Every team will play at least two games at the Winter Showcase.

Following the Tip-Off Tournament, team records will reset before the 36-game regular season, which begins at the Winter Showcase. At the conclusion of the regular season, for the first time, the top eight teams in each conference will qualify for the NBA G League Playoffs, which conclude with the NBA G League Finals in April 2026.

Last season, Osceola captured the 2025 NBA G League Eastern Conference title, before falling in the 2025 NBA G League Finals to Stockton, 2-1. Osceola finished the regular season at 22-12 and clinched the #1 seed into the NBA G League Playoffs for the second straight season. Osceola finished the Tip-Off Tournament with a record of 5-11, before records were reset.

On April 11, 2023, the Orlando Magic announced that it relocated its NBA G League affiliate to Kissimmee, Fla., and it was rebranded as the Osceola Magic. Since relocating, Osceola has compiled a 44-24 regular season record and finished as the #1 seed in the Eastern Conference both seasons.

The Orlando Magic's G League affiliate captured the 2021 NBA G League championship, defeating Delaware in the title game on Mar. 11, 2021, 97-78. All games were played at a single-site location at the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort near Orlando, Fla.

DeVOS FAMILY CONTINUES TO GIVE BACK...

Nearly 35 years ago, shortly after acquiring the Orlando Magic franchise, Rich DeVos had one request – please don't call him the owner. "The real stake in the team is the community and people who are the fans who come to the games," DeVos said at the time. "We're just the caretakers of your team and we'll try to do a good job for you." On Aug. 21, as part of the Orlando Magic's continuing commitment to the Central Florida community, the team announced $1,600,000 in grants to be distributed through the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation (OMYF) in five ways – a summer grant cycle, a winter grant cycle, microgrants, the Linda Landman Gonzalez Leadership Grant (LLG) and through professional development for grantees. The first set of grants (summer grant cycle) totaling nearly $700,000 were distributed in surprise visits Aug. 18 – 22 to nonprofit organizations in Orange, Seminole, Osceola and Volusia counties assisting at-risk youth in Central Florida. Magic Community Ambassadors Nick Anderson and Bo Outlaw presented the 18 organizations an OMYF novelty check with the amount they will be granted and a bronze basketball keepsake at each of the visits. The second set of grant recipients (winter grant cycle) will be announced in February 2026 through surprise visits as well. In addition, the Magic will award microgrants throughout the season to smaller, up-and-coming local nonprofits to assist them in growing their organizations. This marks the 18th time the team has distributed at least $1 million to the community with the Magic granting more than $31 million over the past 36 years to local nonprofit community organizations through the OMYF.

ABOUT THE ORLANDO MAGIC...

Orlando's NBA franchise since 1989, the Magic's mission is to be world champions on and off the court, delivering legendary moments every step of the way. Under the DeVos family's ownership, the Magic have seen great success in a relatively short history, winning eight division championships (1995, 1996, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2019, 2024, 2025) with seven 50-plus win seasons and capturing the Eastern Conference title in 1995 and 2009. Off the court, on an annual basis, the Orlando Magic gives more than $2 million to the local community by way of sponsorships of events, donated tickets, autographed merchandise and grants. Orlando Magic community relations programs impact an estimated 100,000 kids each year, while a Magic staff-wide initiative provides more than 7,000 volunteer hours annually. In addition, the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation (OMYF) which serves at-risk youth, has distributed more than $31 million to local nonprofit community organizations over the last 36 years. The Magic's other entities include the team's NBA G League affiliate, the Osceola Magic, 2021 G League champions, and the Orlando Solar Bears of the ECHL, which serves as the affiliate to the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning. The Magic play their home games at the award-winning Kia Center – voted by fans no. 1 in the NBA for game experience; honored with TheStadiumBusiness Awards' Customer Experience Award; named SportsBusiness Journal's Sports Facility of the Year; and awarded the Venue Excellence Award (VEA) by the International Association of Venue Managers. Jamahl Mosley became the 15th head coach in Orlando Magic history on July 11, 2021. He has compiled a career NBA regular season record of 182-215 (.458). On Feb. 9, 2026 vs. Milwaukee, Mosley recorded his 172nd career win, moving past Doc Rivers (171) for third on the Orlando Magic all-time coaching wins list.

During the 2024-25 campaign, Mosley led the Magic to a record of 41-41 (.500), clinched their second consecutive berth in the NBA Playoffs and their second straight Southeast Division title, the first time that was accomplished by Orlando since 2008-09 and 2009-10.

During the 2023-24 season, Mosley guided the Magic to a record of 47-35 (.573), secured their first berth in the NBA Playoffs since 2020 and won the Southeast Division title. Orlando had 13 more wins than the previous season, which was the largest improvement in the Eastern Conference and fourth-best in the NBA. Mosley was named NBA Eastern Conference Coach of the Month for October/November 2023 and finished second in voting for the NBA Coach of the Year award. On Mar. 12, 2024, he agreed to a multi-year contract extension with Orlando, which runs through the 2027-28 season.

In 2022-23, Mosley led the Magic to a 34-48 record, which was a 12-game improvement from the previous season - the best improvement in the Eastern Conference and third-best in the NBA. During his first season at the helm (2021-22), Orlando finished 22-60 (.268). Mosley made his NBA head coaching debut on Oct. 20, 2021 @ San Antonio and recorded his first NBA head coaching win on Oct. 24, 2021 @ New York.

Mosley came to Orlando after spending seven seasons (2014-21) as an assistant coach with the Dallas Mavericks. While on the coaching staff, the Mavericks reached the NBA Playoffs four times. He has also served as the head coach on the Mavericks summer league team that competed in Las Vegas.

Prior to joining the Mavericks, Mosley spent four seasons (2010-14) as an assistant coach with the Cleveland Cavaliers. Before joining the Cavaliers, Mosley spent five seasons (2005-10) with the Denver Nuggets. His tenure began in player development and advance scouting, before becoming an assistant coach for his last three seasons (2007-10) with the franchise. The Nuggets reached the playoffs, winning 50 games or more, each of his final three years. They won the Northwest division twice and earned a trip to the Western Conference Finals in 2009.

Mosley was a four-year letterman at the University of Colorado (1997-2001), where he is one of 33 players in school history to score more than 1,000 points. Following his collegiate career, he played four seasons of professional basketball overseas, including two years for the Victoria Titans (Australia), one year with Baloncesto Leon (Spain) and one year in Korea.

Mosley was named head coach for the USA Basketball Men's Select Team in both 2023 and 2024, which trained with the Men's National Team prior to the 2023 FIBA World Cup and the Olympic Games Paris 2024. He also served as an assistant coach for the 2021 USA Basketball Men's Select Team and as an assistant coach at the 2018 USA Basketball Men's National Team mini-camp. Mosley has also participated in Basketball Without Borders in Africa on several occasions.

A native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, he and his wife, Kristina, have three children, Jemma, C.J. and Chance.
