QUICK NOTES

- The Warriors' eight-game winning streak (Oct. 26 to Nov. 9) came to an end with the 115-108 loss at Houston on November 11. The last time the Warriors had an eight-game winning streak was in 2021-22 (Jan. 21 to Feb. 7, 2022) when they won nine consecutive games. The Warriors are the only team to begin a season 0-3 and then go on an eight-game winning streak; the Mavericks hold the longest winning streak immediately following a 0-3 or worse start to the season winning 12 straight games after beginning the season 0-4, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- Tonight's game at the Spurs is the second of five consecutive road games (November 9-19). The Warriors are currently 0-1 on the road trip.
- This is the Warriors' second Emirates NBA Cup Group Play game. Golden State defeated the Lakers on October 30, 112-95, after rallying from a 23-point deficit.

* The Warriors will be without Stephen Curry for at least the next two weeks after he suffered a right oblique tear in the first quarter of the last game at Houston on November 11. Last season the Warriors were 13-26 in games Curry did not play in.

The National Basketball Association announced the Golden State Warriors Emirates NBA Cup 2026 schedule, which will tip off with a game against the Los Angeles Lakers on Friday, Oct. 30 at Chase Center (7 p.m. PT on Prime). Following their game against the Lakers, the Warriors travel to face the defending NBA Western Conference Champion San Antonio Spurs on Friday, Nov. 13 (6:30 p.m. on Prime). Golden State will then host the Sacramento Kings on Wednesday, Nov. 25 (7 p.m.), before closing out Group Play in Portland with a game against the Trail Blazers on Friday, Nov. 27 (6:30 p.m.).

Once again, the NBA Cup will consist of two stages: Group Play and the Knockout Rounds. Eight teams will advance to the Knockout Rounds: the team with the best standing in Group Play games in each of the six groups and two "wild cards" (the team from each conference with the best record in Group Play games that finished second in its group). The Knockout Rounds will consist of single-elimination games in the Quarterfinals (played in NBA team markets on Friday, Dec. 4 and Saturday, Dec. 5), Semifinals (played in NBA team markets on Tuesday, Dec. 8 and Wednesday, Dec. 9), and Championship (played at Hinkle Fieldhouse on Butler University's campus in Indianapolis on Friday, Dec. 11).

I. Summary

The Emirates NBA Cup 2026 will tip off with the start of Group Play on Friday, Oct. 30 in NBA team markets and culminate with the Championship on Friday, Dec. 11 at Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis. The complete Group Play schedule was announced in August.

The Emirates NBA Cup will consist of two stages: Group Play and the Knockout Rounds.

> A. Group Play

All 30 teams have been randomly drawn into groups of five within their conference based on win-loss records from the 2025-26 regular season. Beginning Friday, Oct. 30 and continuing through Friday, Nov. 27, each team will play four designated Group Play games on "Cup Nights" – one game against each opponent in its group, with two games at home and two on the road.

> B. Knockout Rounds

Eight teams will advance to the Knockout Rounds: the team with the best standing in Group Play games in each of the six groups and two "wild cards" (the team from each conference with the best record in Group Play games that finished second in its group). The Knockout Rounds will consist of single-elimination games in the Quarterfinals, Semifinals and Championship. The Quarterfinals (Friday, Dec. 4 and Saturday, Dec. 5) and Semifinals (Tuesday, Dec. 8 and/or Wednesday, Dec. 9) will be played in NBA team markets, with each game at the home arena of the higher-seeded team. The teams in the Knockout Rounds will compete for a prize pool and the NBA Cup championship trophy.

EMIRATES NBA CUP CONTINUED...

All 67 games across both stages of the Emirates NBA Cup will count toward the regular-season standings except the Championship. Each team will continue to play 82 regular-season games in the 2026-27 season, including those games that are part of Group Play and the Quarterfinals and Semifinals during the Knockout Rounds. All games in the Knockout Rounds will be streamed on Prime.

More details about the Emirates NBA Cup are below.

II. Tournament Detail

> A. Group Play Draw
To determine each team's opponents in the Group Play games, the 15 teams in each conference were divided into three groups of five teams via a random drawing. The six groups were unveiled on Tuesday, June 30.

Before the drawing, each team was placed into a "pot" based on its record from the prior regular season (2025-26). In each conference, one team from each pot was randomly selected into each of the three groups in that conference. The pots were as follows:

• Pot 1: The teams with the three best prior-season records in a conference.
• Pot 2: The teams with the fourth- through sixth-best prior-season records.
• Pot 3: The teams with the seventh- through ninth-best prior-season records.
• Pot 4: The teams with the 10th-through 12th-best prior-season records.
• Pot 5: The teams with the 13th-through 15th-best prior-season records.

> B. Group Play Draw
"Cup Nights" will take place every Friday from Oct. 30 – Nov. 27, with additional Cup Nights on Tuesday, Nov. 24 and Wednesday, Nov. 25. The only NBA games played on Cup Nights will be Group Play games. Group Play games will count as regular-season games for all purposes.

A team will play each of the other four teams in its group in one Group Play game. A team's record in these four intraconference games will determine whether the team qualifies for the Knockout Rounds.

In the event two or more teams are tied within a group, the tie among the teams will be broken according to the following tiebreakers (in sequential order):

• Head-to-head record in Group Play;
• Point differential in Group Play; ^^
• Total points scored in Group Play; ^^
• Record from the 2025-26 NBA regular season;
• Random drawing (in the unlikely scenario that two or more teams are still tied following the previous tiebreakers).

^^ Overtime scoring will not count toward the point differential and total points tiebreakers in the Emirates NBA Cup. A team's point differential will be "0" in Group Play games that go to overtime, and a team's total points scored will exclude points scored in overtime.

Eight teams will advance to the Knockout Rounds: the team with the best standing in Group Play games in each of the six groups and one wild card team from each conference. The wild card will be the team from each conference with the best record in Group Play games that finished second in its group.

In the event two or more teams are tied for the wild card in a conference, the tie among the teams will be broken following the same tiebreaker protocol as described above (with the exception of the head-to-head record in Group Play). Ties within groups will be broken before the calculation of wild card tiebreakers.

> C. Knockout Rounds

Games played in the first and second rounds of the Knockout Rounds (i.e., Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively) will count as regular-season games for all purposes. The Championship will not be counted as a regular-season game, meaning that the game will not count toward a team's regular-season record, and a player's or team's performance will not count toward regular-season statistics.

In each conference, Quarterfinal games will be hosted by the two teams with the best record in Group Play games, and the team with the best record in Group Play games will host the wild card team. The Semifinal games will be played at the home arena of the higher-seeded team in each conference. In the event two or more teams are tied for the higher seed in a conference after Group Play, the tie among the teams will be broken following the same tiebreaker protocol as described above.

During the Knockout Rounds on days when Emirates NBA Cup games are not scheduled (Dec. 6-7 and Dec. 9-10), the 22 teams that do not qualify for the Knockout Rounds will each play two regular-season games.

A formulaic approach will determine the matchups for these games using the Group Play standings in each conference (5th-15th). Two of the 22 games will be scheduled cross- conference since there will be an odd number of teams in each conference that do not advance to the Quarterfinals. These cross-conference games will be scheduled between bottom- finishing teams in the Group Play stage subject to travel constraints, and no team will play more than one of its two games cross-conference. The other 20 games will be scheduled within conference featuring teams that are otherwise scheduled to play each other three times over the course of the season wherever possible.

The four losing teams in the Quarterfinals in each conference will play each other in a regular-season game on Dec. 7, 9 or 10.

III. Prizing and League Honors
The Emirates NBA Cup prize pool will be allocated to the players on the teams that participate in the Knockout Rounds, with allocations increasing depending on how far a team progresses in the tournament.

At the conclusion of the Emirates NBA Cup, a media panel will select the Most Valuable Player of the competition and the All-Tournament Team. Selection will be based on the players' performance in both Group Play and the Knockout Rounds.

Moses Moody missed the final 10 regular season games and two Play-In Tournament games after suffering a season-ending injury (torn left patellar tendon) in overtime on March 23 at Dallas. Moody, 23, appeared in 60 games (49 starts) for the Warriors in his fifth NBA season in 2025-26, averaging career highs of 12.1 points, 3.3 rebounds, 1.6 assists and 1.0 steals in 25.7 minutes. He hit a career-best 40.1 percent from 3-point range, becoming the 14th player in franchise history to make at least 150 threes in a single season (151).

Including the 2025-26 season, the Warriors were 50-29 in regular season and playoff games in which Butler III played in, the fourth-most wins in the NBA over that span. With Stephen Curry, Draymond Green and Butler III in the lineup, the Warriors have a 40-17 overall record in regular season (18-12 in 2025-26; 22-5 in 2024-25) and a 20-10 road record in the regular season (14-1 in 2024-25)

HONORING NELLIE

The Golden State Warriors will honor Hall of Fame head coach Don Nelson with a 'Nellie' band on their uniforms throughout the 2026-27 season. Nelson, who spent 11 years as head coach of the Warriors, passed away at the age of 86 on August 9th.

Nelson had two head coaching stints with the Warriors, from 1988-95 and 2006-10, compiling 422 regular season victories with the franchise. His first tenure featured the famed "Run TMC" teams led by Tim Hardaway, Mitch Richmond and Chris Mullin. He later returned to Golden State and coached the 2006-07 "We Believe" Warriors, who made NBA history by defeating the 67-win, top-seeded Dallas Mavericks in the opening round of the 2007 NBA Playoffs. The Warriors became the first No. 8 seed to defeat a No. 1 seed in a seven-game series, overcoming a 25-win regular-season difference, the largest ever by a team to win a playoff series.

During a 31-year NBA head coaching career that also included stops with the Milwaukee Bucks, New York Knicks and Mavericks, Nelson amassed 1,335 regular-season victories, the most in league history at the time of his retirement in 2010. He was named NBA Coach of the Year three times, earning the honor with Milwaukee in 1983 and 1985 and Golden State in 1992, and is one of only three coaches in NBA history to win the award three times, joining Gregg Popovich and Pat Riley. Nelson also joined Lenny Wilkens as the only coaches to record at least 300 victories with three different franchises, winning 540 games with Milwaukee, 422 with Golden State and 339 with Dallas. Nelson was named the recipient of the 2025 Chuck Daly Lifetime Achievement Award, joining Al Attles (2023) and Rick Adelman (2017) as the third Warriors head coach to receive the honor.

Originally selected by the Chicago Zephyrs in the third round (19th overall) of the 1962 NBA Draft out of the University of Iowa, Nelson played 14 NBA seasons with the Zephyrs, Los Angeles Lakers and Boston Celtics, appearing in 1,053 regular-season games and averaging 10.3 points, 4.9 rebounds and 1.4 assists. He spent 11 seasons with Boston, helping the Celtics capture five NBA championships in 1966, 1968, 1969, 1974 and 1976. Nelson appeared in 150 career playoff games and led the NBA in field goal percentage (.539) during the 1974-75 season. His No. 19 was retired by the Celtics in 1978.
