- He scored 21 points and made five three-pointers in Game 6 at Cleveland on May 15, a 115-94 win that forced Game 7. The 21-point margin tied a 66-year-old NBA playoff record for the largest Game 6 road win by a team trailing 3-2 in a series.

  Detroit won four games when facing elimination during the 2026 postseason.

  The Pistons' run ended in Game 7 of the Eastern Conference Semifinals, one win short of the franchise's first conference finals appearance since 2008.

EASY BUCKETS: Jalen Duren has the 4th-highest field goal percentage through five career seasons in NBA history (min. 1,000 FGM). His 69.2% FG last season set Detroit's franchise record and ranked as 9th-best in a qualified season NBA history.

Note: there is no official statistical minimum to qualify as a FG% leader across multiple seasons. The NBA minimum to qualify for a single season is 200 FGM, extrapolated across four seasons gives the arbitrary 800 FGM minimum for this stat.

Jalen Duren

LOB THREAT: Duren was one of the NBA's most prolific dunkers last season, ranking third in the league with 189 dunks during the regular season (see below). He was one of the most efficient finishers in the league, shooting 74.9 percent from within three feet of the basket and leading the NBA with a 68.8 true shooting percentage. Working primarily out of the pick-and-roll with Cade Cunningham, Duren consistently finished lobs and drop-off passes, and his work at the rim powered a Detroit offense that won 60 games and earned the No.1 seed in the Eastern Conference. He added 21 dunks in 14 playoff games and has totaled 717 dunks across his first four NBA seasons.

HISTORICAL START: Acquired on draft night in 2022 after being selected 13th overall, Duren has gotten off to one of the most efficient starts to a career in franchise history. Per the tables below, he ranks among Pistons greats in numerous categories to begin a career in Detroit. In addition, he has already climbed to 16th on Detroit's all-time double-doubles list with the 8th-most in the past 50 seasons (see table to right):

Duren grabbed his 1,000th career rebound in a double-double against Sacramento on Feb. 7, 2023, becoming the sixth-fastest player (102 games) to reach 1000 career rebounds in Pistons franchise history. At 20 years, 81 days old, Duren became the second-youngest player to reach 1K boards and at 21 years, 123 days, became the second-youngest to 2K (both behind Dwight Howard).

He also became the 9th player in NBA history to record at least 1000 rebounds, 200 assists and 100 blocks before their 21st birthday and was the second-youngest (20 years, 114 days) to reach the benchmarks, behind LeBron James (20 years, 110 days).

Duren joined Karl-Anthony Towns and Victor Wembanyama as the only players in NBA history to average at least 10 PTS, 10 REB and 2 AST in their age 20-or-younger season. He was the only 20-year-old in NBA history to average at least 11-11-2.

- Javonte Green has been productive for Detroit on defense and ranked third in the league last season in steals off the bench with 90. His 90 steals off the bench last season ranks second in franchise history.
- He was the only Piston to play all 82 games last season.

The Detroit Pistons extended Green's contract on July 8, 2026.

LAST SEASON: Green appeared in all 82 regular-season games for Detroit in his first season with the team, making six starts. He averaged 6.9 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.2 steals in 17.6 minutes per game. He shot 44.7 percent from the field, a career-high 38.1 percent from three-point range and 84.0 percent from the free-throw line. His 94 made three-pointers and 102 steals were both career highs.

PRIOR TO THE LEAGUE: Beginning his eighth NBA season, Green entered the league with a myriad of accomplishments. As one of two NBA players ever to come out of Radford University (Carlik Jones, 2022-23 with DAL, DEN, CHI), Green was a two-time First Team All-Big South selection (2014-15) and the 2015 Big South Defensive Player of the Year. After appearing in 133 games (122 starts) and averaging 14.4 points, 8.0 rebounds, 1.1 assists and 1.8 steals from 2011-15, the Highlanders retired his No. 2 on November 28, 2021. Green finished his collegiate career as Radford's career leader in rebounds (1,064), steals (245), and games played (133) and second all-time in scoring with 1,911 points.

From there, Green made three international stops before signing with the Boston Celtics in 2019. After going undrafted in the 2015 NBA draft, Green signed with Marín Peixegalego of the Spanish third division, LEB Plata on September 11, 2015. In his first professional season, he averaged 18 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 2.2 steals per game and was named the LEB Plata's Most Valuable Player. He then played with Pallacanestro Trieste (2016-18) in the Italian second division and ratiopharm Ulm (2018-19) of the Basketball Bundesliga, where he was a reserve to play in the 2019 BBL All-Star Game and averaged 19.8 points and 3.6 steals across 15 games in the 2018-19 EuroCup.

- Holland ranked tied for fourth in games with multiple steals off the bench (23) last season.
- On Feb. 23 against the San Antonio Spurs, he notched the second double-double of his career with 15 points and 11 rebounds.
- On 11/2 at Charlotte, Holland knocked down three triples, tying his career-high for the fifth time.

SOPHOMORE YEAR: Holland appeared in 78 games (five starts) in his second NBA season and averaged career highs of 8.2 points, 4.0 rebounds, 1.2 assists and 1.2 steals in 19.9 minutes. He nearly doubled his steal total from his rookie season, from 49 to 92, and more than doubled his offensive rebounds, from 40 to 83. He also shot a career-best 80.5 percent from the free-throw line. A regular in the second unit, he gave a team that won 60 games and earned the No. 1 seed in the Eastern Conference a steady source of perimeter defense and transition play. He has appeared in 159 of a possible 164 regular-season games over his first two seasons. His career highs are 26 points and 11 rebounds.

IGNITING THE G: As the No. 2 overall recruit in the ESPN Class of 2023, Holland took his talents to the NBA G League Ignite for the 2023-24 season. He dropped 30 points four times with a season-high of 32 in a double-double against the Stockton Kings on Dec. 1 and added 16 other 20-point performances. He also collected multiple steals in 19 games with at least four steals in seven outings while racking up multiple blocks eight times. He added three double-doubles. Holland was selected to participate in the 2024 Panini Rising Stars event but did not play due to injury.

Holland was one of 13 players drafted from the Ignite since 2021 and one of 15 to sign an NBA contract; his teammates Matas Buzelis (11th to Chicago) and Tyler Smith (33rd to Milwaukee) were also drafted in 2024. He was the third-highest player to be drafted from the Ignite, behind Jalen Green (No. 2 to Houston in 2021) and Scoot Henderson (No. 3 to Portland in 2023).

Paul Reed joined Cade Cunningham (vs. WAS, 11/10/25), Andre Drummond (11/27/17), Josh Smith (2/8/14) and Grant Hill (12/17/97) as the most recent Pistons to record at least 25 points, 10 rebounds, five assists and four steals in a game vs. CHI on Nov. 12, 2025.

- In Detroit's regular season finale on April 12 at Indiana, Reed recorded 26 points, six rebounds and three assists on 100% from the field with zero turnovers. He joined Nikola Jokic as the only players in NBA history to have a game of 26+ points, 6+ rebounds and 3+ assists on 100% FG and zero turnovers. He finished going 11-11 from the field, marking the highest number of field goals made without a miss in franchise history.
- The Pistons were 8-3 last season with Reed in the starting lineup.

DETROIT STOCK EXCHANGE: Reed recorded at least two steals in a career-high six consecutive games from Dec. 19, 2025 - Jan. 3, the T-15th longest streak in franchise history and the longest since Andre Drummond in 2018. He had 2+ STL and 1+ BLK in five straight games in that span from Dec. 19-28, 2025, one game behind Ben Wallace (twice) for the longest such streak in franchise history. Reed joined Wallace (3x), Terry Tyler (2x) and Andre Drummond as the only players in franchise history to record 2 STL/1 BLK in five straight games and was later joined by Draymond Green (GSW) and Scotty Pippin Jr (MEM) as the only players in the NBA to do so last season.

BEHIND THE SCENES: The Pistons re-signed Paul Reed to a two-year, $11 million deal on July 7, 2025. Reed, who played 45 games for the Pistons last season after spending the prior four campaigns in Philadelphia, stepped up for Detroit in the playoffs after Isaiah Stewart missed the final five games against New York with a knee injury, a veraged 2.8 points and 3.0 rebounds in five games. In 15:38 minutes of action in Game 3, scored four points with eight rebounds and one block. Reed, who is joined by Max Strus (CLE) as the only active NBA players from DePaul University, earned his stripes in the G League before making the NBA: he was named 2021 G League MVP with averages of 22.3 points (third in the league), 11.8 rebounds (third in the league), 2.3 assists, 1.9 steals (third in the league) and 1.8 blocks (ninth in the league) in 31.5 minutes per game and led the Blue Coats to the NBA G League Finals.

Head Coach • 3rd Season with the Pistons • 10th season as a Head Coach in the NBA

CAREER REGULAR SEASON RECORD (11TH SEASON): 367-353 (.510)
REGULAR SEASON RECORD WITH PISTONS (3RD SEASON): 112-63 (.640)
CAREER PLAYOFF RECORD (6 PLAYOFF APPEARANCES): 16-28 (.364)

J.B. Bickerstaff was named head coach of the Detroit Pistons on July 3, 2024.

In his first season at the helm with the Pistons, Bickerstaff led the Pistons to a 44-38 record and a return to the playoffs for the first time since 2018-19. Detroit more than tripled its previous season's win total (14) to become the first team in NBA history to accomplish such a feat in an 82-game season and locked up the sixth seed in the Eastern Conference. The 44 wins also marked the most wins for the franchise since 2015-16 and tied for the most wins since 2007-08. The 30-plus-win turnaround marked the best year-over-year improvement in franchise history and the sixth best in NBA history. Bickerstaff led Detroit to 14th in offensive rating (114.6) and 10th in defensive rating (112.5) for the season.

Bickerstaff's coaching excellence continued in his second season where he guided the Pistons to a 60-22 record in the 2025-26 season and clinched the first overall seed in the Eastern Conference. It marked only the third time in franchise history the team won 60 games, the first time since 2005-06, and Detroit won the Central Division title for the first time since 2007-08. The Pistons also won a franchise-best 28 road games and Bickerstaff became the first head coach in NBA history to take a team from 60 losses to 60 wins in a two-season span. He also became the third fastest coach in franchise history to reach 100 wins (159 games). Additionally, the Bickerstaff-led Pistons ranked first in the NBA in blocks (6.4) and steals (10.4) per game and points in the paint (57.9), second in defensive rating (108.9) and net rating (8.4) and third in plus/minus (8.4), rebounds per game (13.1) and free throws attempted (26.1).

Bickerstaff, who was named the Eastern Conference Coach of the month for October/November, also earned the honor of coaching the Eastern Conference at the 2026 NBA All-Star Game. He was joined by Pistons players Cade Cunningham and Jalen Duren, second and first NBA All-Star appearances, respectively, and coached Team USA Stars to a win. In July of 2026, Bickerstaff was named as an assistant coach for the USA Basketball Men's National Team that will be participating in the 2027 FIBA Men's World Cup and the 2028 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, CA.
Under Bickerstaff's tutelage, Cunningham earned his first NBA All-Star and All-NBA selections in 2024-25 after averaging career highs in points, assists, blocks and games played. Cunningham finished seventh in the NBA in points per game and fourth in assists per game. Malik Beasley recorded a career-and-franchise record 319 3-pointers, second-best in the NBA for the season, and the team posted a single-season franchise-record 1,051 3-pointers.

Prior to joining the Pistons, Bickerstaff was the head coach of the Cleveland Cavaliers from 2020-2024. In 2023-24, under Bickerstaff, the Cavaliers' defense ranked seventh in both points allowed (110.2) and defensive rating (112.1) during the regular season. During the 2022-23 season, Bickerstaff led the Cavaliers to the franchise's first 51-plus win season since 2016-17 and featured a defense that ranked first in the NBA in points allowed (106.9) and defensive rating (109.9), while being one of only three NBA teams to finish Top-10 in both offensive and defensive rating (Boston and Philadelphia). Before being promoted to head coach in Cleveland in February 2020, Bickerstaff was named associate head coach for the Cavaliers under John Beilein prior to the 2019-20 season.

Before his time in Cleveland, Bickerstaff served as the associate head coach for the Memphis Grizzlies under David Fizdale during the 2016-17 season. He took over as head coach for the Grizzlies from 2017 to 2019. Bickerstaff was tasked with transitioning the Grizzlies from the "Grit-and-Grind" era led by veterans Marc Gasol and Mike Conley to a new era led by Jaren Jackson Jr. In Bickerstaff's first full season as head coach (2018-19), the Grizzlies' defense improved year-over-year from 26th to ninth in defensive rating and from 13th to third in points per game.

Bickerstaff spent five seasons with the Houston Rockets as assistant coach from 2011 to 2015. He was named interim head coach of the Rockets during the 2015-16 season. Bickerstaff took over for Kevin McHale after 11 games of the 2015-16 season and finished the season 37-34 while qualifying for the NBA Playoffs. In four seasons with Bickerstaff as an assistant coach (2011-15), the Rockets amassed a 189-123 (.606) record while making three playoff appearances and one Western Conference Finals appearance.

Bickerstaff also spent four seasons (2007-11) as an assistant with the Minnesota Timberwolves under Randy Whitman (2007-09) and Kurt Rambis (2009-11). He began his coaching career with the Charlotte Bobcats (2004-07) as an assistant coach alongside his father, Bernie Bickerstaff, becoming the youngest assistant coach in the NBA at the age of 24.

Bickerstaff served as director of operations for the University of Minnesota's men's basketball program, overseeing all administrative areas of the program and assisting the coaching staff with recruiting, scouting and coaching. He played two collegiate seasons (1999-2001) with the Golden Gophers and two years at Oregon State University, where he was the youngest Division I player as a 17-year-old freshman.
A native of Denver, CO., Bickerstaff and his wife Nikki have three children: Blair, Blakely and Blade.
